- The Publishers of the Philadelphia Times to keep posted on political subjects can hardly afford to do without. It contains in addition to the matter usually found in such works, a history of all the National Conventions which have ever been held, the game law of the state and a great variety of statistical information.
- ---At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank, held Jan. 9th, the following gentleman were elected. Directors for the current year: Wm J Turrell, G V Bentley, W C Tilden, M B Wright, G B Eldred, M S Dessauer, E A Pratt, A J Gerritson, Abel Turrell, E A Clark, L S Lenheim, W J Turrell continues President, and N L Leuheim, Cashier.
- -The Busquehanna was frozen over thi year earlier than at any period since 1860, the water disappearing from sight on the 10th of December remaining in that condition for seventeen days. On the 15th of the following February ice again covered it and remained intact for five days. On December 15th. 1871 the river was ice-bound and remained in that state for the period of 108 days. On December 22nd, 1872, it was covered with ice and remained so for twenty-seven days; on January 29th, 1873, for nine days; on February 24th for forty-eight days. In 1874 the river was open all the year.
- -In Harrisburg there is a widow aged about eighty years who regularly draws a revo lutionary pension. She married her husband who had been a drummer boy in the continental army, when he was between fifteen and sixteen years of age. There is also a widow in Lycoming county who draws a pension of this kind. She is nearly a centennarian. She was born in Pennsylvania. She was firs wedded to a man named Spring, but he dying she married Daniel Dugan, a widower well ad vanced in life, and who had been a soldier during the entire revolution, fought in Washington's army, and was engaged in the battles of Trenton, Brandy wine, Germantown and many others. Mr. Dugan drew from the government a pension during his natural life. After his death the widow supposed the pension was at an end, and so it rested for more than twenty years, when it was again renewed and back in stalments paid, since which time it has been regularly forwarded to her.

Second; because we did not publish the Governor's Message in full. That is a matter. of taste, in which we are supported by a large proportion of the Democratic papers of the State, very lew of which have published it in full, or even given as full a synopsis of it as this paper gave. We are quite confident that a large majority of our readers would have objected to our filling two pages of our paper with a message that note of them would ever read. We will however turnish our correspondent with a pamphlet copy of the message and pay the postage on it, if he will send us his name. As a general thing, News paper men pay no attention to anonymous communications and we have departed from our rule in this instance only to show our incog, friend that there are alwave two sides to every question and in this particular instance we think we have done nothing Universalism.—A series of Public meetings will be held in the Universalist Church, Brooklyn, beginning on Tuesday evening, Jan. 23rd, and closing on the following Tuesday evening. All Universalists and the public in general are cordially invited to attend.

BY ORDER OF TTUSTEES.

Coolville Items.—What has become of our ittle engine? we see men by the dozen shoveling snow. Why don't "Asa" come up, for ourcoal is getting low.

We are having Mite Societies here once a week for the purpose of getting an Organ for the Church.

P. P. Wells has been making some very fine improvements on his dwelling house.

Our winter school is being taught by Miss Garfield, of Little Meadows. Deans & Cool are doing a very extensive business with their steam saw mill.

A little stranger stopped at the house of A. T. Wells one night last week; as the roads were drifted very badly and the weather yery cold, they concluded to keep him until he is GRAGITY.

SAD ENDING OF A WEDDING TRIP.-On Thursday the 28th ult., Henry T. Hall, of Chi! cago, and Mrs. Cornelia Bloodgood Dickinson. of Owego, were married in this village, Rev. Rufus S. Underwood officiating. With the congrutulations of their friends, they started to their great sorrow.

PLEASANT-GROVE ITEMS. - Pleasant-Grove, for merly khown as Barker's cross-roads, is in Dimock. Our school is taught by Miss Tempie Quick.

Dr. Brown is Town Physician.

The Wm. VanCampen farm was sold Jan 6th to Mr. J. Youngs, of Elk Lake, for $29.50

A New Year's tree was held in the School house. Everything went off quietly but for one thing—the tree caught fire, which caused some confusion for a few moments but it was soon extinguished with only the loss of a doll. The Tree was heavily laden with presents.

NEMO. NAILS.—The terms "six-penny," "tel-penny" etc., as applied to nails, are of English origin For very many years, they have been made a certain number of pounds to the 1000, and are still reckoned in that way in England—a 10d. being 1000 nails to ten pounds, and 6d. being 1000 to six pounds, a 20d weighing twenty pounds to the 1000, and having just one half the number of nails to the ten pounds of 1873, for fifteen days; on January 10th, 1875 10d., and in ordering the buyer calls for the three-pound, six-pound, or ten pound variety. etc., until by the Englishman's abbreviation of pun for pound the abbreviation has been made to stand for penny instead of pound, as originally intended; and when it comes to less than one pound to the 1000, such as tacks, brads, etc., they are reckoned six-ounce, eightounce, twelve-ounce, etc., the manufacturer never making less than one thousand nails to tenpounds for a 10d. nail. As nails are now made and sold, however, the dealer only asks for the size needed, by the usual designation, and the fact that there about two-thirds of the number of nails formerly called for in the pound does not lessen the value.

> FACTORYVILLE NOTES.—We are still hoping that the thaw will soon end, and that the "beautiful snow" which we have enjoyed for some time, will not entirely disappear. However, if it is otherwise ordered, we can content our selves the better, as we have made the best possible use of it while it remained. Hurrah! it has commenced snowing again. More sleigh-rides in store for us yet.

Every thing seems to be moving along pleasantly in our little town. Keystone Academy with us on several points, two of which we will is in a flourishing condition, with about one

The County Superintendent, port of "Court Proceedings" published last Mr. Lee, was present Baturday, and gave us a discourse on the Methods of Teaching U. S. History."

We think there is a good work to be accomplished by these local institutes, and if teachers in other localities, where they do not now exist, would follow the example thus set, we think that each teacher would not only find it a source of great improvement to himself but he would also find his labors during the week enough easier to pay for their time spent on Saturday. And Anders were treed

But this is not the only institute for the improvement of teachers which we have enjoyed. A Sunday school Teachers' Institute was held in the Baptist church of this place, commencing Friday evening, Dec. 29, and continuing Saturday evening, Sunday, and Sunday evening; at which, time essays were read by the teachers present, followed by lively discussions on the best methods of teaching, the best worthy of censure, even to the extent of wasting methods of securing regularity and ponctuality of attendence on the part of students &c. A sermon was also preached on Sunday by pastor Cole, bearing on the subject of Sunday schools, and an addiess, was delivered Sunday evening by the superintendent, Prof. Harris, on the Golden Text for the day: "For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ."

Jan. 7. 1877.

CHOCONUT ITEMS.—It has been a favorable winter for lumber men. James Duggan has 150 tons of bark drawn to the tannery and expects to put in 200 thousand feet of hemlock. He has a large fallow sown to wheat, which he expects a large crop from.

Daniel Conroy and his friend Frank Quinn create quite an excitement with their fancy rigs, since the weather has favored them with so much snow. We are in hopes they will succeed in getting them wives this winter or never.

Mr. M. C. Sutton's ball was a failure on the account of the roads being blockaded with snow. It has been a great dissapointment to his large circle of friends. Mr. Sutton is a very accomodating gentleman for the business.

William Donnelly has been laid up for some weeks with a sore foot. He was in great fear he would not be well for New Year's but as luck happened he was fortunate enough to get a shoe on for that day,

P. J. Donnelly & Mike Hawley have been laid up during the Holidays with the mumps, visiting his parents at St. Joseph's for the last

Mr. & Mrs. Kelly intend to move to their new home the coming week. Her absence will be long lamented by her friends and relatives. Thomas F. Kane is well pleased at the way the voting went at Friendsville fair.
