Radical proverbs: A Returning Board in the hand is worth more than any majority in the returns. It is a poor rule which won't work in any way we want.

BULL DOZING IN NEW ENG-LAND.

"Bull-dozing" is not confined to the South, much less to the democratic party. In many manufacturing establishments in boasted New England a moral intimidation is practiced upon voters quite as effective as the lash. For instance, in Saco Water Power machine shop no democrat has been employed for years. Many of the laborers there desired to vote the democratic ticket this year but dared not do so from peril of discharge. This corporation employs three or four hundred hands. This accounts for Biddeford giving only seven teen majority against the usual democratic majority of two hundred. Much of the stock in this corporation is owned in Boston.

HOLD THE FORT.

... We read occassionally the utterances of so-called representative men of the Democracy, counselling abject acquiescence in the declared result, however tainted with fraud. We opine, that in a majority of instances, these conservative counsellors are bond-holders and share holders in our National Banks. Their influence has ever been to malign. The reason the country. On the other hand, he has given for this servile submission is, that a sense of justice will impel the people to retire Mr. Hayes and his party at the end of four years, and then the democracy will, possess its own. But what about the Returning Boards? What will prevent the same iniquitous machinery from repeating its performances? There will be a larger majority. Yes! but next time if it becomes necessary, New Jersey and Connecticut will follow the fate of the oppressed South. New York city too is the bele noir of Republicans, its vote will be thrown out and leave the rural districts to cast the vote of the State. Worse than all, a surreuder at this time is a virtual disbandment of the democratic party. It will be impossible for a long time to get the party to the polls. In the meanwhile republicanism will fortify its possession. Having full swing it will alter and amend so that it will take the Democracy twenty years to get a respectable tooting, if it ever does. And here is just where our democratic bond-holders make their great mistake. If the rank and file mistrust their leaders, they will reorganize on another platform. If the democracy are led to suspect a disposition on the part of their leaders to trust their monied interests to the more natural selicitude of republicans they will seek new counsels. If they suspect that the fruits of a well earned victory are tamely surrendered under republican bluff, the civil commotions which our conservative leaders deprecate are half invited. We notice one thing, that Republicans become aggressive, just in proportion as our conservative counsellors preach patience. Poor encouragement for mauly and patriotic forbearance.—Binghamton Dem-

THE PEOPLE TO SPEAK.

The people are far in advance of Congress in their desire and determination to speak out in thunder tones against the plot to steal the Presidency and back up the friest with bayonets. They have been holding back, waiting on the action of their representatives charged with the responsible duty of mapping out a line of policy. It is best to have everything moved decently and in order, without FLOUR & SALT, froth or bravado, but with a clearly expressed determination to maintain the right come what may. Our representatives at the National Capital are at last moving in the right direction, and a bold and energetic course will be hereafter pursued. The said to be a second

The statements of Republican correspondents that a serious division of opinion exists between the Northern and Southern Democratic members are wholly unfounded. The Southern Democrats are ready to follow any lead that their Northern friends may take to defeat the plot of the Radical conspirators.

The next week or ten days will be fruitful in important events. The Democratic National committee will soon publish an address to the American people, stating that Mr. Tilden had received 185 electoral votes, according to the face of the returns, and would have received 204 electoral votes but for the frauds of the Returning Boards. They will accordingly congratulate the country on his election to the office of President, and demand that he be peacefully inaugurated.

Annother address will probably be issued by the Democratic members of Congress, stating sharply the issue before the country, and calling on the people to hold meetings and elect delegates to State Conventions to be held in every State of the Union on the glorious and versary of old HICKORY'S victory at New Orleans. The eigth of January will be a grand day for the American Democracy, and may prove the salvation of constitutional liberty in the United States.

There is authority for the statement that Mr. Tilden regards the great trust that has been conferred on him as one not now to be, abnegated or declined at the bidding of the conspirators, and he is determined to be inaugurated as Presi dent. He will do his duty and trust to the people to sustain him. That he can rely on them is evidenced by the letters which are pouring in to Democratic members of Congress from all parts of the North.-Pittsburg Post.

Grant excuses himself for his mistakes in administration on the ground of political inexperience. What invalidates this plea for public charity and forbearance is the fact that he obstinately persists in his errors when they have been made manifest, and adheres to his vicious official selections when their corruption and unworthiness have been proved to frequently discharged faithful officials as foresaid now occupied by the frequently discharged faithful officials as some or less described in deeds from the lines of —— Flynn, to J. W. T. MOXLEY. frequently discharged faithful officials as Don Cameron apologizes for his meagre and unsatisfactory report because he has not had time to make himself familar with the operations of the war department. For that matter he will never make himself familiar with his official duties, as his line lies in the way of low partisan intrigue. But how much more time does he want? Would four years under the Mexican administration of Hayes suffice to make him fit for the duties of war minister? Zach Chandler has been so busy in attending to the weightier matters of Grant's administration in carrying on the conspiracy to steal the electoral votes of three states that he has been obliged to turn over the making of his report to one of the clerks of his department. With such officials as Cameron and Chapdler in the highest places of his administration Grant's apologies are seen to be thoroughly insincere and dishonest .- Patriot.
