A man by the name of Robinson, a railroad employe, reported to officer Burns on Thursday night of last week, that while walking down the railroad track from the upper depot, at about nine o'clock, three men in disguise stepped in front of him about opposite the cemetery, and presenting a pistol demanded his money. Being unarmed he made no resistance. One of the men put his hand into his pocket book containing $30 in money, when they ordered him to go on. He came into town and informed officer Burns, who went with him to the spot. On searching they found the pocket book a short distance from the spot where the man was assaulted, and the money gone. FABRICA'S CONTINENTAL BALSAM. The great Diarrhoea Antidote. A few of the many reasons why every person should keep a bottle of the Continental Balsam in their house: First, it will cure almost instantly all cases of pain, cramps, colic, dyspepsia, or looseness of the bowels. Second, it will cure the chronic diarrhoea of long standing. Third, it is one of the best remedies in the world for children while teething, as it gives instant relief without subjecting them to any injurious effect. Fourth and last, the price being so low, 25 and 50c per bottle, that the poorest can afford to buy it. Sold by John Fabrika, Sole Proprietor, 224 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, and druggists generally. June 6, 1877.—1c

JUNE. DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP.—Sea weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills. These medicines have undoubtedly performed more cures of consumption than any other remedy known to the American public. They are compounded of vegetable ingredients, and contain nothing which can be injurious to the human constitution. Other remedies advertised as cures for consumption, probably contain opium, which is a somewhat dangerous drug in all cases, and if taken freely by consumptive patients, it must do great injury; for its tendency is to confine the morbid matter in the system, which of course, must make a cure impossible.—Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is warranted not to contain a particle of opium; it is composed of powerful but harmless herbs, which act on the lungs, liver, stomach and blood, and thus correct all morbid secretions, and expel all the diseased matter from the body. These are the only means by which consumption can be cured, and as Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are the only medicines which operate in this way, it is obvious they are the only genuine cures for Pulmonary Consumption. Each bottle of this invaluable medicine is accompanied by full descriptions. Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.
