SINGING IN THE FAMILY.

Cultivate singing in the family. Begin when the child is not yet three years old. The songs and hymns your mother sang, bring them back to your memory, and teach them to your little ones; mix them altogether, to meet the similar moods, as in after life they come over us so mysteriously sometimes. Many a time and oft, in the very whirl of business, in the sunshine and gayety of the street, and amid the splendor of the drives in a park, some little thing wakes up the memories of early youth-the old mill; the cool spring; the shady tree by the schoolhouse-and the next instant we almost see again the ruddy cheeks, the smiling faces, and the merry eyes of schoolmates, some gray-headed now, "must lie mouldering in the grave." "And the song your mother sang" springs unbidden to the lips, and soothes and sweetens all these memories.

At other times, amid the crushing mishaps of business, a merry ditty of the olden time pops up its little head, breaks in upon the ugly
