Neighboring Counties.

A Citizens' fire patrol has been organized in Scranton.

Sixteen young ladies were received by the convent at Carbondale, last week.

The Scranton Republican wants the one hundredth anniversary of the Wyoming massacre commemorated.

The scarlet fever still continues to rage in the vicinity of Honesdale, and Waymart, Wayne county, desolating many a household.

By a fall of rock roof at the Pine Brook shaft on Monday, Patrick McKittery was seriously injured and P. Dunlevy fatally injured. The latter died a few hours after the accident.

Rome will probably boast of a mine of some kind in a short time, as parties are now at work on the farm of W. W. Woodburn, near the borough, where there are strong indications that some kind of mineral exists, and it is thought by some who are posted in such matters to be gold, but whether in sufficient quantities to pay for working remains to be seen.—Register.

The city of Wilkes-Barre is left without a head by the death of its Mayor, M. A. Kearney, there being no provision in the charter for filling the vacancy, except at the regular election, which fortunately is near at hand. By a vote of the council, the chief of police is ordered to see that order and decorum be enforced and the quiet of the city preserved, until a new mayor is elected and qualified.

A pastoral letter from Bishop O'Hara excommunicating the Ancient Order of Hibernians and directing the clergy to deny the members of that order the sacraments, was read in the Catholic churches of the Scranton diocese on Sunday the 11th, inst. The denunciation was unexpected, and has produced a sensation among the members of that Order, who for the past three years have been in favor of the church within this jurisdiction. The Ancient Order has a large membership in this diocese.

A barn belonging to O. S. Wilcox, proprietor of the Salem stage line, and located just beyond Hollisterville, was burned to the ground on Monday night. Four horses owned by P. Dings, who had the use of the barn, were also burned up, together with a quantity of hay, grain, farm implements, harness and some pine lumber. The loss is partially covered by insurance. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, or the carelessness of a tramp who had slept in the barn.—Honesdale Herald.

Considerable stir has been created in financial circles during the week by the fact that two of the prominent coal corporations of the Wyoming Valley have gone into the hands of receivers. The Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre Coal Co. thus succumbed to the effects of the prostration of the coal business on Monday, and the following receivers were appointed: Chas. Williamson, of the New Jersey Central Co. E. W. Clark, of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Co. and W. H. Tillingham, Treasurer of the Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre Coal Co. Francis S. Lathrop, of N. J., was appointed receiver of the Central Railroad of New Jersey on Wednesday last.

State Items.

The citizens of Lock Haven offer a cash bonus of twenty thousand dollars to any party who will erect iron or steel works in that city, to cost not less than sixty thousand dollars.

The Sunbury Daily says: A little girl named Eberly in Shamokin is lying very low with brain fever brought about by being penned in a dark closet by one of the lady teachers of that town for several hours.

Auditor General Temple was married a few mornings since, by Bishop Shanahan, to Mrs. Mary Malone, widow of Richard Malone, of Lancaster. The wedding took place at an early hour of 6 o'clock, and the bride and groom left for Washington on the 7:30 train. The Auditor General evidently believes in early marriages.

The performing elephant, "Betsy" of Forepaugh's circus, which is wintering at Germantown, gave birth to a baby elephant eighteen inches high, early Friday morning. It was walking about by noon of that day. This is said to be the only elephant ever born in America. Its mother is eleven feet high.

The judges in Schuylkill county have held court during the past year 237 days—90 days for civil business and 147 for the trial of criminal prosecutions. Notwithstanding this assiduity on the part of the judges the civil business of the court is greatly in arrears.

The Forest Press exults in the fact that the report of the inspectors of the western penitentiary shows that "Forest is the only county in the whole Commonwealth that has not been represented in any form or manner whatever at the institution during the last year. Not a number opposite her bright name. None marked received, none discharged, none remaining from the previous year, and as a matter of course none now in prison."

Five converts were baptised in the Schuylkill, near Greentree, near Norristown, by the Rev. Jacob Gotwals, Dunkard minister at the Green Tree Church. Where the ceremony was performed the current in the river was so swift that no ice had formed. The water was extremely cold. The Dunkard ceremonial differs in some respects from that of the Baptists. The converts enter a comparatively shallow portion of the water and kneel down. They are dipped three times, immersed once in the name of the Father, the Son and once in the name of the Holy Ghost. Between each immersion the convert is given time to recover breath. One of the novelties in this case was a rather stout lady. When she entered the water she lost her balance. Mr. Gotwals is not very strong, and was pretty thoroughly chilled, and when he caught her he too was carried away. A thrill of horror ran through the crowd as the pastor and the lady were about to be swept swiftly under the solid ice. Two gentlemen on the bank plunged boldly in, caught them and saved them from their peril. Another lady after she had emerged from the water came near fainting from the cold and exposure.

News Jottings.

The Court of Aix, France, has set aside a lady's will because she was under the influence of a belief in Spiritualism.

The 3,400 tons of wire for the great bridge between New York and Brooklyn is to be made from crucible steel, at Pittsburgh, and will cost $591,000.

All railroad cars in France are now heated by steam or hot water, in some form or other, and experiments are constantly going forward to devise improvements in the processes.

In the early part of the present century John Alsop, a rich, eccentric Englishman, left his daughters as a legacy, their weight in one pound bank notes. When weighing day came, the eldest got £51, 200, the youngest £57,344.

The Mennonites do not take kindly to American institutions. At the General Conference of the Mennonite Church, recently held at Elkhart, Ind., it was resolved that all members of the church who had voted at the late Presidential election should be admonished, and that every minister should try to induce his members to abstain from voting.

A year and a half ago Wm. Hoffman loaned M. K. Burk $35,000 on property in New York City, then valued at $70,000. Burk appealed from a decision against him on the foreclosure suit, and lately Hoffman claimed the property was inadequate security, as the judgment, interest and costs were now $40,000, while the property was worth only $37,000—a curious illustration of the depression of values.

They have had a good deal of weather up in British Columbia. The Victoria Colonist of January 9, acknowledged the receipt of a bouquet composed of seven different varieties of flowers, picked from the garden. On the night of the 10th, ice formed in Victoria to the thickness of a shilling, and on the 11th the weather was clear and bracing. On the 16th the irrepressible Colonist announced pear trees in full blossom.

A bill has been introduced into the Senate of Nevada, authorizing the erection of substantial wooden posts or stone pillars in some public locality in the several counties, to which males over eighteen years of age may be tied when convicted of the offense of striking a maiden or woman over sixteen years of age. The bill provides that offenders of this class may be sentenced to be tied to these posts or pillars in a standing position, not less than two nor more than ten hours of any day, Sundays excepted, and that the person so sentenced shall wear on his breast garments the words "Wife-beater," or "Woman-beater," as the case may be. If this punishment does not effect a cure, a second conviction will call for a term in the county jail.

Ex-Governor Seymour recently declined to deliver an address before the Farmer's Club, of Ithaca, New York, for the following reasons: "My health is so much broken that I do not often leave my home, and my physicians object to any labor on my part, and particularly to public speaking. For this reason, unless forced to do so by public duty, I have for the last six months declined all invitations."

The Providence Tool company is at present filling the largest contract for arms ever given to a private armory. It is making 600,000 Martini-Henry rifles for the Turkish government. At the close of last year there had been about one half of these rifles made and delivered. Recently the Turkish government has been very urgent for the rapid fulfillment of the contract, and the works for some time have been turning out these arms at the enormous rate of 1,000 per day.

Who Was Intimidated?

In view of the facts disclosed in the following Washington dispatch, we think the inquiry: Who was intimidated? a pertinent one. In the Senate, last Wednesday, the President pro tem. presented a communication from the Attorney-General in reply to the resolution of the Senate of December 12, directing him to communicate the information in regard to the employment of deputy marshals throughout the United States in connection with the election held on the 7th of November last. The Attorney-General refers to the act of Congress on which his instructions to the marshals were based. They constituted in no case a military order. The number of marshals appointed in Alabama was 150, with 125 voting precincts; in Arkansas, Eastern District, 785, with 381 precincts; Western District, 214, with 16 counties; in California, 244, with 56 precincts; in Delaware, 135, with 40 precincts; in Florida, Northern District, 745, with 19 counties; in Georgia, Northern District, 155 in one county; Southern District, 52 in one county; in Illinois, Northern District, 113 in 81 counties; in Louisiana, 840 in 120 precincts; in Maryland, 1,222 in 115 precincts; in Massachusetts, 117 in 25 counties; in Mississippi, Northern District, 239 in 65 counties; in Missouri, Southern District, 1,028 in 90 voting places; in New Jersey, 249 in 66 precincts; in New York, 3,565 in 895 precincts; in North Carolina, 176 in 176 precincts; in Pennsylvania, 347 in 327 precincts; in South Carolina, 338 in 17 precincts; in Texas, 1 to each precinct, and in Virginia, 201 in 35 precincts. In the remaining states very few deputies were appointed. There were a total of 2,735 voting places at which the attendance of 11,615 deputies was had. The Marshal of Florida reports that in addition to his regular force he appointed 745 general deputies. There were 75 in Escambia County, 50 each in Jackson, Gladesden, Leon, Jefferson, Madison, Columbia, and Alachua, and small numbers in the other counties, including 10 in Baker County. The Louisiana Marshal's report merely states that 840 deputies were appointed; that they were equally divided among 120 precincts; that 750 of them served for one day and the remainder from two to fourteen days each. The Marshal of South Carolina reports that 79 deputies were distributed to 17 precincts in the city of Charleston and important precincts throughout the State.

There is a bill pending in the State Legislature, which requires that all persons who design contracting a matrimonial alliance shall first take out a marriage license, and that after the ceremony is performed the certificate shall be entered on record in the office of the Recorder of the county in which the nuptial contract was entered into. The Presbyterian Banner strongly urges the passage of the law. It hopes that the clergy and others will take an interest in the matter, that the people may be protected from that class of clergymen always ready to marry persons who may present themselves without any respect to age, or to the claims of parents or guardians. It might have said without respect to condition, character, object and designs, or the consent of the members of the families. The law makers will no doubt do good service to the public by enacting such a law, and if they could only make it retroactive so as to undo some outrages already done, it would be a great blessing to some families.

Charles Paine, General Superintendent of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway Company, testified before the Coroner's jury that he had a list of those supposed to have been on the wrecked train. Some who were at first reported as missing have been ascertained not to have been on the train. The list contains the names of seventy-two adults and eight children supposed to be lost, and sixty-nine saved. Some are marked doubtful. This list includes the names of all known to have been on the train, both passengers and employees, many of whom have not been identified by any article found among the remains. He reports 128 passengers, six train hands, five sleeping car hands, three express men, two baggage men, and one newsboy.

Hereafter it will be idle to waste money on what formerly were called campaign expenses; all that will be necessary is to keep the money and buy up boards of canvassers. The people may vote as they please, but the canvassers do the electing; at last, according to law as laid down by the Commission, even though the fraud be proven and the true vote of the people sent on, the fraud must be counted.

The sale of Taylor's Family Medicines is steadily on the increase. The sales of the past year being more than double of any previous year. The reason of this is on account of the genuine merits of the goods themselves and the fair and impartial manner in which they are sold.
July 26, 1876.

MANY PERSONS during the winter season are severely afflicted from the effects of Freezes or chilblains. They can be readily and permanently cured in a few days merely by using Taylor's Celebrated Oil once or twice a day. The same medicine is said, by many, to be a sure cure for corns. It can be obtained of any Druggist or dealer in Medicines.
