LET'S PLAY

Oh! the blessed and wise little children, What sensible things they say!
When they can't have the things they wish for,

March.

Ah surly March! you've come again,
With sleet and snow, and hail and rain;
Cold earth beneath, dark sky above you,

YOUNG MEN'S MISTAKES.

BY REV. JOHN HALL, D. D. N. Y.

"The times are hard." Employment is less abundant and less remunerative than it has been. That has come which was often predicted,

This condition of things suggests a frank, and at least well intended word, to those who are coming into the ranks of young men.

1. Do not trust to generalities. You had better have a specialty. Learn something that you can do—and profess. Something distinct

2. Do not rush to the great cities. The town next you, if you wish to go forward, may be the best for you.

full of promise by themselves—but encumbered.
Some are hampered by precious and premature engagements made when they knew little,

But it may be the bravest thing not to go.
"I get two and a half a day," said a young man to the writer. "And do you save something?"

For what is your mind, pray? You go to the city, with an introduction to a clergyman, or other friend, which you carry in your pocket

Be thoughtful. Why, my dear fellow, how much is there to think of—your home lessons—the examples you saw—the hopes for you—the

WHY RICHMOND WAS BURNED.

New light seems to be thrown upon the old controversy as to the responsibility for the partial destruction of Richmond at its evacuation by the Confederate forces at the close of the war.

Heroine is perhaps, as peculiar a word as any in our language; the two first letters of it are male, the three first female, the four first a brave man, and the whole a brave woman.

VEGETINE

Strikes at the root of disease by purifying the blood restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, invigorating the nervous system.

Is not a vile, nauseous compound, which simply purges the bowels, but a safe, pleasant remedy which is sure to purify the blood, and thereby restore the health.

Is now prescribed in cases of Scrophula and other diseases of the blood, by many of the best physicians over to its great success in curing all diseases of this nature.

Does not deceive invalids into false hopes by pulling and creating a fictitious appetite, but assists nature in clearing and purifying the whole system, leading the patient gradually to perfect health.

Was looked upon as an experiment for some time by some of our best physicians, but those most incredulous in regard to its merit are now its most ardent friends and supporters.

Says a Boston Physician, "has no equal as a blood purifier. Hearing of its many wonderful cures, after all other remedies had failed, I visited the laboratory and convinced myself of its genuine merit. It is prepared from barks, roots and herbs, each of which is highly effective, and they are compounded in such a manner as to produce astonishing results."

Is acknowledged and recommended by physicians and apothecaries to be the best purifier of the blood, and other remedies had failed, and thousands speak in its praise who have been restored to health.

PROOF. WHAT IS NEEDED.

Boston, Feb. 13, 1871.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility, VEGETINE was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article,

Respectfully yours,
FIRM OF S. M. POTTINGILL & CO., 10 STATE STREET BOSTON.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—The two bottles of VEGETINE furnished me by your agent, my wife has used with great benefit.
For a long time she has been troubled with dizziness and constiveness, these troubles are now entirely removed by the use of VEGETINE.
