

TOWN, COUNTY, AND VARIETY.

The Summer Term of the Graded School opened on Monday last. List of Centennial Celebration committee on seventh page of this paper. The letting of the pews in the M. E. Church will take place on Saturday May 13th. In Binghamton on Wednesday of last week, "Tip" Hayden, the Binghamton burglar, was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment, at Auburn, for fifteen years. Always encourage home institutions thereby benefiting yourself, your neighbors, and the town in which you live. There's nothing like a "live and let live" spirit, you know. Enemies are as necessary to the proper development of the full-grown man as friends. When lived that man that amounted to anything but could count his enemies by the scores? No business man need complain that he is "too poor to advertise" when he can get the latest style business cards printed at the DEMOCRAT office for three dollars per thousand, and other work in proportion. Robert Gilland has opened a shoe shop over E. V. Curry's cigar store. Mr. Gilland was for a long time with C. N. Stoddard, and is well known in this community as a first-class boot and shoe maker. By our advertising columns this week it will be seen that the firm of E. Bacon & Son, has been dissolved and the business divided, Mr. E. Bacon, the senior member of the late firm, retaining the bakery and dining rooms, and Mr. E. C. Bacon continuing the confectionery, toy, and canned goods department. Dickinson's Orchestra, of Binghamton, will give Frank Beman a benefit at the Court House in Montrose, on Tuesday evening, May 16th. Mr. Carl R. Krebs, violinist, of Scranton, will be among the performers. This will probably be an opportunity to hear as good music as was ever heard in Montrose. Orville Tiffany, residing near Nicholson was drowned on Saturday April 22 while attempting to ride down the creek to Nicholson in a boat. It is supposed he was taken with an attack of the palsy, the boat upset, and although the water at that point was only about eighteen inches deep, he was drowned before his situation was discovered. C. H. Birchard, formerly of this place, has taken up his residence in Philadelphia, within a mile of the Centennial grounds where he is prepared to furnish good accommodations to visitors. He is on the line of a street railway, and can make it an object for his friends to patronize him. Persons wishing rooms should apply a week or two in advance. We have read of a shower of fleas in one section and a shower of flies in another, but Susquehanna county is bound to be ahead this centennial year. We had a shower of May flowers on Sunday last. The blossoms commenced falling about noon and continued with short intervals until long in the night, and the ground was covered to the depth of an inch. It did not seem to be a snow squall. The two persons that escaped jail, Mattice and Wood, are still at large. It was a matter of great wonder how these fellows became possessed of the saw with which they did their work on the iron bars, as they were thoroughly searched by the sheriff when they were put in, but Allen, the one who did not go, says that Mattice had it concealed in the sole of his boot. Mattice had just finished a three years sentence at Auburn (N. Y.) state prison where his business has been piling and finishing up shoes and the saw which the sheriff afterwards found, was made of a shoe knife and had been concealed by him between the soles of his boots. The other day a Reading detective arrested a young lady aged about eighteen years well dressed, riding on the bumpers of a freight car. He assisted her off the car and told her it was against the rules of the railroad company to ride on freight trains, and especially in the manner she had selected, as she was in danger of meeting with a fatal accident. She retorted, "meeting with accidents is my own lookout, not yours; you just go about your business and let me alone, I can take care of myself." The young lady, who was of comely appearance, but rough spoken, subsequently remarked to another person who questioned her, "I came from Lebanon on the bumpers, and I am going to New York my chance to ride the same way to New York city, where I am going to live." She declined to give her name. She walked away from the depot, and that was the last that was seen of her. Mr. Ami Ely of Brooklyn, this county, handed us the other day, one of the genuine pieces of Continental scrip which was issued one hundred years ago. On the face was printed, "Two Thirds of a Dollar, No. 354, 471." According to resolution of Congress passed at Philadelphia, Feb. 17th 1776, and on the left centre is a stamp which is too indistinct for us to give a minute description, the whole being enclosed in a square bordering. On the reverse side are thirteen links joined together, with the name of each of the thirteen colonies on each respectively, the whole encircling a sun dial with the words "American Congress. We are one" thereon. On the top "Two Thirds of a Dollar" and at the bottom "Philad. Printed by Hall and Sellers, 1776." Mr. Gurden Ely, grandfather of Mr. Ami Ely was a soldier of the Revolution; and on his discharge from the army received this among others, in payment for his services. Mr. Ely on his return home from the army paid thirty dollars of this kind of money for a drink of cider. The grandson however, informs us, that he has been offered a large premium for this piece many a time. This piece has been sacredly preserved as an heirloom in the Ely family, and handed down from father to son, and it certainly must possess great historical value to its possessor.

Women's Temperance Prayer Meeting at Mrs. A. L. Post's Thursday at 3 p. m. Rev. E. A. Warriner, rector of St. Pauls church, Montrose, has been absent for two weeks visiting friends in Massachusetts. He is expected to return this week. A large assortment of the latest and neatest styles of visiting and business cards just received at this office. Call and see them before ordering elsewhere. Soldier's Monument Committee met at the office of Hon. Wm. J. Turrell on Monday evening, and a draft was presented by Capt. J. R. Lyons, which met the approval of the committee. Work was ordered to be commenced at once upon the foundation. The corner stone is to be laid the Thirtieth. There is various kinds of team work and hand labor which can be donated to great advantage, upon the raising of the foundation, and with a great saving of funds, thus enabling the committee to apply more to the superstructure if the right spirit will move the people of this section. The committee will give an opportunity for a day or two of labor to all who will so donate it, and we hope that faith in the genuine patriotic feelings of our citizens toward this enterprise, will believe that a large amount of such volunteer labor will be offered.

In MEMORIAM.—At a meeting of Auburn Centre Lodge, I. O. O. F., the following resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, It hath pleased God in his wisdom to remove by death from the companionship of our brother Wm. White, his wife, the companion of his earlier days, thus leaving him to mourn the loss of counselor and friend whose place to him can never be filled; Therefore Resolved, That we do heartily sympathize with him in his deep affliction, and as we would extend to him the hand of fellowship and brotherly love, so would we express our willingness to share with him the pangs of sorrow and we would refer him kindly to the love of Him who rules in that better Kingdom, who alone can comfort the sorrowing. C. L. TEWKSBURY, Sec.

LIBERTY.—Esq. Marvin is a little stronger and we hope the angel of health may yet hover over the sufferer. The Rev. Mr. Cooper, pastor of the M. E. church has moved into the parsonage at Franklin Forks. Elder Burroughs has removed to Bradford county. May success attend him in the earnest wish of friends. Rev. E. R. Tower, from Factoryville, filled the desk in the Baptist church last Sunday morning. Mr. John Boyd has completed the painting of his new dwelling. The ordinance of Baptism was administered on Sunday, April 23d, by Elder Burroughs. The candidates were from Raynor creek. Eddie Truesdell caught a trout the other day weighing three quarters of a pound. May the little fellow be one of those who are "made fishers of men." The estate of the late Mrs. Bailey is settled, not by law, as is generally the case, but among the heirs peaceably and amicably. Mr. Eddie Disbrow made his parents a flying visit last week. His motto is "business before pleasure" so his stay was brief. Zoz.

IN MEMORY OF HENRY LOW.—Another aged man gone! Henry Low, of Auburn Centre, Susquehanna county, died at his residence. He was born in New Jersey, April 25, 1798, hence, if his life had been spared a few days more he would have attained the ripe old age of 78 years. He was a well educated man, and his earthly sojourn was characterized by earnest religious experience and zeal in the cause of Christ. He was Deputy Sheriff for three years in Huntingdon county, N. J., many decades ago; and served efficiently and well. He was collector in the same county a number of years and is, no doubt, remembered by the oldest inhabitants there, even to this day. He said that as far as he could learn he was the oldest of the name living. He was a local minister of the M. P. church, and was an epitome of redeeming love, as exemplified in his choice of Scripture for his funeral services, "To live in Christ, to die in gain," Phil. 1, 21. He has been a resident of Susquehanna county over forty years, being in Luzerne a few years of the time. He leaves an aged companion who joyfully awaits her summons to depart and be with her Saviour forever; and children and many relatives who will cherish the memory of the departed. He was a great sufferer for wearisome months; but the edict has gone forth, the tablets of life are closed by the Almighty hand, and the emaciated casket of earth's mortality is laid at rest. The flowers will bloom and the sun will shine but not for thee, O Pioneer Pilgrim, not for thee! Farewell! Farewell! Com.

AUBURN AND ELSEWHERE.—Wm. Ayres died at the residence of Ansel Gay in South Auburn March 23d, 1876. Anderson Jones, of East Rush, had a paralytic stroke, March 17th. Milton Harris sen. died March 30th, after a long and tedious illness. His funeral was attended at Jersey Hill, April 1st, and Rev. S. Barner delivered the sermon on the occasion from Job 5th, 7, 8 and 28th verses. Mr. Harris was born in Rhode Island, in 1798, hence was in his 80th year when, death summoned him away. He was a pioneer in the woodlands of Auburn and cleared two farms, built the grist and saw mills, known for many years as "Harris' Mills," and died in the house where his manhood's strength had been spent in gaining a competence. The funeral of Hattie, youngest daughter of Anderson Jones of East Rush, was attended Monday, April 3d. Cause, scarlet fever followed by dropsy. The funeral of Jacob Young, was attended by a large concourse of people at Jersey Hill, April 4th. Eld. H. H. Gray preached an excellent sermon from Psalm 60, 11, "Give us help in trouble." Ah! these are indeed troublous times and "vain is the help of man." Marshall and Sarah Linaberry have been called to pass through the waters of affliction. Their little daughter, Ida, aged about three years, died April 15th with scarlet fever and the funeral was attended at Jersey Hill. The infant of Wm. and Ann White, of Montrose, was buried at Jersey Hill the morning of April 18th. The funeral of Ann, wife of Wm. White, Sheriff of Susquehanna county, was attended at Jersey Hill, April 20th by a large concourse of relatives and friends. Rev. W. L. Thorpe, of Montrose, preached the funeral sermon. The fraternity of Odd Fellows paid their respects with great honor, to their Brother White in his sorrowful bereavement. Schools are opening with many new teachers in the field of initiation to the "mysteries of School teaching. Miss Emma Vanover teaches at the Picket school house. Miss Ettie Hibbard will teach, Judson Gray, of Granderville, will teach at Auburn 4 Corners and continue his studies also. There are rumors that Elder E. Millard is to preach at the Baptist church near the Corners this year. We hail this news with gladness. Rev. Silas Barner and family moved to their new appointment last week. Sad were the partings of kindred hearts. Rev. Wrigley assumes this charge as his field of labor, and we trust that we will have a prosperous year. B. B.

A VINDICATION.—Whereas certain reports are seemingly quite current relating to E. L. Weeks' agency in the building of the new M. E. church, and furnishing the same, which are derogatory to his character and reputation for integrity and honesty in the transactions connected with the same, such as "failing and unable to fully account for moneys expended," "not detailing the accounts" and other statements too foolish to repeat. Therefore we, the properly chosen board of trustees, having been such from the beginning of the enterprise, being all present but one, he absent from home, desiring to satisfy the candid inquiries and quiet the tongue of gossip, take this most public way to pronounce an unqualified denial of all such rumors, declaring them false with no color of truth. We also further assert that the various bills and accounts through the various stages of the enterprise, at the several distinctive points reached in its development were truly and faithfully audited by us, and an account of the same put on record. This card is cheerfully given by us to the public, at our suggestion, feeling it due to ourselves as the guardians of the interests entrusted to us which are created and entertained by the contributions of the people as well as to Brother Weeks, who with almost unequalled enthusiasm and devotion acted as agent in the enterprise. Signed D. D. HINDS, J. R. LEWIS, G. H. DRAKE, Wm HAUGHWOUT, Trustees.

We also herewith annex the card which was unanimously adopted by a full board at the time of the final settlement, July 6th, 1875, and at that time published in the county papers. A Card from the Trustees of the M. E. Church of Montrose: The new church being now entirely completed, including grading of grounds, and all the appurtenances of a fully finished church, and the enterprise being one in which the public are largely interested and to which many have made voluntary contributions, we take great pleasure in announcing to all whom it may concern that at a meeting of a full board, on July 6th, the accounts and statement of the building committee were examined in detail and full, and we find the same minutely itemized and remarkably plain. Also that we are forcibly convinced that the moneys and means contributed for the same have been emphatically, economically and wisely appropriated, and that the enterprise as a whole has been brought to its happy issue in a way entitling them to the heartiest gratitude of all concerned. Furthermore we are unanimous and hearty in asserting that E. L. Weeks, who has acted as agent all through, is entitled to great credit and high appreciation for the close attention, the perseverance of effort, the business tact, the interest, and disinterested devotion with which he has engaged in the task from the first; and we are unanimous and unfeigned in saying to the same we attribute the almost unequalled success and happy issue of the enterprise. A resolution complimentary and appreciative was passed heartily and ordered as a part of the permanent record, and this card ordered to be published in the DEMOCRAT and Republican. W. L. THORPE, D. D. HINDS, Sec'y pro tem, President.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The early settlers of our town will remember the family of Mr. Andrew Campbell, many years ago residing in a house then standing on the west side of the Lackawanna near the present location of Gelder's foundry. Mr. Campbell, the father raised a family of six sons, and we believe three daughters. He came to Carbondale from the North of Ireland when the town was new, and he and his family were attendants upon the Episcopal Church. The father received injuries upon the Del. & Hud. RR. at the head of No. 1 plane, of which he died June 16th, 1851. This sad calamity has since been followed by the similar death of four of the sons. Leonard, was killed upon the Del. & Hud. RR. near the Pump House in the Fourth Ward, January 13th, 1862, aged 23 years. Wright was killed on the Bloomsburg RR. at Pittston, January 14th, 1869, aged 32 years. Asgur was killed on the Morris & Essex RR. in New Jersey, June 2d, 1871, aged 34 years. Huzmon, the fourth son and fifth victim to railroad casualties, in this unfortunate family, fell through the trap doors of a coal car on the Lehigh Valley RR. at Pittston, on Friday of last week, and was so seriously injured that he died Sunday morning, April 23d, 1876, aged 37 years. Two brothers, Ulysses and Loftus, we believe still survive and are in business in the valley below us. Remarkable as are so many RR accidents in one family, it is worthy of note that in addition to these, three cousins and two nephews of these young men have met with a similar death.—Carbondale Advance.

G. L. Lenheim, of Great Bend, has removed to his new store. His advertisement will appear next week.

MEERER.—In Jessup, March 31st, Nettie Meeker, aged 81 years.

Nettie's painful existence has ended, and the painless one embraced. Her large circle of friends, that were ever happy in manifesting their love can do so no more. The cheerful care and cloudless affections bestowed by fond parents, loving sister, kind brothers through her protracted prostration, can be continued only in memory and in desire. Five years since she made peace with the "Victor over death," so that the sound of his bells had no fear for him. Long she listened and looked for his coming, lying calmly and unmurmuringly on the brink, waiting his beckon to be borne "over the river." To the family and friends her life says: "I'll watch for you by the Gate; Do not in vain have me wait." M. E. BRAMHALL, Fairdale, April 21, 1876.

Drugs and Medicine.

WHAT IS GLASS? It is a liquid Liniment for Home and stable use. A valuable combination, discovered by a celebrated English chemist and horse-farrier. Was introduced in the United States in the year 1856, and since that time, by its great success, in the cure of diseases, it has won for itself that world wide reputation it so richly deserves, and now stands at the head of all liniments unrivalled. AS A FAMILY MEDICINE. It has already gained the confidence and admiration of thousands of households for its many cures of diseases were external applications are of a much importance. It is especially admired as a family remedy for its peculiar chemical combination, possessing no harsh ingredients (like tincture of Cayenne or red pepper, or which cheap and valueless Liniments are largely composed.) which increase instead of diminish the inflammation, making it of a nature a speedy cure for RHEUMATISM, HEADACHE, SORE THROAT, COLIC, COUGHS, CHOLERA, FOOTRACHE, BRUISES, SPRAINS, LUMBAGO, CRAMPS, COLDS, CHILLS, FROST, TIC DOLOR, EYES, BURNS, CUTS, BITES OF POISONOUS INSECTS, &c.
