"Good News."-Songs and tunes for Sun day Schools, Christian Associations, and Spec ial Meetings. By R. M. McIntosh. Published by Oliver Ditson & Co.

We "boys of a larger growth" can well remember when our supply of oranges was generally bought from old ladies, who had 11 or 12 of them, together with a general assortment of apples, nuts, etc., in small 'quantities, and all on the same small stand. Now, great pyramids of the luscious fruit illumine all the street corners. and rapidly disappear by tens and dozens, while fleets of swift vessels cannot come tast enough to supply the great demand. Why? Simply because some merchants, once upon a time; happened to send for more fruit than was wanted. It came. It would quickly spoil. It was poured on the market in quantities. People seeing great heaps, became orange hungry. Not many oranges spoiled. More were needed and sent for, and they are now used a hundred for one. Not many years ago, one or two Hymn and Tune books supplied all the Sabbath Schools -Publishers were timid about new books, because the market was full. But one or two new ones neceeded, and competition was aroused, with easy, pretty Sunday School Songs that never specific information see next issue. sang before, and the gamin of the streets is heard to sing the lays of Zion; -because they are prettier and sweeter than those of the heathen round about. Here is good news, boys, girls, teachers! Come and buy!

LIBERTY.—Brother Marvin, who has so long been a sufferer, is mercifully released. He passed away Wednesday the 10th about one o'clock in the morning. He died as he had lived—in the sunshine of God's smile. A more triumphant death bed scene I never before witnessfill Thursday, the 11th, at twelve o'clock a large number of relatives and friends assembled at the house, and after the usual ceremonies the remains were brought down to the Baptist thurch which was well filled with sorrowing friends, for the whole community felt that they Were indeed mourners. The Rev. A. H. Fish preached from the words the deceased had so olten repeated during his illness, "Oh death where is thy sting, oh grave where is thy victory?" The choir then sang for the closing hymn 2 piece of Mr. Marvin's own selection, "He is gone to the spirit land." Montrose, May 17, 1876.

WE TAKE pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the fact that the popular Dry Goods house of C. F. Sisson & Co., Binghamton, are now receiving an unusually large and complete assortment of new spring goods. Notwithstanding the cry of "hard times," this house informs us that their trade is larger than at any former season. This is easily accounted for by the fact that they always offer the most reliable goods at the some prices that many houses sell a very inferior grade. All the novelties of the season, both of toreign and domestic manufacture, may now be found upon their shelves, and a visit to their store, will conyince anyone that that is the place to trade.

CLAIRVOYANT EXAMINATIONS FREE. There is no subject that requires so much study and experience as the treatment of chronic diseases. The astonishing success and re are due to the gift of clairvoyance, to the life-
