To Dairy men and Farmers. Valuable Property for Sale.

THE following Real and Personal Estate, as hereinafter described, situate in New Milford, Susquehanna County, Pennsylvania, will be sold at a great bargain to any one who may choose to pur-chase. The real estate consists of seven hundred acres, five hundred of which are under improvement, and on which are four dwelling houses and seven barns. The farm is well designed for a Darry, and is capable of feeding one hundred Cows dury, and is capable of feeding one hundred Cows during summer and winter, and every part of it well watered with springs and streams. The buildings and land are in good condition, and on the premises are about five miles of good Stone Wall, and the other fences are also good, and on the woodland are large quantities of Chestnut Timber, which will supply the farm for many years to come, and which will also be valuable for building the Railroad which is soon to be built up Martin's Creek .-Said farm has a very pleasant and desirable loca-tion about seven miles from Great Bend, through which the New York & Erie Railroad passes, and about one mile from the probable Depot on the Martin's Creek Railroad, which will lead from the Lackawanna Coal and Iron Mines to intersect the New York & Eric Railroad at the Great Bend. It can be very advantageously divided into five farms, on four of which would be the necessary Dwellings and Out-houses, Fruit Trees, &c.

With the above, will be sold a very large stock of Cattle, Horses, &c., including Durham Cows. Working Oxen and young Cattle, and also all necessary implements of husbandry for carrying on said farm or farms.

The Terms of Sale will be as follows:-One fourth of the purchase money for the Real estate will be required at the time of purchase, and for Stock, Farming Utensils, &c., half down and the residue to be paid in equal annual instalments, with interest annually on the whole sum unpaid, to be computed from the full delivery of possession, the first instalment payable in three years from the delivery of possession, and the whole amount to be paid within ten years from the sale, to be secured by Bond and Mortgage. Full possession to be given on the first day of April, 1851, with the privi-lege of putting in crops next Fall if desired. A good and indisputable title given.

The above described property belongs to the estate of S. MEYLERT, late of said county, deceased, and a more desirable property has not at any time in this section of country; been offered for sale, and no greater inducements offered to purchasers. Persons wishing to invest moneys in Real Estate and n good Stock, cannot do better than to call and examine for themselves. Other tracts or lots of land lying in said county, are also offered for sale. Applications can be made to M. Meylert at New Milford, or to B. S. RESOLUTION Relative to an Amendment of the Constitution. Resolved by the Senate and House of Representa tives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the Constitution of his Commonwealth be amended in the second section of the fifth article, so that it shall read as follows: The Judges of the Supreme Court, of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other. Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth, in the manner following, to wit: The Judges of the Supreme Court, by qualified electors of the Commonwealth at large; the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, by the eight hundred and fifty. A. L. RUSSELL, qualified electors of the respective districts over which they are to preside or act as Judges; and the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas by the qualified electors of the counties respectively. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the torm of fifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for, subsequent to the first election;) the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall hold their offices for the term of five years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; all of whom shall be commissioned by the Governor, but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient grounds of impeachment, the Governor shall remove any of them on the address of two-thirds of each branch of the Legislature. The first election shall take place at the general election of this Commonwealth next after the adoption of this amendment, and the commissions of all the Judges who may be then in office shall expire on the first Monday of December following, when the terms of the new Judges shall commence. The persons who shall then be elected Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices as fellows: One of them for three years, one for six years, one for nine years, one for twelve years, and one for fifteen years, the term of each to be decided by lot by the said Judges, as soon after the election as convenient, and the result certified by them to the Governor, that the commissions may be issued in accordance thereto. The Judge whose commission will first expire shall be Chief Justice during his term. and thereafter each Judge whose commission shall first expire shall in turn be the Chief Justice, and if two or more commissions shall expire on the same day, the Judges holding them shall decide by lot which shall
