Mr. John Stuart, one of the wealthy citizens of Carbondale, has made an assignment. Liabilities about $36,000, and assets about $50,000. The fearful shrinkage in values has caused this, as well as many other failures. The bad policy of our rulers for the past ten or fifteen years has produced this ruinous condition of affairs all over the country.

The little ten year old daughter of John Dundon, in Binghamton, met with a sad fate. With other children she gathered brush, and set it on fire, when in some way her clothing caught fire, and she started on a run for home. Reaching there a pail of water was quickly thrown over her, and the fire extinguished, but she was so badly burned that she died about 4 o'clock Monday morning. Children do take warning.—Leader.

Wayne county papers announce that a couple of swindlers after "doing" that county have passed into Susquehanna. The plan of swindling is as follows: A pack peddler calls at a house with a fine lot of cloth, vest patterns, etc., which he offers at ruinous sacrifices. He makes a sale and goes his way. The next day two men drive up to the house with a printed bill giving the account of a robbery of a clothing house in Williamsport, describing the peddler, etc. They claim the goods and usually bulldoze the purchaser into giving them up. The plan worked well in Wayne county, and people should be on their strict guard.

WILLIAMS—May 26, 1877, after a long and painful illness, Jas. A. Williams.
WHEREAS, in the wise providence of Almighty God, our friend and brother, Jas. A. Williams, was after a long and painful illness, on the 26th of May, 1877, stricken down by the hand of death in the prime of life and manhood; and
WHEREAS, he was a member of Live Oak Lodge No. 635, I. O. of O. F., in good standing and held by us in high esteem; therefore,
Resolved, That while we bow in submission to the Divine Will in this dispensation of his providence, we cannot refrain from expressing our deep sense of the loss we have sustained.
Resolved, That while we feel his loss, we will sincerely cherish his memory in our hearts and will endeavor to practice his virtues in our lives.
Resolved, That we place on record our appreciation of his merits, to wit: he was a man of strict honesty and unswerving integrity, modest and unpretentious, at the same time faithful in discharge of his duty, that his deportment was that of a Christian gentleman, a respected son, a true and loving brother, a sympathizing friend, an affectionate husband, and a kind and indulgent father.
Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his surviving widow, children, and relatives in their great loss, and that by words and acts of kindness we will render his family all the aid in our power.

Resolved, That our Charter be draped in mourning sixty days.
Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the Journal of this Lodge and a copy be presented to the bereaved family; also that a copy be furnished to the county papers at Montrose, with a request to publish the same.

FABRICA'S CONTINENTAL BALM. The great Diarrhoea Antidote. A few of the many reasons why every person should keep a bottle of the Continental Balm in their house: First, it will cure almost instantly all cases of pain, cramps, colic, dyspepsia, or looseness of the bowels. Second, it will cure the chronic diarrhoea of long standing. Third, it is one of the best remedies in the world for children while teething, as it gives instant relief without subjecting them to any injurious effect. Fourth and last, the price being so low, 25 and 50c per bottle, that the poorest can afford to buy it. Sold by John Fareira, Sole Proprietor, 224 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, and druggists generally.
