DECORATION DAY IN TUNKHANNOCK.—EDITORS OF DEMOCRAT: The Decoration Day services in this beautiful and picturesque old town were conducted in the most orderly and impressive manner.

An incident occurred just after the decoration services were over, that attracted attention. One brave fellow, whose pale face attested to the fact of health ruined by years of toil and suffering in the army, stood by the grave of a dearly loved comrade; and, while the hot tears of a bitter remembrance coursed down his wan cheek, he said to a friend: "While this government pays tribute to the dead soldiers, I wish it did not so easily forget the claims of the living."

After the exercises, the crowd returned to the Court House square, where they listened to an oration by Hon. G. A. Grow. His speech was a finished literary production and abounded with noble sentiments and appropriate poetical quotations.

PUBLISHING THE ACCOUNTS OF SCHOOL BOARDS.—In lieu of the perplexing mode of publishing the accounts of school boards required by law for several years past, the Legislature at its late session enacted a law entitled "An Act to regulate the publication of the accounts and financial statements of school boards."

Section 1.—That it shall be the duty of each board of school directors in the several school districts of this Commonwealth annually, at the close of the school year, to place in the hands of proper auditors a full certified statement, itemized, of their receipts and expenditures for the past year, including the assets and liabilities of the district, of all kinds, with all books, papers and vouchers relating to the same, to be said auditors examined, and it found to be correct, approved; such statement to be spread upon the minutes of the board of directors and in a condensed but fully classified form published by said board in not less than ten written or printed handbills to be put up in the most public places in the district, or, if deemed preferable, in the two newspapers of the county in which the district is situated having the largest circulation among the citizens interested, and for any neglect or failure to perform the duties enjoined by this act the officers named therein shall be considered guilty of misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, to be paid into the school fund of the district in which the offense shall have been committed.

Section 2.—That the publication of the accounts of school boards herein provided for shall be in lieu of all publication of said accounts now required by law, and all acts, or parts of acts, inconsistent herewith be and they are hereby repealed. Provided, That the provisions of this act shall not extend to cities of the first class.

WE TAKE pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the fact that the popular Dry Goods house of C. F. Sisson & Co., Binghamton, are now receiving an unusually large and complete assortment of new spring goods. Notwithstanding the cry of "hard times," this house informs us that their trade is larger than at any former season. This is easily accounted for by the fact that they always offer the most reliable goods at the same prices that many houses sell a very inferior grade. All the novelties of the season, both of foreign and domestic manufacture, may now be found upon their shelves, and a visit to their store, will convince anyone that that is the place to trade.

Faurot would be most happy to see all of their acquaintances and show them the bargains that Hine & Sholes are now prepared to give. HINE & SHOLES. Binghamton, Dec. 1, 1875.

An oriental traveler describes this busy scene witnessed on historic shores: "Our steamer landed on a beach which was the port of Antioch, where the disciples were first called Christians. There was no town at the water's edge, no people, no wharf. The passengers and the merchandise were put ashore in lighters, which ran up into the sand. A troop of camels, with their drivers, lay on the beach, ready to transport the goods into the interior. Among the articles landed were boxes marked 'Dr. J. U. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.' showing that they contained medicines and hence hoisted on the backs of camels or transported to Antioch. They are the skill of the West sends back its remedies to heal the maladies of populations that inhabit those eastern shores, whence our spiritual manna came."— Windsor, (Vt.) Chronical.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER. This standard article is compounded with the great care. Its effects are so wonderful and satisfactory as ever. By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong. As a dressing nothing has been found so effective, or desirable. Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
