

PENNSYLVANIA'S TRIBUTE.

There is Pennsylvania: behold her. She was grandly great yesterday as more than a quarter of a million of her people gathered in the Centennial grounds to celebrate the rounded century of organized State authority.

ble citizen. The man who was called to Washington to confer with Lincoln in the darkest days of the war; who denounced the heresy of secession in and out of season, who declared that there could be no peace until there was absolute submission to the authority of the government, and who, in his struggles for reform since the war, extorted the unqualified commendation of the New York Tribune, the Times and every lover of public and private integrity—such a man cannot be successfully assailed at this late day as a perjurer and a traitor, and he who attempts it only insults the intelligence of the American people.

The Democrats assert that President Lincoln very frequently called Mr. Tilden to Washington to consult with him in the darkest days of the war. The statement is not true.—[Pittsburgh Commercial.

When the thick fog hangs over a city it is impossible to see the sun. If the people would have the gorgeous orb of prosperity shine upon this broad land, they must defeat the intention of the Republicans to force a Hayes over the country undercover of which they expect to continue the work of corruption without the knowledge of the public.

MARK THESE FACTS!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. Testimony of the Whole World. Extracts from Various Letters. "I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one."

For Cutaneous Disorders, at all eruptions of the skin, this ointment is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

For Stomach and Bowel Disorders, medicine will so effectively improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce its heat; they are admirably efficacious in cases of spasms—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach.

IMPORTANT CAUTION. Note are genuine unless the signature of J. B. Rogers, agent for the United States, surrounds each box of this Ointment. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicine or sending the name, knowing them to be so.
