On the popular vote the majority for Gov. Tilden appears to be nearly or quite 300,000. This demonstrates the real choice of the country very clearly and emphatically and shows what party is dominant in the country when its unfettered voice is made known.

A few days before his death, the late Speaker Kerr had a conversation with his son, in which he said: "I have nothing to leave you my son, except my good name. Guard it and your mother's honor and live as I have lived. Pay all my debts, if my estate will warrant it without leaving your mother penniless; otherwise pay what you can, and then tell them the truth, and pledge your honor to wipe out the indebtedness."

We can give no certain result of the Presidential election, as it will not be officially announced until Friday next in the States where Republicans are now presenting their "Southern Claims," which we are certain are bogus and won't be allowed by "Uncle Sam." The Philadelphia Times sums our opinion all up in the following terse language.

"Tilden majorities in the South are fully explained, and the doubts as to Louisiana and Florida are set at rest in all candid minds. As the returns stand now, and as they will stand for all time, Tilden has 308,400 majority of the popular vote, 23 majority of the Electoral College, and is the President-elect of the United States."

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—A special to the Herald from Springfield, Ill., tells the following singular story: A most daring attempt was made last evening, by several scoundrels, to break into the vault of the Lincoln monument at this place and steal therefrom the remains of the dead President.

Some weeks ago it was suspected that designs of this kind were premeditated, and a constant watch was kept. It was thought most likely that last night, being election night and every body busy over election matters, would be selected for the job. Elmer Washington, late Chief of the secret service, and United States detective Tirrel, with several assistants, were accordingly secreted in the reception room of the monument during the afternoon and evening.

At nine o'clock last night the attempt was made. The vault was entered, the ocrephagus was opened, and the burial case drawn out, when the detectives sprang out and by the accidental discharge of a revolver the monsters were frightened and fled into the shrubbery. They are now being pursued, and although there is but a slight clue to their identity they will doubtless be taken. The design was a deeply laid plan by sharp men to arrange for a ransom.

OUR BOW.

We make our bow of thanks, to the people of this senatorial district, and especially to those of Wayne county, for the result which they achieved in the election of E. B. Hawley to represent the Twenty Sixth district in the state senate. To say that we are not superlatively gratified, would be assuming an unbecoming modesty, which would be false on the face of it and in entire discord with our idea of frankness. We have but a word farther to say (as he is now to be judged by acts) and that is this. That we know that the friends who have labored for this object, have done so of their own free will and accord, without a single personal appeal to them from the senator elect. Knowing this, E. B. Hawley assumes the very grave responsibilities of a servant of the people of this senatorial district, with the fullest assurance, that a good majority have so elected. He has no wordy promises to make, but will simply say, that he hopes all who have labored to defeat him, have done so honestly and candidly and are satisfied with themselves for so doing, and that he who rules the destinies of men as well as nations may so guide and direct him, in his acts hereafter, that those who have so disinterestedly and manfully compassed his success, will not be called upon to blush with shame for so doing.

WELL DONE WAYNE!

[From Wayne County Herald.]

Well done Wayne! Her voters have demonstrated that when occasion requires they can be depended upon to go to the polls; and when there to cast their ballots for the best interests of themselves and their country.

The crowning glory of the campaign is the overwhelming majority given our candidate for State Senator. So far as our recollection serves, it is the largest that has ever been rolled up for any nominee, who had even a pretense of opposition, since the county was erected. To say that we do not take some personal pride in this result would be to do the hundreds of friends who have seconded our efforts to achieve it, a great injustice. With no personal ill-will toward Mr. Hawley's opponent, we nevertheless felt that his election would be a signal misfortune to the taxpayers of the county, and we determined, if in our power, to prevent it. This consummation was made at first possible, and then certain by the pivotal issue which the Republicans themselves forced into the local campaign. Early in the canvass it became apparent that the enemy were adroitly seeking to foment the latent discontent of a majority of voters on the Court House question, and to so give it direction that it should operate to the disadvantage of all and probable defeat of some of the Democratic candidates. To detect this scheme in time was not only to render it harmless, so far as the enemy was concerned, but to make it a powerful weapon of aggressive warfare in our own hands. It was not a two-edged sword. It was a sword with the keen edge on its back, and its reverse stroke was more effective than in our most sanguine moments we had dared to hope. It has completely out the republican organization of Wayne county in two; and if the parts are ever reunited a political miracle will have been accomplished the like of which has never before been seen.

The majorities for Hon. Wm. M. Nelson and A. R. Howe, for Representatives, are almost equally creditable to the good sense of the voters of the county. The first-named of these gentlemen has had large experience in the Legislature, and was once the nominee of his party for Speaker of the House. It cannot be doubted that he will take a leading position in that body when he again takes his seat. Mr. Howe was entitled to his hearty support he received in view of his admitted ability, and the pluck and energy with which he contested the battle, after his unexpected defeat two years ago.

The election of our candidate for Sheriff, Perry A. Clark, by a majority twice as large as the State ticket received last year is a victory of which he may well be proud. As we said before the election, Mr. Clark's large experience in the Sheriff's office will not only prove of great service to him now, but insure the public a prompt and earnest discharge of the duties of that responsible position.

The defeat of Michael Brown for the office of Associate Judge was at the same time a great error on the part of our party, and a marked act of injustice toward him. He is a gentleman who would have adorned the Bench of Wayne county, and his services in behalf of the organization in years past entitled him to its confidence and hearty support now.

That miserable spirit of intolerance and proscription which the Citizens succeeds in awakening toward such of our candidates as are of Irish birth or parentage at every election, is as discreditable to those who act under its influence as it is unjust to those who suffer from its power. There was not an abler, purer or more deserving nominee on our ticket, than Mr. Brown, and there is no excuse which will bear the test of reason, why he should not have shared in the victory which he labored hard to achieve for his fellow candidates.

Owing to the fact that party lines were drawn exceedingly close in Bradford county, the splendid majority given Hon. Joseph Powell in Wayne fails to insure his re-election to Congress. This is greatly to be regretted. He is a man every way worthy of the place he sought to fill and his usefulness in the next House would have been greatly increased by his experience in the last. He writes us conceding his defeat, coupled with the assurance that his only regrets arise from the disappointment of his friends.

The handsome majority of 920 given to Gov. Tilden, in the county also entitles us to the commendation: Well done, Wayne! Whatever the result in other parts of the State; whether the present promise of the triumph of the Democratic National ticket is or is not fulfilled, the emphatic protest of the voters of this county has been placed upon record against a further continuance of Republican ascendancy and its attendant evils.

A school for ladies has been opened in Berlin on a plan decidedly novel but very practical. The building contains lodging rooms for forty girls, school rooms, working rooms, an immense kitchen, and a permanent bazaar. In the school rooms every branch that will fit the girls for situations in banking, commercial or mercantile establishments is taught. Various trades that ladies can follow are exemplified by skilled operatives. The kitchen is, perhaps, the chief school room, for all the work there is done by the girls under the supervision of one of the best cooks in the city. This feature has become so popular, from the large number of betrothed maidens who flock hither to obtain good domestic education, that the managers have begun to charge for instruction in cookery, and the receipts generally pay the expenses of other departments.

BROOME COUNTY.

Probably the most desperate fight made in the whole country, was made by the Republicans of Broome county. They spent thousands of dollars, worked as desperately as though in the throes of death, and died as though that was the chief virtue laid down in the catechism. Their agonizing friends in other counties ought to remember the Republicans of this county and if they ever have a chance to give an office to any one, we insist that such men as B. N. DeVoe, Pete Hopkins and his young convert St Andrew Slosson, Millard Fillmore Brown, Sweet Cordial Millard, Jim Shormerhorn, E. C. Moody, Prof. Jones, Dav. Carver, Hon. Reuben Span and Tom C. Ocker, are entitled to recognition. They made a desperate fight and succeeded in keeping the Republican majority nearly as large as in 1872. The Republicans of no other county can make as good a showing.

There is no doubt but what this result was brought about by the free use of money. It is hard times, and any one could be easily convinced of this, who stood at the polls and saw voters bought up by Republicans like cattle. White voters seemed to be cheaper than blacks. The latter wanted $5 a piece and many of them received it from our Republican office-holders. A white man sold out at a much lower figure. Shame upon such persons!

The vote in the county exceeds that of any former year. The Democracy did well in holding their own under the circumstances.—Binghamton Leader.

PERTH AMBOY IN FLAMES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A fire broke out at Perth Amboy, N. J., at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and spread so rapidly that it was feared the whole town would be destroyed. At 9:30 P. M. the fire was still raging. The entire block on Smith street, from High to Rector street, was burned to the ground. The fire originated in McCormick & Connelly's grocery shop from one of the employees carrying a lamp among the coal oil. The party who caused the fire was burned seriously. The total loss is about $30,000.

THE TERRIBLE CYCLONE IN INDIA.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—A dispatch from Calcutta to the Times says it is reported that 20,000 persons perished in the cyclone of October 31, and some estimates place the loss of lives as high as 40,000. In the town of Burriskol, capital of the Backergunge district, 3,000 houses were leveled with the earth. Letters from survivors report that a great wave, nine feet deep, swept over the large island of Dakhia Seabazapore. The whole of east Bengal appears to have suffered severely from the cyclone, and Calcutta narrowly escaped. The reports of famine from Bombay are worse. A water famine is feared in some districts.
