THE MAN WHO WAS EXCITED OVER THE WAR NEWS.

Mr. White, a Detroiter of middle age, visited this office yesterday to find a war map and have a chat about the European situation, and it wasn't ten minutes before his enthusiasm was to the bailing point,

"It will be worth thousands and millions and billions of dollars to this country!" he shouted as he broke through one of the office chairs. "Yes, it will" somebody remarked..

It will stiffen wages, bring out capital make money plenty and just set us all to whooping!" he whooped as he scratched the leg wounded at the first Bull run.

Smebody remarked that it probably would. Taking five newspaper war maps under one arm and a copy of the London Times under the other, Mr. White left the office and proceeded directly homeward, feeling more patriotic every moment.

"Oh! we're going to lay 'em right out, Nancy!" he said, as he dropped his hat in the

"Have, ch? Well, I hope that paper hanger will be here in the morning. You didn't think to see about that-" "Right here is Kars, and right here is where the Turks got mauled!" he exclaimed as he knelt on the floor and traced one of the maps. "Did, eh?" Say John, can't you rake off the lawn this morning, and did you see about the whitewashing?

"Will you talk about whitewashing when all Europe is convulsed with war?" he fiercely demanded as he shook the other four maps at "I__I'd like these onion beds marked out of the London Times editorially predicts that a million armed men will be rushing at each others' throats in less than sixty days!"

She tourd the button, and he unrolled the balance of the maps. There was a dead silence until his finger rested on the city of Erzeroum, Royal Canadian, of Montreal, when he shouted:

"Here she is ! Right around here is where they are making the Turks howl for sugar !" "By the way John," she softly remarked, as she looked up, don't you think that summer kitchen will have to be reshingled this spring? The girl who does general housework says he tore the five war maps into five hundred pieces, and banged the London Times against the wall with an awful thump as he jumped out of doors, but girls are sometimes prejudiced. Mr. White was in the corner grocery at half past eleven saying to the proprietor: "Don't it make your blood jump as you read of the European situation?"

And the proprietor raked the cheese knife on the edge of the counter to clean it and replied: "Seems like I shall have to kill doze poys who cut soap mit dis knife."

How can you expect anything but a warrior to feel as warriors do?"

We have taken wood, potatoes, corn, eggs, butter, onions, cabbages, chickens, stone, lumber, labor. sand, calico, sauerkraut, second-hand clothing, coon skins, and bug juice on subscriptions, in our time, and now a man writes to us to know if we would send the paper six months for a large owl. There are a few things an editor would refuse on subscriptions, and if we come across any fellow who is out of an owl and is in need of one we'll do it."-Osborne (Kan) Farmer.

Dr. Holland wants to know who can tell what a baby thinks?" Well, what would Dr. Holland think himself if he had to wear clothes a mile too long for him, and have his back stuck so full of pins that there wasn't room on it for half a square inch of prickley heat.—Burlington Hawheye.

NEW MILFORD, PA.

Having located in the BRICK STORE formerly occupied by H. & W. T. Dickerman, I would say to my friends and the public generaly that I am now receiving direct from New York one of the largest stocks of goods ever offered in this county, (and will be sold at lower prices,) consisting of

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES, WALL-PAPER, READY-

MADE CLOTHING, Etc. These goods were bought for cash, with all possible discount off, and are to be sold on the

SPECIALTY-I have just received a $4,000.00 SPECIALTY-Bankrupt stock of Clothing, pur-SPECIALTY-chased at a nominal price, which SPECIALTY-will be sold for about one-half its SPECIALTY-value, (guaranteed to be 25 per SPECIALTY-cent, lower than the same goods SPECIALTY-can be bought in Binghamton.)

This is not wind, but a fact; and you can be convinced by examining the goods.

MY MOTTO IS READY PAY In looking the matter over I see that the credit system still continues to increase its victims of buyers and sellers, while the ready-pay system is growing in favor. There is no other way for a merchant to sell goods for a small profit than to demand pay when delivered. If there had been no credit system there would be no hard times to complain of. Try it for a year and you will never go backward, but be convinced of its benefit.
