A correspondent from Lackawaxen to the Milford Herald says that some three weeks since a most disgraceful affair took in Lackawaxen township. It seems that a young lady of Irish parentage had been disappointed in finding work as expected in some family in the neighborhood, and made her way to the depot to go to Hawley on train five. Here some young men who were lounging around informed her the train had passed. She immediately started on foot, and was soon overtaken in a lonely part of the misinformed her about the train. When overtaken she appealed to their sympathy, saying she was a stranger, and askpowered or joined in with the gang is learned. unknown, but the female was brutally outraged and left in almost a dying conoffion by the villains. She managed to crawl to a house some distance away. The family took her in and called a physician from Hawley, under whose treatment she has been since. Your correspondent will not mention any names, but the strong probability is that the landlord of the stone hotel in Milford will soon be under the necessity of druperies.

A large number of workingmen called upon the Select Council of Scranton last Tuesday evening and demanded "Work or bread." They said their families were in a starying condition. It was after much discussion, concluded to call a joint meeting of the Common and Select Councils for Wednesday afternoon to take action in the premises. The councils met and taiked, but no definite action was taken. The workingmen held another meeting in the evening, and appointed a relief committee to further the interests of the men. May they be able to secure the aid needed right speedily.

Important Decisions of Supreme

Chorpenning vs. United States. An appeal from the Court of Claims. The Court affirms the decision of the court below in this notorious case against the claimant. The duty devolved upon the Postmaster General, under the act of Congress, is held to be wholly ministerial, and in no sense judicial, or that any arbitrament, the adjustment having been made under special law, renders it in no wise different from those made daily by the accounting officers of the government under the general law conferring their powers and prescribing their duties. The idea that the Government is concluded by results at which they may give would be regarded as a novelty, within and without the several departments of justice. Mr. Swavne delivered the opin-

United States vs. Martin. An appeal from the Court of Claims. In this case it is decided that the act of Congress declaring "That 8 hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers or workmen, &c., employed by or on behalf of the Government of the United States," is in the nature of a direction by the United States to its agents and is not a contract with laborers to that effect, and does not prevent officers of the Government from making agreements with laborers by which the day's labor may be made more or less than 8 hours. The act does not prescribe the amount of compensation to be paid for the labor of 8 hours or of any the habit of working for the Government is informed that if he wishes to continue are sold. 12 hours per day and receives his pay accordingly, he cannot afterwards prefer a claim for additional time over eight hour as a day's labor. When an application is made for excess of time over eight hours per day an allowance is made and any receiver receipts in full for the amount, this is a bar to any future claim. This decision will dispose of a large number of cases of similar character having been put forward as a test. Justice Hunt de-

DR. SCHENCK'S STANDARD REMEDIES. The CIGAR AND CONFECTIONERY STORE. standard remedies for all diseases of the lung, are Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonics and it taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure is effected.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in

The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid mat ter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it oft, the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To enable the pulmonic syrup to do this, Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Touic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative; the alkali of which it is composed mixes with the food and prevents souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and the Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal, and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh
