HIS LEGISLATIVE BILL.

The Detroit Free Press gives the following amusing account of the difficulties attending the procuring of legislation in Michigan. It will do just as well for this state, however:

The man who failed to get his bill through the legislature was eating dinner on Jefferson avenue yesterday. He felt bad and mad, as he had been at Lansing for a week or ten days .-Said he to the colored waiter.

"Young man, don't you ever have nothing to do with the Legislature." "No, sah, I won't sah," was the reply.

"Because, when you think you've got 'em you hain't got 'em at all."

"Jess 30, sah-jess like you think you is walkin' on de dock, when you is in de ribber

"I went down there to get a pine timber bill passed," continued the stranger, as he opened another biscuit, "and I'm $106 out of pocket and no bill."

"Jess so, san. Dey wasn't on de pass when your bill came up."

"No, blast 'cm! I handed out the cigars by the thousand, talked soft and sweet, sat up Bargains ! nights till my bones ached, and I finally got a man interested. I talked and the talked, and I thought that bill would scoot through like a saw log going over a dam."

"Jes de same, sah; but dars whar you got left behind, I spoose."

"I don't know whether I was left behind or shead, but I kept poking the man up, and he kept promising, and there I was all the time paying out money as freely as a young fellow with his girl at a chicken show."

"A million dollars don't las' no time 'tall aroun' de halls of justis an' legislashun," sighed the waiter as he pushed the sugar-bowl

"Well, yesterday morning the man came over to the hotel, face a yard long, and says he, 'Mr. Shoat, your bill has been killed,' and before I could recover from the cold chill that crept over me he went on to tell me about committee of the whole, third reading, objected to, titles and bodies, laid on the table, suspension of the rules, moves to reconsider, and a lot of other such stuff."

"Yes, sah-dat's jess de way dey allus goes on sah. Ize hearn' 'em, tell 'bout dat committee of de hole, an' suspension of de table, an' layin' de bills on the window sill. I used to live nex' doah to de legislashur, an' I knows all 'bout 'em, sah."

"Well, I couldn't do anything," sadly continued the man. "They hitched, a dog act to one end of my bill, a musk-rat law to the other, changed the title to 'An Act to Found an Orphan Asylum,' and rushed it up and down and around till the durn thing got tired out and couldn't go any further. I've been post master and town librarian, and I've laid out two ditches, and I've been deputy constable, and all that, but it didn't make any difference to them our there-not a bit."

"Du's a fac', sah. I sometimes believe dat de higher up a man gits de lower de folks look down on him."

"Well, they laid me out, but I'll be even with 'em yet. I've got a chattel mortgage on 120 one of our country newspapers, and I'll go home and tell the editor he's got to bust into that crowd about four columns a week or I'll torestall on him in a minit."

"Yes, sah—take the foreclosure on him like you jess foreclose on dat biscuit. I 'preciates de move, sah, an' Ize willin' to do all I kin.-De bill is fifty cents—pay at the desk."

THE GAME OF LIFE.

Man's life is a game of cards. First, it is "crib-age." Next he tries to "go it alone," at a sort of "cut, shuffle, and deal" pace. Then he "gambols on the green." Then he "raises" the "duce" when his mother "takes a hand in." and, contrary to Hoyle, "beats the little joker" with her "five." Then, with his "diamonds" he "wins" the "queen of hearts." Tired of playing a lone hand," he expresses a desire to 'assist" his fair "partner," "throws out his cards," and the clergyman takes a ten dollar bill out of him "on a pair." She orders him up" to build fires. Like a "knave" he joins the "clubs," where he often gets "high," which is "low," too. If he keeps "straight" he is of tentimes "flush." He grows old and "bluff," sees a "deal" of trouble, when at last he "shuffles" off his mortal coil, and "passes in his checks," and as he is "raked in" by a "spade," life's fitful "game" is ended, and he waits the summons of Gabriel's "trump," which shall "order him up."

AUTOGIHER TOO ENTHUSIASTIC.

During the session of a temperance meeting in a neighboring town, one of the persons who cocupied the stage was an enthusiastic deacon who frequently interrupted the speakers by corders in favor of school board who frequently interrupted the speakers by yelling, "Thank God for that." One gentleman was called upon who rose and said:

"Ladies and gentlemem, I am heart and soul in the cause, and feel that it will be a great benefit to the people of this place—" "Thank God for that," yelled the deacon. "But ladies and gentlemen," he continued, am sorry to say that it will be impossible lur me to address you this evening ---" "Thank God for that," said the absent mind-vi deacon, and then the chairman took him out doors, and had two men set on him.

A runaway was explained by the young man by saying that he was driving with one hand

NEW SPRING

HAWLEY NEW MILFORD, PA.

Having located in the BRICK STORE for-merly occupied by H. & W. T. Dickerman, I would say to my friends and the public generaly that I am now receiving direct from New York one of the largest stocks of goods ever offered in this county, (and will be sold at lower prices,) consisting of

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES, WALL-PAPER, READY-

MADE CLOTHING, Etc. These goods were bought for cash, with all possible discount off, and are to be sold on the same terms. SPECIALTY-I have just received a $4,000.00 SPECIALTY-Bankrupt stock of Clothing, pur-SPECIALTY-chased at a nominal price, which SPECIALTY-will be sold for about one-half its SPECIALTY-value, (guaranteed to be 25 per SPECIALTY-cent. lower than the same goods SPECIALTY-can be bought in Binghamton.)

This is not wind, but a fact, and you can be convinced by examining the goods.

MY MOTTO IS READY-PAY! ET In looking the matter over I see that the credit system still continues to increase its victims of buyers and sellers, while the ready-pay system is growing in favor. There is no other way for a merchant to sell goods for a small profit than to demand pay when delivered. If there had been no credit system there would be no hard times to complain of. Try it for a year and you will never go backward, but beconvinced of its benefit.

I am agent for Mm'e. Demorest's patterns; also, take orders for Hanan & Radush's custom shoes. "The price tells and everybody tells the [Ap.18,'77.] O. M. HAWLEY.

I have recently made arrangements by which I can sell CHEWING TOBACCO by the pound as cheap as you can buy of any wholesale Tobacco House by the barrel. I also keep Chewing Tobacco in 10 lb. cadd'gs for which I will make special prices.

SALT. I keep on hand a large quantity of SALT and keep under cover, and will sell it as low as possible for this market.

Sugar, Tea, Coffee, Syrup, Soap, Pork, Fish, &c., all at the nimble six pence I trust I will receive sufficient patronage from cash buyers to make the cash
