

DOINGS OF THE WEEK.

The war in Europe does not seem to have put on any more interesting or decisive aspect during the past week than heretofore.

The Times' Bucharest dispatch says the following is official: The Roumanian army ready for actual fighting, numbers 55,900 regulars.

While war is devastating in the East, during the past week the tempest has swept over portions of our country with unusual fury.

On Wednesday evening, between six and seven o'clock, South Middleton township was visited by an inundation, the like of which is beyond the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

The tornado is on the war path in the prairie country. The destruction of Mt. Carmel, in Southern Illinois, on Monday evening of last week was a terrible calamity.

The Clarion Democrat says: "Never since 1865 has there been so much excitement about oil in Clarion as there has been this week."

Terrible Tornadoes. Mt. Carmel, Ill., was struck by a tornado last week Tuesday afternoon, which caused terrible destruction of life and property.

Mount Carmel is the capital of Wabash county, Illinois, on the Wabash river, opposite the mouth of White river, 160 miles south-east of Springfield.

Turkish Troubles. The Montenegrin army is described by a correspondent of the London Times as a mass of tattered demoralized men.

The Republican Party in Pennsylvania. Four county conventions of the party have been held in the four Republican strongholds of the State—Philadelphia, Lancaster, Alleghany and Bradford.

stabbed by qualified praise. The ticket will be presented and the party told to elect or defeat it, no matter which.

A sharp girl in the Treasury Department, who is to lose her position because her brother has one too, gets in this neat bit at Secretary Sherman.

Dr. Jessup writes from Beirut to the New York Evangelist that the Christian population of Syria is in great danger from the outbreaks of Mohammedan fanaticism.

"A Complete Pictorial History of the Times." "The best, cheapest and most successful family paper in the union."

HARPER'S WEEKLY. ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press: Harper's Weekly should be in every family throughout the land, as a purer, more interesting, higher toned, better illustrated paper is not published in this or any other country.

The weekly is the only illustrated paper of the day that in its essential characteristics is recognized as a national paper.

The leading articles in Harper's Weekly on political topics are models of high-toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative argument of no small force.

Postage free to all subscribers in the United States. Harper's Weekly, one year, $4.00; $4.00 includes prepayment of U. S. postage by the publisher.

Back numbers can be supplied at any time. The volumes of the weekly commence with the year. When no time is mentioned it will be understood that the subscriber wishes to commence with the number next after the receipt of his order.

The Annual Volumes of Harper's Weekly, in neat cloth binding, will be sent by express, free of expense, for $7.00 each. A complete set, comprising Twenty Volumes, sent on receipt of cash at the rate of $5.25 per volume, freight at expense of purchaser.
