Neighboring Counties: The county jail at Binghamton is filled to overflowing. The work of the Scranton Relief Association still continues.

William C. Ripley, of Lamb's Creek, Tioga county, has been a Justice of the Peace for twenty years and has just begun another term.

An old man named John Hankey was killed on the track of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad, near Shick-shinny, on Monday last.

Mr. Thomas Tabor, an old and respected citizen of Jackson, Tioga county, committed suicide last Monday week, by hanging.

The Grangers in the western part of Bradford county have organized a fire insurance company, and applied to the Court for a charter.

The Binghamton papers say a number of railroad men from the Erie will soon leave for Brazil, where Dom Pedro will furnish work for six hundred, at a handsome salary for three years.

Miss Amanda Smith, a colored woman, has been lecturing in Bradford county. The late experiment with E. Reed Myer in the legislature has cheapened the market for white men in Bradford, and Amanda has an open field.

Hon. Hugh Young, member of the Legislature from Tioga county, Pennsylvania, and brother of General Thomas Young, of Ohio, has been appointed United States bank examiner of the national banks for the western district of Pennsylvania, which includes all the state except Philadelphia.

The house of George Britton, in Towaunda township, was destroyed by fire, last Sunday evening, about 7 o'clock, while Mr. B. and family were at Gregg's school house attending church.

The store of Curtis & Evans, at Hawley, was discovered to be in flames at an early hour on Sunday morning, but the fire had made such progress that all attempts to extinguish it proved unavailing, and efforts were then made to rescue the stock of goods, to which a large quantity had just been added.

A singular explosion took place near Wilkesbarre, which is thus described by the correspondent of the Scranton Republican: "At the Mordecai mines, as is known, the workings have for some time been gradually caving in, and at several points the surface has been affected to a greater or less extent.

gas immediately filled the room and was ignited at the stove, and in turn, ignited that remaining in the cellar. An explosion followed, the force of which blew out one side of the house, and Mrs. Hamburg, standing in the doorway, where the fire had free and immediate advantage, was so terribly burned that she cannot live, and her dissolution is looked for at any moment.

State Items

Judge Josiah Hall, of Warren, died on Sunday morning, aged 82 years.

There have been 1,118 marriages in the city of Pittsburg in the past year.

A life insurance company on the mutual plan is about to be organized at South Bethlehem.

Dr. Henry Masmere, of Maryland, has been locked up at York for indecently assaulting several ladies of that place.

The work of enlarging the eastern penitentiary, at Philadelphia, will begin at once. Two hundred additional cells are to be added.

Passengers arriving at the Pennsylvania railroad depot, Philadelphia, are now taken down Market street by the new steam street cars.

It is said that lumbermen on the head waters of the Susquehanna river, demand $2 50 to $3 per day, for running logs. Bather an extravagant figure for these hard times.

An extensive break has lately occurred in the Tide Water canal at Shank's Ferry, York county. As the break cannot be repaired for some weeks, it will naturally retard boating.

At Hileman's Mills, near Hollidaysburg, a five-year-old son of Milton Lotz pointed a revolver, which he found in a bureau drawer of his grandfather's house, at his sister, aged 9. The bullet went through the girl's brain, killing her.

Dr. John Stephen, of Tulpehocken, Berks county, will commence the cultivation of the poppy for the production of opium, this spring. It found as profitable as in the New England states he will go into its cultivation quite extensively.

The borough of McKeesport was recently compelled to pay damages to a person for injuries received on a board walk. In consequence the authorities have had all the board walks removed, and the citizens are compelled to plod through the mud.

Bishop Domenech, of the diocese of Allegheny, and Rev. Father Shehan, of Pittsburg, have started for Rome. Father Shehan's mission to the Holy See has reference to some difficulties among the clergy of the dioceses of Pittsburg and Allegheny, which have existed since the formation of Bishop Domenech's diocese.

The York Dispatch says that the Commissioners of that county will pay off this year $31,000 of the county debt, and have succeeded in funding the debt at 5 per cent. instead of 6 per cent. as heretofore paid. After adjusting and equalizing the triennial assessment, the Commissioners have agreed to take off 10 per cent from the valuation. The county tax for 1877 is 3 1/2 mills.

Mrs. Sarah B. Pettingill, M. D., the oldest female practitioner in Philadelphia, died suddenly a few days since. She entered a street car and took a seat in the corner. Nothing unusual was noticed by the conductor or passengers, until the car reached Third street, when the conductor asked her where she wanted to get out, and receiving no reply, laid his hand upon her shoulder, thinking that she was asleep, and tried to wake her. It was then discovered that she had died and apparently without a struggle.

Tom James, of Summit Hill, Pa., whose brother-in-law, J. P. Jones, was murdered by the Mollies at that place in September, 1875, received the following notice to quit last week: "Mr Tom you Better Clear Out from here. You are the onely witness will hang my friend and if he will be hanged look Out for yourself because we ain't dead yet if we lost one Black Jack (meaning the pistol with which J. P. Jones was shot) we have got one yet will shoot like that Good By you raskell." James is the witness who observed the murderers conferring with the notorious Campbell at Ashton the night before the murder, and his testimony to that fact precluded the possibility of the setting up an alibi.

Mr. Franklin B. Gowen, president of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad company, states that of the four hundred engineers employed by the company all except twelve have accepted the terms of the recent circular issued by Mr. Wooten, the general manager, and have notified him of their withdrawal from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. The company is now rapidly maturing the organization of the beneficial fund, intended to supply the place of that maintained by the Brotherhood of Engineers for disabled members or the families of deceased members. There has been no trouble or delay of any kind on the road in consequence of the change.

News Jottings

President Julius H. Seelye, Amherst College, has donated all of his salary while a representative in Congress from Massachusetts, to the town of Amherst, to be expended in laying sidewalks throughout the village.

The first carpet manufactory established in the United States was in Philadelphia in 1791. The census of 1810, less than twenty years after, reported the whole product of the United States in this class of goods at 10,000 yards, of which 7,000 yards were made in Philadelphia. The census of 1870 shows that there were then 689 carpet factories in the United States, employing 13,000 persons and $13,000,000 capital, paying annually $4,700,000 in wages, and producing annually goods to the value of $22,000,000.

The special fast freight train of twenty cars, containing tea and silk, from San Francisco, March 20, via the Baltimore and Ohio line, reached New York Thursday evening making the trip in ten days. Few persons have any idea of the revolution that the Pacific railroads have made in the tea and silk trade, though it is well known that tea deteriorates quite a percentage by long delay on the road. This tea is delivered in New York in about thirty days, and may be put in London in forty days. The best time by the Suez Canal is 112 days, and by sailing vessel and steamship by other routes this time is extended to 150 or 175 days. This shows conclusively that tea and silk must all go over the Pacific roads.

The right pleasant manner in which the Hon. Abram S. Hewitt and his brother fought their way in early life is thus told by the Philadelphia Times: Mr. Hewitt and his brother worked their way through college in an original and highly fraternal manner. The brother had an occupation in which he could earn enough to support them both, so it was agreed, as both were equally thirsting for knowledge, that the brother should stick to his business, and that Abram should enter Columbia College and impart to him every evening all he had learned during the day. They kept up this system with incredible industry and were both graduated at the same time.

The Montpelier (Vt) Watchman of March 28 says: "An old man by the name of Dixon, from Rouse's Point, while out on the ice fishing, between that place and Alburgh, last Friday, in attempting to cross a crack fell into the water. He called loudly for help, and a dog which he had with him set up a terrible howling and tried to pull the man out of the water. Not being able to do this, the dog ran to the shore, barking, and caught hold of a man and tried to drag him toward the ice; the man called assistance and succeeded in rescuing Dixon. But for the sagacity of the dog, the man would probably have been drowned. This dog ought to be exempted from taxation."

A novel license law, for taverns, is proposed in Virginia. Instead of rating the license at so much, or classifying the taverns according to sales, the system proposed by a bill pending in the Virginia Legislature is a direct tax upon the "drinks." There is to be levied upon every drink of wine or spirits two and a half cents, and upon every drink of malt liquor half a cent. The barkeepers are required to register the drinks, by using "bell-punches," and the proposed law abounds in precautions for protecting the revenue, and penalties for "beating the punch." Should this law be passed, and this new punch be introduced to Virginia tipplers, the practical working of the system in the "Old Dominion" will be watched with great interest.

DR. SCHENCK'S STANDARD REMEDIES. The standard remedies for all diseases of the lung, are Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and if taken before the lungs are destroyed, a speedy cure is effected. To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary diseases. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs; nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal. To enable the pulmonic syrup to do this, Schenck's Mandrake Pills and Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, removing all obstructions, relax the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved. Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative; the alkali of which it is composed mixes with the food and prevents souring. It assists the digestion by toning up the stomach to a healthy condition, so that the food and the Pulmonic Syrup will make good blood; then the lungs heal, and the patient will surely get well if care is taken to prevent fresh cold.

All who wish to consult Dr. Schenck, either personally or by letter, can do so at his principal office, corner of Sixth and Arch Sts., Philadelphia, every Monday. Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists throughout the country. Go to DOOLITTLE'S for your new style pictures. Montrose, Dec. 27, 1876.
