In this condition it remains the afternoon of the next day when if the weather be fair, it is pitched into 'grass cod," and left to make.
Care, however, is essential in constructing the cocks, as when too bulky, the grass will leat and become musty; which greatly detracks from the value of hay. A "grass cock" ought never to contain more than eighty or a hundred pounds of unmade or partially wilted grass, and must not be formed also compactly or be too much consolidated pressure as to cause a liability to ferment of heat. A careful and practical workman topitch the grass into cock much better with far greater despatch, if the crop be an average one, than it can be raked and cocked in the usual way. As soon as the hay is thoroughly made, it should be got in without spreading, and in dry weather. In the harn it should be closely packed. - Germantown Telegraph.

THE most distinguished Physicians in this and other countries before whom this preparation has been laid have bestowed upon it unqualified praise as an article of rare excellence and one better calculated to cure all forms of Pulmonary disease than any other remedy known. Read the following testimony and judge carefully from it-it is from men of known respectability, not from persons of whom you have never before heard.

Dr. J. V. Smith, Surgeon of the Port of Boston, Says—" It gives me pleasure to speak with appro-bation of such a medicine as is here offered to the public. If any preparation can subdue diseases of the lungs, Cherry Pectoral can do it."

The Editor of the London Langet says; We can speak with confidence of its intrasic merit.

Dr. Perkins, the venerable President of Castleton Medical College considers it a composition of rare excellence for the most formidable type of disease in our climate—Consumption.

Prof. Cleveland, of Boordoin College, writes:

I have witnessed the effects of your Cherry Pectoral in my own family, and that of my friends, and , it has given great satisfaction in cases of both adults and children.

Videntine Mott, M. D., Prof. of Surgery, New York City, says:—It gives me pleasure to certify in favor of this beautiful and truly invaluable remcly his diseases of the Lungs. Andrew Combe, M. D., F. R. S. Physician Extraordinary to the Queen of Scotland, writes :- This new Medico Chemical adds another proof that the sciences and arts are rapidly advancing in America.

The Rt. Rev. Lord Bishop of New Foundland writes in a letter to his friend, who was fast sinking under the affection of the Lungs:-Try the Cherry Pectoral and if any medicine can give you relief with the blessing of God that will.

"The Canadian Journal of Medical Science," states that "the prevailing Asthma of this inclement climate has yielded with surprising rapidity to often with surprising rapidity, the most violent and dangerous attacks of pulmonary disease."

If there is any value in the judgment of the wise, here is a remedy on which the public can depend.
