This section was visited by a storm of rain, hail, wind and lightning, last Thursday afternoon, which did considerable damage to the crops, besides overturning hundreds of forest trees. The lightning entered the store of John Saunderson, at Ariel, by way of the chimney, and damaged the goods to a considerable extent. Several customers who were in the building at the time received severe shocks of electricity. The lightning struck the telegraph wire near the Waymart office, and followed it into the building, injuring the apparatus somewhat and setting the office on fire, but it was speedily extinguished. The ground at White Mills was covered with hail-stones as large as peas.—Honesdale Citizen.

Considerable excitement was caused on Lackawanna avenue, Scranton, Pa., on Wednesday by the execution of a writ of ejectment upon the premises occupied by Mr. John Zeidler. The Republican gives the following version of the proceedings: "The premises occupied for some years past by Mr. John Zeidler, on Lackawanna avenue, were visited by Deputy Sheriff McCollum and George Sanderson, Jr., for the purpose of taking possession in conformity with a writ issued to that effect on Monday in favor of Messrs. Read and Haddock of Philadelphia. They found the doors locked and learned that Mr. Zeidler and his family were out of town, whereupon they broke the locks, entered the building and began to deposit the furniture on the sidewalk, where in a short time a pyramid of chairs and tables were piled up. Everything movable was transferred to the sidewalk, and in a short space of time the extensive establishment, which had been so elaborately fitted up, presented a desolate appearance. We learned from Mr. Sanderson, who was acting for his brother, that the latter, Mr. J. Gardner Sanderson, some time ago negotiated six notes of ten thousand dollars each in Philadelphia for Mr. Zeidler, he gave a mortgage on his property for the amount—in all sixty thousand dollars. Failing to fulfill any of the obligations arising from the transaction, the summary seizure of his premises yesterday morning was the result. The affair, owing to its public nature and the fact of the building having been broken into, excited considerable curiosity and attracted a good deal of attention.
