(hhe demacrai.

Tha flang folles

a Dog in the Baby-Honse.

Don't tell me that this thing is sirun
i cannot see why sto. into the ground. I cannot see why sto. terecting as stories of human animals; and remember, too, that some of our best mon, with the grestest of minds, hure devoted all the eviergies of their to the study of the nature, disposition shall tell the story, and if you could have seen the little Miss when she told it to me, you wo here it is, as relaied to me by the happy possessir of the dog and the dolls: Miss Nora had long been anxious to own a dog, aud one day her father broubly young, bat very nearly attained spaniel. young, bat very nearly attained to its full growth. It was an English to its an bo people not cousersant with that departuentof natural nistory, Woula be taken for a Newfound land. He was not quite so large as the Newfoundland, not quite so whe more delicately wavy, and his hair was men
I think tlat dog knew and much finer. I think ti:at dog knew about as much as any dog I ever saw. I about as munh as any dog I ever saw. I I wish I conld be assured that our country could at some tinue reach the puint o mental excellence when every voter would be as intelligent as the black spaniiel
the black spainiel
Well,-Nora
and the dog, in turn, took to Miss Nora, and in all sorte of plays they were happy which was $\leqslant$ xelasively her own, where she bept her playthings, among which was a family of dulls. There was the paterual doll, and the naternal doll, and six children dolls, ranying from a pert miss in gaudy petticoars to the babe in loug clothes. These dolls Miss Nora was in the babit of uudressing every evening and puting away to bed, and of dressing them in the morning, and the dog was her companion alwass. For about three her companiou always. For about three months "Colonel"' had seen those dolls undressed and put to bed every night and he had come to know the proper time for the work as well as did his mistress.
It so happened that on a certain ex It to happened that on a certuin ex ceptional nce.sion Miss Nora went away on a visit-where ber caniue companion was not allowed to go, and she stopped away till w late hour. Between eight and nine o'clock that evening a eervant heard the dug seratchng and whiuing, and on going to look she found him at the door of the plas room, which, opening with gerviant opened the door and let him in and he would not let her retreat muti the had set her limp upon the bureau. An hour later, Nora came bome, an her first inquiry was for Colovel. The her first inquiry was for Colonel. The serrant told what she had done and how she had been absolutely forced to lear hemp. Nora and bere mother wen.
 fully put them nuto their little beds; and liere he was, watching their innocen It wabers a like a well trauled nurse. It was a simple aff, in, but there mus hare been cunsiderable resercise of the reflective and remsoning faculties on the part of the dog in his paternal care o

In Your Note Guod-

A Bostou lawyer was called on a shor time ago by a boy, wha inquired it he bas a crisp keen way of asking questions, aud is moreover, a methodicul nuan. $\mathbf{S o}_{0}$ pulling out a large drawer, he exibite Will your give me two 若 ra mone looked at the paper doubting "Done," said tni fared fifteen pence. ras quicklr transferred to tha bue paper bay, whose eyes sparkled as be litted the Not till it was safely stowed away did be announce that lie haad no money,

"No money? How do pua expect buv paper without money?
Not prepared to state exacily his plan of operations, the boy made no reply., asked the lawyer. asked the lawyer.
"Yes, sir."
Very well; if you say your note i good, i'd just as soon have it as the mon "'he bny it iffirmed good I don't want it." note for fifereupon the lawyer wrote noit lion fifteen pence which the boy sign sul legibly and lifting the bag of paper trudsud of Soun atter dinner the little fellow re lurned, and pad hrued, and, producing the mones, an non ced that he had come to pary his not time I ever kues a nore, this is the firs he day it was suven. A bor that will d and yiving him both, sent himen too, hi Way with ora smiling face aud a bapp A bry why thas keepresented his hon hono brigh ds wever puor he may be in worldy thing an heir to an hitheritance which ne hiclies an buy-the choice promises on

A good example is the best sermon.

| formuntul gousetal |  |
| :---: | :---: |
| Pampkin Ples.  I've tried the best  In East and West,  I've luncled 'ncath tropic sun,  Tve tested all  The fruits that fall,  And like them every one:  No humsn mouth,  I will the world apprise'  One halt as good  As our own pumpkin pies.  Upon the vine,  Tlirouyh tragrant day and night,  The yellow globe In emerald robe  Drinlis up the Summer light.  Oh; golden sweet, The suns repeat  To noould thy luscious size.  That we may come And roll thee home,  And make our pumpkin pies.  Our lovely girls,  Put neatly in a cap,  Cut slice on slice  And stew it to a pap;  Then milk is bad,  And sweeter as is wise,  While others haste To spice to taste  Those home-made pumpkin pies.  Oh, pure and fair,  Made up ot all that's best !  No creature's pain  Goes to its gain,  For Summer days  And smiles from beauty's ejes  Are in the dish,  That we call pumpkin pies.  No wonder then  From Florida to Maine,  Their quarter eat,  And pass their plates again;  That exiles fret  And vex the air with sighs,  When forced to stay  In chmes away  From their own pumpkin ples.  So to our boast  1 give a toast,  Embroidered all in rhyme;  Muy pumpkins r With us abound  Through tuture Autumn-timel  And may nur girls,  And tender beaming eyes  All learn by heart  Of making pumpkin pies.  Ayrshire Cows. |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

The report of the Ayrshire agricaltu3 the standing of superiority in Ayr Head short, forebead wide, nose an between the muzzle and eyes, muzzle moderatelv large, eyes full and lively, urvicg slightly in ward Neck long and strait the top of the shoulder, free from loose kin on the under side, fine at its junc ion with the harad, and the muecles 85m-metricaly enlarging towards the should-Shoulders thin at the top, brisket light. re wbole forequarters thin in front and back ward. Back short and streight, spine well defined, especiaily at the elhoulder, the short ibs arched, the body deep at the flank nd the milk veins well developed.
Pelvis long, broad and straight, hock bones (1linm) wide apart and not much yerlaid with fit, thighs deep and broad, tail long and sleuder, and set on leyel with the back. Milk vesseils capacious and extending ell Grmly attached to the body, the sole or under surface nearly level, the teats from two to two and one-half inches in length, Wi) to two and one-half inches in length, dicularly; their distance apart at the sides should be equal to about one-third of the length of the ressell, and across to about one-half of the breadth. Legs sho Skin soft and elastic, and covered with The close, woolly hair.
The colors preferred are brown, of rown and white; the colers being dis tinctly defined.
Great palue is attached to the above orm and points by the dairy farmer, and purchase, so that a in when effecting made.

Apples in England.

The London Garden eays that Conven Garden market is piled high with barrels of American apples, which are more bundant now than ever known before The Eughes rapplo crop was small the past season and apples being very abundon , they have poured into the Lon from Frayce and Holland, the former bring sold at one dolar per busbel, and ood, ster lower. American apples, ood, eell much ighber Directions have been issued by the ime for tions of the framework of iron pessel hich are consiantly exposed to the ac the irgn frames, and in the water on wings as caunot be dtied ont spfficiently to allow the application of preservative

$F^{\text {OR } 1877 .}$

JOB PRINTING

$A$ speclaitr

prepared to do at the LOWEST PRICESS Promptly upon receipt of order, (by mail or otherwise,)
We we can Itarrash

 Mas 10. Democrat Office.

 WITH A COLD TRIFLLNG WELLS' CARBOBIIC TABLEETS.

 A LUCRATIVE BUSINESS.

 HEADACHE.

INSURANCEMEN take notice.

AGENTS WANT
New England Mumal Lite Ins. Co The oldest mutual in the conntry. Charterod 1835.
LibERAL RERMS GVES.
MARSTON \& WAKEEIN General ABent. ${ }_{133}$ South Fourth Street. Philidelephia, $\boldsymbol{\tau}$

POLICY HOLDERS CONTINENTAL SHECURITY, NEIV
JERSEY LIFE other doubtroí Avobance coypaniks THE NEW ENGLAND MUTUAL

P. Stoctagestamps taikn as cash. $\triangle$ HOME \& FABM OP YOUTR O WTIN, NOW Is THE TIME TO SECUURE IT: Mild Climate, Fertile Solil bept Country for stock rai

 CENTENNLALEXPOSTICO

| NEW FIRM,  NEW GOODS, NEW PRICLES, $\qquad$ | Goons: goonst $\qquad$  Wm. Faycien  Het just recelved in  ENTRE NEW STOCK OF MENS', BOYS AND YOUTHS |
| :---: | :---: |
| Wm. H. BOYD & Co.  (Succysson ro Boyd Cozwir,) | CLOTHING,  At prifee to sait the hard timen. |
| CookStoves, Ranges, |  |
|  | fove' g volitias st |
| ON TIME, | Alio a froline of |
|    in and zeeft. | DRY GO |
| THE ARGAND,  As haeting stove gtande without a riva, in beater,   | BOOTS AND SHOES, YANKERS |
|  | NOTIONS, FANCY GOODS, cheap for cabl. No chargea for ebowing our goocet. |
| TINWARE.  We take ppectal plearare if offiring to the Whoreane nue none but the best of charcoal plates. | WM. HAYDEN  Nen Mullord. Mas 3d, 1876,-t5 |
|  | NT ANNOUNCEN |
| oUr workmen are experienced |  |
| And we dely any to prodnce better goods far less money. | & $A$ |
| LAMPS. | Dra coobe |

MERCHANT TAILORING,

