

per week, and we all find our own bedding and sleep on the floor. She is a good kind-hearted woman and keeps a very good table. She left New-York in the Crescent City at the same time I did in company with Mrs. Fremont.

There are about four hundred tents in and about the city. Some of them are very decently got up, and are occupied as restaurants, stores, drinking shops, gambling dens &c. A tent 20 by 30 feet rents for $18,000 per month. I saw refused to day $18,000 per year for one room 16 by 20 feet. The reason of all this is the enormous price charged for ground rent and the high price of real estate. Labor costs from $6 to $10 per day. One hotel lets for $120,000 per year. The rooms are relet for gambling and other purposes. A corner lot sold yesterday, 30 by 50 feet for twenty thousand dollars.

Soon after my arrival I met Com. Jones. He says this state of things cannot last—that the place has got a start and may keep it two or three years.

I think there are about four thousand inhabitants and they are building in all the various styles of architecture notwithstanding lumber is selling at $400 to $1000 per thousand. I shall stay for the mines and some of the most important locations in a day or two. The news concerning the mine I believe has never been exaggerated. An ounce per day can be got by hard work and some deprivation. I shall return to San Francisco in about three weeks, and in due time you will hear from me again. Till then adieu!

THOMAS A. WARNER.

Accompanying the above letter is a copy of the "Alta California," a newspaper published at San Francisco which we have placed on our table for the inspection of our friends. It is but little more than half as large as the Register yet a price six times greater is charged for it. It is published weekly at $12 per annum, $7 for six months or 25 cts. for a single copy. It is well filled with advertisements although $10 is charged by its publisher where we would only charge $1. The paper is edited with much ability and in mechanical execution it is quite equal to its contemporaries on the Atlantic slope.—

Lost Voice Testimony—Mr S. W. Fowle—Having seen many certificates published in relation to Mr. WESTER'S BALSAW & OIL CEDAR—I take this opportunity of offering my services to his favor, while I am also at liberty to publish them since my wife's loss because so much affected by a sudden cold, that she lost her voice, and suffered severely from pains in the breast.

Yours truly,

HENRY BRIGHTMAN.

P. S. Such testimony can be relied upon. Be careful of the article you buy. It must have the signature of J. BUTTS on the wrapper to be genuine.

Buy none without the written signature of J. BUTTS on the wrapper, if you would avoid imitation.

Notice—Agricultural Society.

An adjourned meeting of this Society was held at the Court House, August 28, '49. Hon. Wm. Jessup in the chair.

On motion the following preamble and resolution was unanimously passed, after full discussion:

As a means for the better regulation and protection of property exhibited at the annual exhibition, and an efficient means of aiding the funds of the Society, creating a fund for incidental expenses and enabling the Society to increase the number of awards upon which premiums may be paid.

Therefore—Resolved, That the Executive Committee having charge of the exhibition be directed to issue tickets of admission at 12cts. each to Members of the Society to have tickets for them selves and families free. On motion adjourned.

M. L. CATLIN, Secretary.

MARRIED,

In Great Bend, on the 1st inst., by Elder D. Dimock, Mr. ARTEMUS HALL of that place, to Miss SARAH GAGE of Silver Lake.

DIED,

At Franklin, on Wednesday, July 25, Mrs. LOUISA HANDECK, consort of Mr. Sheldon G. Handreck, and daughter of Sylvester and Polly Smith, aged 56 years.

From its incipient stage, her disease was alarming and accomplished its fatal work in a few days. At her funeral obsequies a deep and general sympathy was shown. But, though the husband mourned the loss of a faithful sharer in the joys and sorrows of life—and children, of an affectionate mother—and the church, of one of her brightest ornaments—and community, of an obliging citizen; yet he sorrowed not even as others which have no hope, for her life and death afforded a comfortable assurance that the slept in Jesus; and, "be it known that Jesus died and rose again," that they might come and weep with those that wept.
