Spring Bonnets.—Spring bonnets trimmed icady for wear have arrived, says a New York journal, and are a creamy white mass of chip, ribbons, lace and flowers, all of the one shade that is already becoming monotonous. The chips are very fine, and the preference for yellowish white is marked, for although colored chips-brown, gray or black-are imported unfrimmed, not one colored bonnet is found among the large importations of trimmed bonnets for models. The new rough finished yet glossy straw bonnets are very handsome, and are brought out in the best shapes. These are not the coarse, rough-and-ready straws formerly used, but are fine satin-faced rice straws of com tint, yet with raised braids that give them a stylish rough surface. The new shapes are close at the sides, project above the forehead, are short behind, and those most in favor with the best milliners have square crowns; yet there are many round crowns, and many pokebonnets of more or less pronounced shapes; the latter are rejected by leading dealers, but young ladies have found out that they are becoming and are easily trimmed, hence those who do their millinery at home will select the like a halo are passed.

LEAP YEAR HUMOR.—Just at present the conventional wit evoked by the fact that this equivalent. is leap year pervades many of the papers. Years ago some anonymous miscreant invented the fable that in leap year unmarried ladies ask un- | CLAIRVOYANT EXAMINATIONS FREE. married men to marry them. This invention he called a joke, and his shameless mendacity has ever since been sedulously echoed by certain editors. Paragraphs asserting that young men marriage from every unmarried lady in the country; that badges bearing the inscription "engaged" or "sworn to celibacy" are openly worn by single men as a means of protection; and that countless young ladies have proposed lo and been accepted by rich widowers and handsome young men, crowd the columns of otherwise respectable and intelligently conducteil newspapers. As every one knows, there is not the slightest foundation for any one of these paragraphs. There is not an unmarried Woman living who fancies that leap year confers on her the privilege of unsexing herself, or of such an alleged privilege. And yet newspapers continue to print the conventional leap year anecdotes, and expect the public to accept them as witticisms. People do not laugh ever them, as they do over the comic police reports. They simply read them in silence, regarding them as a proper and necessary feature of every leap year, and abstain from either killing the editor or openly denouncing his jokes out of a vague feeling that he is only doing his duty to is the calendar itself.

H. BROWNING TAYLOR, Prop'r. October 6, 1875.

There is no subject that requires so much study and experience as the treatment of chronic diseases. The astonishing success and remarkable cures performed by Dr. Butterfield, are due to the gift of clairvoyance, to the lifeere now in danger of receiving proposals of long study of the constitution of man, and the curing of diseases from natural remedies. Cures the worst forms of Scrofula, Catarrh, Piles, Female Weakness, Asthma, Kidneys or Bladder Will be at the Cafferty House, Binghamton Thursday, and Friday, March, 16 and 17. THE NEW TOWN HALL AT AYER.—This elegant structure is now complete. In beauty of design it surpasses anything of its kind in the State. Constructed of brick and dark maible it is as permanent as it is charming. The English architects have adorned it, in subdued colors, which please without tiring the eye. Dr. J. C. Ayer built and gave it to the town in acknowledgment of the distinction they confered upon him in taking his name. Although it is a generous gift, still the hearty good wishes who, in any circumstances, would avail herself of a whole people are of greater value and the generous donor has doubtless secured them.-Groton (Mass.) Journal.

WE THINK that the people of Montrose and vicinity are finding out where the most popular Dry Goods House in Bing. amton is located for C. F. Sisson & Co. inform us that their trade, from this section, is very large and constantly increasing. In their stock may now be found a large and carefully selected stock of Dry Goods, suitable to the wants of everybody. They make a specialty of Black Silks, Black Cassimeres, Black Mohairs, Black Alpacas, and society, and is as irresponsible in the matter as the finer, grades of Dress Goods, and in this line are prepared to give some decided bar-gains. We suppose that nearly everybody is Juny List.—The following is a list of Grand aware that their store is located at 61 Court Street, next to the Canal.
