WASHINGTON, 27 Dec. 1845.

Or all the Periodical Journals devoted to litera ure and science which abound in Europe and in this country, this has appeared to me the most use ful. It contains indeed the exposition only of the current literature of the English language, but this, by its immense extent and comprehension, includes a portraiture of the human mind in the utmost ex-pansion of the present age. J. Q. ADAMS.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. NEW YORE EVENING POST -- Littel's Living Age keeps up its character. The back numbers contain a prodigious amount and variety of the best periodical literature of England.
