----The expenditures of the United States Senate for the year ending June 30, 1876, show that there were purchased during that period 10 gallons of cologne, 13 gallons of bay rum, 1½ dozen bottles of Martinique snuff for the Senate Chamber, 100 pounds of camphor, besides many other articles for the comfort and convenience of Senators.

-Keely, the inventor of the motor bearing his name, is having made, at the Chester Steel-Casting Works, two immense balls, the largest of which is thirty-six inches in diameter outside and weighs fifty-eight thousand pounds. The smaller one is eighteen inches in diameter and weighs eighteen thousand pounds. It is supposed they are intended for additional experiments with his apparatus

A little girl by the name of Mertie Pifer, aged six years, died on Monday evening of brain fever, superinduced by fright. It seems that the child had been irightened by boys, who threatened to cut her ears off, while returning from school one morning last week. On arrive ing home she was immediately taken ill and died, as above stated, on Monday morning.-An example should be made of the boys.-Ithaca Democrat. S. S. P. 199 1

The Reading Adler, the oldest paper in-Berks county, recently moved into a new and commodious building. The first number of the Aller was issued November 29, 1796, and, advocated the doctrines of Thomas Jufferson. On the 20th of April, 1799, a troop of horse from Lancaster county, under order. from the National Government, visited Reading and enforced the "alien and sedition" laws against Mr. Schneider, the editor of the Adler.

-----Among the passengers in a sleeping car of the Erie the other night were a couple of sisters occupying a berth together. During the night one of them had occasion to get up and in getting back made a mistake and got into the next berth with a man. She supposed it was her sister who had rolled to the front, began to nudge the sleeper to lie over. The fellow woke up and siezed the girl by the neck. supposing he had caught a thief. The scene which ensued was mortifying as well as amus ing.

SOLDIERS' ORPHANS .- We have received the Annual Report of the Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphans which contains much useful and interesting matter concerning this important cholera, his horse ran off, the clock would not branch of the State charities. Saperintendent Wickersham says:

"The schools continue to be well managed, and the children are, as a body, healthy and come in fast enough to renew his subscription happy. Their intellectual and moral improveon one horse, so he rode two, and to-day every- ment has been satisfactory, and no backward thing is going on at home with him as fine as a step has been taken in the work of rendering cambric needle, and as smooth as a piece of as efficient as possible the industrial departments of the several schools. Nearly 6,000 children, educated in the orphan schools, have left them to enter upon the duties of active life. Many of them have reached manhood and womanhood. They are to be found in almost every school district in the Common-morning, where an hour is spent in preparing for the Sabbath school, which occurs in the afternoon. International "lesson-leaves" are furnished to all. Two hundred volumes were bought for the Sabbath school library, to replace those that have been worn out by con-Aant use. 💈

"Could the members of the Legislature see the avidity with which the books are read they would add to the generosity of the State by placing a library, adapted to the wants of youth, at the disposal of every orphan school in the State.

"Military duty is still required. We are especially indebted to the Grand Army of the Republic for favors extended to the children.
