Town, County, and Variety.

——Read the address of Abel Turrell on eighth page.

——Regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. next Monday evening.

——Littles & Blakeslee's law office is receiving a new coat of paint.

——Passengers on the Montrose Railway were landed at the new depot on Monday evening last, for the first time.

——The Tilden and Hendricks Reform meeting at Hopbottom will be held on Saturday instead of Friday as advertised last week. Turn out.

——Improvements still continue on Depot street. Stone sidewalks have been laid in front of the dwellings of Messrs. Sweet and Hempstead and we trust the others will be done by the time the depot is completed.

——Mr. Elisha Mulford made a very fair speech on Saturday night last before the Republican club of Montrose, for a Minister who sees fit to drag his ministerial robes into politics. It was partizan but more fair than the average this year.

——Rev. I. T. Walker, P. E., will hold Quarterly Meeting services at the M. E. church next Saturday and Sabbath. Preaching Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m., and Sabbath morning and evening Love Feast Sabbath morning at 9:30. The public are invited. PASTOR.

— Mr. Watson, who addressed a lodge of the "Knights of the Golden Circle" at the Red School House above New Milford Borough, sets himself up as a denouncer of the war record of Democrats. He knows who were members of that order and in his states evidence capacity, he would do well to expose them. Rise up Senator Watson.

——This is not only a very exciting but a very interesting political campaign. Women as well as men have a duty to perform to their country, and they should not shrink from it.—They cannot vote or appear in procession, but they can cut the wood and bring up the coal and thus leave men more time to talk up matters.—Danbury News.

——Remember the Tilden and Hendricks Reform meeting at the Court House, Thursday evening, November 2d. Hon. R. R. Little and John A. Sittser, esq., of Tunkhannock, will address the meeting. Bring out your wives and daughters. All are interested in good government. Come and hear discussion. Every one, of whatever name or party, should feel interested at this crisis.

——"Hold the Fort" is the watchword of the office-holders, the bank smashers, the naturalization paper forgers, the illegal fee takers, the ballot box stuffers and the return tinkers.—"Take the Fort" is the people's answer. Take it from the ninety thousand office-holders.—Take it from the Belknaps and Babcocks, the Butlers and Shepherds Take it from the defaulting postmasters and the embezzling collectors of internal revenue. Take it from the fraudulent mail contractors and the navy department thieves! Take it from the jobbers in post traderships and soldiers' grave stones! Take it from the whisky ring thieves and the Pacific Railroad ring plunderers! Take the fort!

——The Commissioners of Wayne county MUST receive extra pay for their services while building a new Court House, said Mr. Watson in his speech. Why "must" they?—Did they so inform Mr. Watson? If not they, who did? Did their counsel or any other Democrat, prominent or obscure, in Wayne county ever write Mr. Watson to that effect? What does this "must" mean? Would not the Commissioners go on without extra pay? If so, how did Mr. Watson know this? And if he did know it, is not he, and those who controlled his action, entirely responsible, not only for the $6,000 which his bill is to cost us, but for the entire burden which the building of a new Court House is to fasten upon our shoulders? Mr. Watson, you must explain!—Wayne County Herald.

——Mr. George G. Waller's Man Friday Watson, present State Senator from this district, seems to have played quite an important part in saddling the new Court House upon the people of Wayne county. He not only procured the passage of the $6,000 Extra Pay Bill, but it was through his influence that the editor of the Citizen was appointed by Governor Hartranft one of the Associate Judges of Wayne county, and that, too, after the Governor was understood to have positively promised that he would not give Mr. Wilson the office.—One of the first official acts of Mr. Watson's favorite was to sign the order of Court requiring the Board of Commissioners to proceed with the erection of the new Court House. It looks as though the Waller-Watson scheme was to bring the combined effect of pulling and pushing to bear on the Board. What wonder that it was effectual?—Wayne County Herald.

——The Supreme Court of Illinois has just made an important decision, affecting the rights of school committees, teachers and pupils. A pupil in a common school was expelled for refusing, by command of her parents, to purchase books to study book keeping. An action for trespass was instituted against the directors and principal of the school and a verdict was given against them for $135. The supreme court, on appeal, affirmed the judgment of the lower court. The court held that the legislature had invested school directors with the power to compel the teaching in common schools of higher branches than those enumerated in the statute, to those willing to receive instruction therein, but had left it purely optional with parents and guardians whether the children under their charge shall study such branches. In the case before them the directors had no power to expel the pupil for refusing to study book-keeping as book-keeping was not one of the enumerated studies, and it was optional with her guardian whether or not she study it. We presume this is good law in Pennsylvania, as well as in Illinois.

——Mrs. J. G. Burnett will give one of her popular readings in Montrose, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, at their rooms, on Friday evening, Nov. 3d. It will be remembered that this lady gave two readings in this place, a year ago, which gave universal satisfaction, and it is hoped she will receive a full house. Tickets 50 cts, to be obtained at Deans' Book Store and at the door.

——What the Citizen may have to say by way of an effort to relieve its party from the damning effect of this disclosure remains to be seen; but it may possibly be foreshadowed by the street talk in which the leaders of the Ring are included. These leaders have the effrontery to claim that the bill giving the Commissioners of this county between FIVE AND SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS EXTRA PAY while building a new Court House, providing its erection occupies only three years, was not a Wayne county move at all; that its introduction and passage were due to the fact that several other counties in the state were anxious to put up new public buildings, and were desirous of enlisting the favor of their board of Commissioners by issuing them extra pay; and that there was no pressure put upon the Radical Legislative delegation from this district to induce them to favor the passage of the act.—Wayne County Herald.

——It seems that Mr. George G. Waller's enmity with Hon. G. A. Grow is no new thing. When he prevented the possibility of Mr. Grow's securing the vote of the Wayne county delegation in the late Congressional Conference, by circulating the story that Jadwin was to make $10,000 by the transfer, many people imagined that he had taken a sudden dislike to Susquehanna's favorite. Not so. The feud is a venerable one, dating back many years, as the following from the Honesdale Democrat of October 23, 1862, bears witness:

"On Monday morning before the election Mr. G. G. Waller made a visit to the Herald office While there he said in the presence of sundry people that he had been over to Montrose on the Fair Grounds helping his father in-law oppose Galusha A. Grow, the regular Republican Union candidate for congress. He talked largely of crushing the Radicals, and all that."

The Radicals of Susquehanna county now have a chance to "crush" him, and we guess they mean to do it.—Wayne co. Herald.

——I saw in last week's Republican, a statement in regard to the Tilden and Hendricks club of Nicholson, which is so very unjust to our friends in that place, that I deem it but right that our friends in other places should know the truth. I attended a meeting of the Tilden and Hendricks club of Nicholson, Wyoming county, last Thursday evening, and the hall, twenty-five feet by sixty, was filled to its utmost capacity, and a great many were unable to gain admittance. There was at least four hundred and fifty persons present. At 7 o'clock, as fine a band of music as there is in Northern Pennsylvania, with a beautiful uniform, escorted the speaker, J. B. McCollum, of Montrose, to the hall. After some fine music by the band, the President of the club introduced Mr. McCollum to the audience. For an hour and a half, he talked to those earnest and intelligent men in his usual clear, forcible, and eloquent style. When the meeting closed all were pleased with the meeting and several men whom I have known personally for thirty years, and have never voted the Democratic ticket in their lives, declared to me they should vote for Tilden and Hendricks this time. The club had fifty names on its role at its first meeting, and now numbers many more. Look sharp, you may expect good news from Wyoming county. S.

——A couple of gentlemen from Binghamton were in town Monday and criticised the Soldier's Monument. They were Democrats of the reform school, and we believe that the average Democrat is opposed to soldier's monuments, as a general thing.—Montrose Republican.

Our faith in the "fairness" of political discussion that was boasted of by the present editor of the Republican, received a severe jog, week before last, but the above tries our faith in his fairness in any discussion. That Tilden and Hendrick's Democrats or Hayes and Wheeler Republicans of Binghamton have had anything to do with the erection of our worthy county soldier's monument, would be news to us. It is simply infamous and an imposition upon decency, to make such a partizan turn in the matter as is attempted in the above squib, and we have that faith in the honor of the majority of mankind to believe that it will be resented by honest Republicans as well as Democrats. We make no boast, in a partizan sense, but we ask simple justice. We are ready to lay down the files of the DEMOCRAT on this subject with the files of the Republican and take the consequences. We are ready to see the names of all Hayes and Wheeler Republicans and Hayes and Wheeler Democrats who subscribed for this monument, placed beside all Tilden and Hendricks Democrats and Tilden and Hendricks Republicans. It is merely the basest partizan infamy to flaunt such an insinuation before the people of this county at this time. It would be no baser to attempt to claim sectarian church credit on this monument than to credit exclusive political partizanship and Mr. Taylor will do well to excuse this attempt, by pleading his absence at the Centennial.

——The citizens of Rush had a very full and enthusiastic meeting at N. D. Snyder's on Thursday evening last. The meeting was addressed by R. B. Little and E. B. Hawley.

THE WAY TO SECURE A NOMINATION.—Speaking of rumors that are current in political circles over in Wayne and Susquehanna counties, the most probable, and the one that displays the Native characteristics of the big end of the congressional ticket is told of one of the conferees from Wayne, and for a short time a candidate himself for congressional honors.

It seems that after the nomination was made he went to one of the brothers of Mr. Grow, and said to him: "Your brother could have had the nomination if he had only fixed things to suit me!"

He replied very promptly: "If you mean by fixing things that my brother could have received the nomination by buying it, I wish to say to you that he never pays money to secure a nomination to office."

In his own county the Wayne conferee is accused of receiving $1,500 and the promise of the next nomination, for voting for Overton.

"ARGUS."

LAPORTE'S DEFEAT.—The last issue of the Bradford Reporter charges the friends of Mr. Powell in Susquehanna County with uttering a "base slander" by circulating a report that Mr. Overton opposed the election of Mr. Laporte two years ago.

If no other evidence of the evidence of this report could be produced, the position and action of the intimate political friends and advisers of Mr. Overton, the published utterances of N. C. Elsbree and others toward Mr. Laporte, both before and after his nomination and their evident and manifest gratification at his defeat, would lead even a disinterested observer to the conclusion that there had been a secret arrangement among them to bring about that result. Other evidence, however, can be adduced to substantiate the fact that both Mr. Overton and N. C. Elsbree declared their intention to defeat Mr. Laporte for the nomination, and if not successful in the convention then to compass his defeat at the polls.—Argus

When the Republican Congressional conferees met at Tunkhannock, two years ago, N. C. Elsbree and other delegates from Bradford county, worked zealously to secure the nomination of E. Overton Jr., of Towanda, a member of the law firm of OVERTON & ELSBREE.—Failing in their object, they agreed that if the Convention would support Mr. Laporte, whom they had already plotted to defeat at the polls, as subsequent events plainly proved, the nomination for Congress should, in the future, go to the other counties of the District, in rotation. If Mr. Laporte had been elected, according to ordinary party usages he would have been entitled by courtesy to a second term. As long as Mr. Overton so ardently desired the office for himself, it was only sharp practice (though whether strictly honorable or not, let all honest Republicans say at the polls on Tuesday next,) to secretly work to defeat Mr. Laporte. Doubtless it would have been more politic had Overton's friends concealed their exultation at the success of the plot.

In the Judgment of an unscrupulous Ring, MR. POWELL'S election was a sufficient excuse for breaking the pledges they had made at Tunkhannock. Overton was again thrust forward as a candidate for Congressional honors, by his friend Elsbree, in opposition to the plainly expressed wishes of the majority of the people of the whole district. Why else was it necessary to pay $1,500 to Mr. Jadwin of Wayne county, to induce him to "step down and out?" Why else were the claims of Susquehanna and Wyoming ignored, and their respective delegates tauntingly assured that, in two years from that time, they would not be noticed at all? Let the people of the XV District say whether their most sacred trust, the office of Representative, shall thus be made a matter of bargain and sale. Let them, irrespective of party, show their indignation at such corrupt traffic by going to the polls, on Nov. 7th, and voting for "HONEST JOE POWELL."
