Town, County, and Variety.

House cleaning is prevalent.
Odd Fellows day to-morrow.
The vegetable outlook is good.
The boss tramp—Boss Tweed.
Rev. W. L. Thorpe was in town Monday and Tuesday.
Dr. J. Arthur Bullard, son of A. N. Bullard, is in town.
J. H. Drake is repainting his house, and changing the color to white.
If you build this spring, give the work to your home mechanics.
The carpenter's saw and hammer is heard to some extent about town.
Since the advent of yellow as the fashionable color, yellow dogs have become the rage.
Twenty years ago the 20th and 21st day of April, the snow lay in our streets three feet deep.
Schedule for levy on personal property a new form of blanks for constables, for sale at this office.
Now is a good time to repair the sidewalks about town. There is a chance for improvement.
This is the time of year when people invest in fancy fishing tackle for the purpose of washing worms in the streams.
We are sorry that our correspondence from Springville should come too late for this issue. Also, from Fairdale.
When times are hard and cash is low, and trade comes in most awful slow, what is it that we would advise? Advertise!
Quarterly Meeting at the M. E. Church next Sunday. Presiding Elder Walker is expected to preach both morning and evening.
J. R. Raysonford, agent of the Central Express company, advertises a night route for the benefit of butter shippers, in another column.
The stock of goods in the store of S. Pittman & Co., which was sold at auction yesterday, by the sheriff, was bought by A. H. McCollum, esq.
After the appointment of Rev. W. B. Westlake to Montrose, and the receipt of a dispatch as published last week, circumstances made it necessary for Mr. W. to return to Oneonta and Rev. Leonard Cole was appointed.
The Young Ladies of St. Paul's Church will hold a sociable at the residence of H. J. Webb, on Friday evening next. The entertainment will consist of charades, tableaux, refreshments, etc. All are invited. Admission, 25 cents.
Mr. M. S. Desauer has returned from New York City, where he has been to purchase his spring and summer stock of goods, and he informs us that he is too busy marking goods (at low figures) to write an advertisement, but our readers may look for one next week.
The ladies only will read this item:—The fancy stockings for ladies this spring and summer are cream, embroidered with blue, cardinal with blue, blue with pink, pink with black, and black with all colors. Some are very elaborate and beautiful in texture and price.
Messrs. C. & A. Cortes who advertise in our columns this week are too well known among our subscribers, who are in the habit of trading in Binghamton, to need any words of commendation from us. They intend to maintain their well earned reputation by selling good goods for the smallest living profit.
Judge Tyler, who has been spending the winter in Montrose, returned to New York City last week and will be found at his old headquarters with Smith & Co. No. 81 Duane St. Mr. T. retains his residence in Montrose for all political and many social purposes, but for business the Empire City seems to claim him.
The old stand of E. D. Robinson, No. 88 Washington St. Binghamton, well known as a Furniture Emporium has passed into the hands of Mr. Avery Crounse who calls attention to his facilities in our advertising columns this week. The whole building which he occupies is filled with the most attractive styles of furniture.
A state of health—Md.—Danbury News. A state of suffering—Ill.—Washington Nation. A fatherly state—Pa.—Norristown Herald. A studious state—Conn. An effeminate state—Minn. An egotistical state—Me. A numerical state—Tenn. A primitive state—Ark. Oliver Twist's state—Mo.—Harrisburg Telegraph. A religious state—Mass. A virgin state—Miss. Musical states—Pa. La. A state of surprise—O1.—Bradford Argus. A preserved state—Kan.—Sullivan Democrat. A mineral state—Ore.

If under an execution for debt, a levy is made on personal property, the debtor can demand a jury of three men to appraise the market value of the property seized. After such appraisal, if the property is bid up, at Sheriff's sale, two-thirds of such value, it can be sold, by the officer, as at present. But should the bids not reach two thirds of such appraisal then, the debtor can obtain a stay for one year, by giving good and sufficient security for the debt. The law, as will be seen, wholly prevents ruthless sacrifice of the debtor's property by the Sheriff, whilst it carefully guards the rights of the creditor. If the latter will see that the property seized under his judgment shall bring something like its real value, and not be mercilessly slaughtered under the Sheriff's hammer, then he can obtain his money. But if the property, for want of competing bidders or what not, shall fail to command a price approximating its value, it can be saved to its owner by his securing the creditor in full for the debt.

L. T. Birchard of Birchardville this county, has been appointed Deputy of the Patrons of Husbandry for this county.
Flour has jumped up so that it is now worth $10 per barrel in Oswego, and yet $8.00-0.30 bushels more of grain is reported now in the elevators, and afloat on the lake boats than was at the same date last year. Another "corner" for poor people.
"One cash price to all, credit to none" is the motto which Hotchkiss, the Boot & Shoe man of Binghamton, adopted when he commenced business on Washington St. Binghamton, and which he will adhere to when he opens at his new place, No. 37 Court St. next Tuesday, where he will have the finest shoe store, and the largest stock, in this section, which he advertises in another column.
It is with pleasure that we copy the following from the Scranton daily Times.
Rev. Leonard Cole, pastor of the M. E. church here for the past two years, has been appointed by conference to the Montrose charge. Mr. Cole while pastor in this place has discharged every duty devolving upon him with much credit to himself and spiritual advantage to his congregation.
As a sermonizer, Mr. Cole is much above the average preacher. He is one of those men who wear well, his sermons being acknowledged by all capable of judging, to be as fresh and powerful at the end of his second year as at the first. He is not one of those men who carry around a few star sermons and make a reputation on them; but one who prepares all his work carefully, combining sound reasoning with good language and well rounded periods.
Mr. Cole discharged his pastoral duty faithfully while here, visiting all classes of his congregation without respect to estate, and treating all with a spirit of Christian forbearance worthy of imitation. The best wishes of the people of Providence without regard to denomination go with Mr. Cole to his new charge, and from the well known characteristics of the Montrose people we know that he will be kindly received and thoroughly appreciated.

THE POTATO BEETLE.

Considerable anxiety has already been manifested by the tillers of the soil in this county, in regard to the reappearance of the potato bug which has been a source of annoyance and cause of short crops. Some contend that the Colorado beetle has gone towards the Atlantic coast and will not trouble the farmers this season, while others aver that they will be as plenty as ever. Several live bugs have already been dug up this spring.

BARN BURNED IN THOMSON.

On Friday night last a barn belonging to Chester Stoddard of Thomson this county was destroyed by fire, and two tramps, giving their names as Frederick Peterson and Joseph Buckley, were brought to Montrose, by constable Stoddard on Saturday night, and committed to the county jail, on the charge of firing it. The circumstances are as follows. Two tramps were passing along the road and saw these men following them. They fled into an unoccupied dwelling near this barn, thinking by so doing to escape from them, but the tramps followed them into the house. They fled into one of the rooms and barricaded the door. The tramps attempted to effect an entrance by breaking down the door but were unable to, and they left the house and went into the barn near by. They had been there but a short time before the barn was on fire.

A book was found in possession of one of them, apparently a diary, in which minutes were entered of places where they had been and accounts of small amounts of money they had received, one entry was Doylestown, Bucks Co. This conclusively shows them to be tramps. The amount of Mr. Stoddard's loss we have not heard.

ROBBERY AT LANESBORO.

Monday night last at about 12 o'clock, a tramp who gave his name as J. Ichman, feloniously entered the hotel of Mr. John Morrison at Lanesboro, by raising a rear window, and abstracted therefrom several articles of value, including two dozen silver spoons, a muff lady's cloak, etc. He also secured a box of cigars and a bottle of whiskey, the latter of which proved his ruin. The theft was not we believe, discovered until the next morning, when suspicion at once fastened upon the afore-said gent, who had been seen lurking around that vicinity the night previous, and he was at once traced to this place, and finally discovered by officer Fernan, in a shanty near the coal pockets, which he had taken possession of after driving out the proprietor, a man named McCarty. When found, he was blissfully drunk, with the stolen bottle of whiskey—or what there was left of it—lying beside him. Part of the stolen articles were in his possession, and the rest hidden near the shanty. He was at once taken to the lock-up and left to sober up, after which Esq. Page caused him to be transported to the County Jail.—Sussex Journal.

BAIT FOR THE POTATO BEETLE.

By putting small heaps of bruised potatoes here and there in the field, early in spring, and sprinkling the heaps with a little Paris green the labor of fighting the Colorado potato beetle may be lessened a thousand fold and the chances of a crop of potatoes correspondingly increased. The bugs begin to fly the first warm days, long before a potato top is in sight. It appears to be taking a general survey and cogitating on main chances. At this early day its appetite is keen and it will smell a bruised potato a long way. The heads should be visited every day or two, and the potatoes bruised and sprinkled to keep up the odor. If the sun be very hot, the heaps should be shaded from the direct rays or the potatoes will soon dry and make poor bait. According to entomologists one beetle may be the mother of a hundred million in a single season. If this be true, or one-tenth true, it will be seen that much is gained by giving the prolific mother a bite of green before she lays an egg. It is astonishing how many bugs can be killed at one heap. Any small worthless potatoes will do. Care should be taken to place the heaps where stock cannot get to them, and, above all, every farmer and every one owning a garden, should work in concert.—D. A. C. in N. Y. Tribune.

SITTING AROUND.

They are sitting around upon barrels and chairs, discussing their own and their neighbor's affairs. And the look of content that is seen on each face seems to say "I have found my appropriate place."
Sitting around.
In bar-rooms and groceries calmly they sit, and serenely chew borrowed tobacco and spit.
While the stories they tell and the jokes that they crack, show their hearts have grown hard and undoubtedly black.
While sitting around.
The "sitter around" is a man of no means, and his face wouldn't pass for a quart of white beans, yet he somehow or other contrives to exist, and is frequently seen, with a drink in his fist.
While sitting around.
The loungers they toll not, nor yet do they spin, unless it be yarns while enjoying their gin. They are people of leisure, yet often, 'tis true, they allude to the work they intended to do.
While sitting around.
They've a habit of talking of other men's wives, as they whittle up sticks with their horn handled knives—They're a scaly old set, and wherever you go, you will find them in groups or strung out in a row.
Sitting around.

Correspondence.

ABOUT LYNN.

EDITORS DEMOCRAT:—LYNN can not afford to be left out in the cold by the DEMOCRAT. Lynn is a station on the Montrose R. R. in the southern part of Springville township very near the Wyoming Co. line. It was founded by a man by the name of Knapp, commonly called Lord Knapp, by his neighbors, but I think he wasn't a genuine Lord but he had pomposity enough for one. He founded it by starting a blacksmith shop, nobody ever heard of a village without the village blacksmith. Well it wasn't long after Lynn was founded before a Postoffice was born and they gave it to a man by the name of Cassidy to bring up. The Postoffice was healthy and strong and it grew remarkably, and is still living, but its first guardian isn't. Well the village grew too, until we have all kinds of shops required in a country place, two stores and a temperance hotel, &c.
There hasn't been many changes here this spring, one family has moved into the place while I believe no one has moved away.
The Odd Fellows' lodge organized here less than a year ago is flourishing splendidly.
Mrs. N. B. Spencer has been sick a long time with chronic rheumatism and is a great sufferer.
Leami Harris' house was burned last week. The fire was accidental, insurance $1,000.
I don't know that any one here has got the blue-glass fever, but some have got the blues.
Mr. Billings has lost several head of cattle this spring with some apparently contagious disease. Mr. Billings is recently from Tunkhannock and is one of our most enterprising farmers.
FACTORYVILLE ITEMS.
The rain which we are now having will help vegetation along wonderfully.
Mr. Frank Scott, formerly of Nicholson, is studying medicine with Dr. A. M. Capwell, of this place.
The attendance at the Academy is rather small, even for a summer term; the number being only a little above fifty.
Prof. Ballentine of the Keystone Academy, preached at Fleetville last Sunday, and we understand that the people of that place are anxious to engage his services for the year.
Spring has come again. The fields are beginning to take on their robes of green, and now and then a little flower makes its appearance.
"Fair as a star, when only one,
Is shining in the sky."
The prize for reading at the close of last term was awarded to Miss Sattie Miller, of Clifford. Two more prizes are offered this term, one to the young ladies, for the best essay, and one to the men, for the best oration; to be written upon subjects which have been assigned. Those on whom the prizes are conferred will deliver their compositions on Commencement day.

Among the improvements which are being made this spring, may be mentioned the building of sidewalks, of which more are needed, the erection of a photograph house, and the repairing of the "old factory." The latter is being put up for a store by Mr. James Frear, it being larger, and nearer his residence than the one which he now occupies. Mr. Frear's old store will be used for a brush factory by Mr. Enos Freeman.
Factoryville, April, 20, 1877.

BRACKNEY.

EDITORS DEMOCRAT:—Although Brackney, is not conspicuous for its size yet we think it not entirely beneath notice. There is considerable enterprise manifested here for a place of its size. We have a good store, kept by Wm. F. Inderled; also a large Tannery owned by H. F. Inderled & Co., one Hotel, two blacksmith shops, Grist Mill, Cooper Shop, and Post office, one Physician, Dr. Lewis, and an abundance of good neighbors. One Church, where we have service each Sabbath at 2 P. M.
The weather is very pleasant, and farmers are busy themselves providing for coming week. House cleaning time is at hand, and men are glad to find employment outside, shaking carpets and taking down stoves are very trying to their nerves—temper I mean.
We had the pleasure last week of attending a party at H. F. Inderled's in commemoration of his 40 and his wife's 33 birthday, both occurring on the same day—a very unusual occurrence. The dining room was nicely decorated with hemlock, a very appropriate decoration, he being a tanner. The table was bountifully spread with luxuries of all kinds, we had such a nice time that we almost wished the party might last forever, but that party, like every other came to a close at last, and we came home sincerely wishing them a long life and a birthday party every year.
We are sorry to announce the death of Eratta, little daughter of W. H. Gage. She died of diphtheria after an illness of one week. She was in her ninth year—the pride of her parents, of an amiable disposition, and loved by all who knew her. We, as a community, extend our heartfelt sympathy to the fond parents in their bereavement.
E FLURBUS URUM.

Marriages.
