

DOINGS OF THE WEEK.

The reverses of the Russians in Asia, now established beyond doubt to be of the most decisive character, destroying their projected campaign, is the most remarkable event in the military discussion of the Eastern question thus far.

The number and terrific character of the storms that are visiting different parts of the country this season are truly appalling. Scarcely a day passes without the news of a devastating tornado reaching us from some quarter, and not only is property destroyed but also a great loss of life.

The Charter Oak Life Insurance Company is going into the hands of a receiver. The St. Louis Lumbermen's and Mechanics' Insurance Company is going to wind up its affairs.

General Howard's official report of the battle on the south fork of the Clear Water river says that the Indians were driven off, with thirteen killed and a number wounded.

It is stated on good authority that gold was discovered last week in Oldtown, twelve miles from Bangor, Me., by men who were blasting for a reservoir.

The employees of the D. L. & W. R. R. in Hoboken tell a sad story of the burning and drowning of a boy July 6th.

A lad about 15 years of age was riding on a train through the region around Dover, in Morris county, when his clothing took fire.

There is a report that Winslow the forger is not a thousand miles from Boston.

Spartan Mothers.

Throughout Russia, the war feeling is exceedingly strong. The Russian women especially, display a warm interest in the welfare of the army.
