

THE REGISTER.

J. W. CHAPMAN, Editor. THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1850.

Whig State Nominations.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, JOSEPH DUNGAN, of Bucks county. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, HENRY W. SNYDER, of Union county.

Whig County Nominations.

ASSEMBLY, MYRON M. MOTT, of Bridgewater. COMMISSIONER, IRA SUMMERS, of New Milford. PROSECUTING ATTORNEY, HOMER H. FRAZIER, of Montrose.

Our Candidates.

This week we place under our editorial hand the ticket formed by the Whig County Convention, and presented to the voters of this county for their suffrages at the approaching election.

IRA SUMMERS, the nominee for Commissioner is a citizen of New Milford township. He is just the man for the office. No better selection could have been made.

Things at Washington. We must necessarily be brief in our report of the proceedings at Washington. In the Senate, August 23d, the Fugitive Slave bill was taken up.

THE PEAK FAMILY will give an entertainment of Vocal Music accompanied by the Harp, two Guitars and the Crenous, this (Thursday) evening at the New Academy in this village.

The Texas Boundary.

Mr. Pearce's Bill, for the adjustment of the boundary with Texas, we believe to be wrong. Notwithstanding it passed the Senate by a handsome majority, we are none the less dissatisfied with its unjust concession to the slave power of the South.

But from such men as Cooper of this State, Winthrop of Mass., Phelps of Vt., Clark and Green of R. I., we did expect a different vote. It is, however, to their credit that they made every laudable effort to get a boundary more favorable to the principles of free soil.

Although we never fully approved the compromise bill in all its features, yet we confess the joy with which we greeted its defeat, has given place to greater sorrow by the passage in the Senate of Mr. Pearce's boundary.

As we frequently hear it asserted by the Locofoco heretics that the law relative to small notes was a measure for which the Whigs are equally responsible with the Locos, and some even asserting it a Whig measure altogether, we publish the years diary, or the final passage of the Bill containing the Sections in the House of Representatives.

THE execution of Prof. John W. Webster for the murder of Dr. Parkman will take place tomorrow at Leverett, jail in Boston. He is represented to be calm and fully sensible of his condition.

Fire Company Meeting.

At a meeting of the "Rough and Ready Fire Engine Company," the Committee of arrangements, L. F. Fitch, William H. Jessup, and J. C. Miller, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That in the recent "complimentary supper" furnished by the Ladies of Montrose to the Fire Department of this borough, we recognize the true greatness of their character, as well as the perfection of their art, and that the occasion was an Elysium below, in which the "stars grew dim and the moon hid her light."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the Ladies who provided the entertainment, and to the papers of this place for publication.

Small Bills. The following are the sections of the act for the regulation of banks which relate to small bills.

Sec. 48. That from and after the twenty-first day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, corporations, or body corporate, directly or indirectly, to issue, pay out, pass, exchange, put in circulation, transfer, or cause to be issued, paid out, passed, exchanged, circulated, or transferred, any bank note, bill, certificate, or any acknowledgment of indebtedness whatsoever, purporting to be a bank note.

Slavery. Here is the profile of our national action on the subject now before the people: In 1774, we agreed to import no more slaves after that year, and never formally repealed that act of agreement.

THE WORLD'S EXHIBITION OF MANUFACTURES.—Some idea may be formed of the extent of the building for the reception of specimens of the arts and manufactures of different nations, in Hyde Park, London, by the fact that it is to cover eighteen acres of ground! The edifice will be 110 feet high, and cost £150,000.

For the Susquehanna Register. The Firemen's Supper.

The Court House bell rang loud and clear To call the red coats far and near, 'Till sure it was the supper bell!

Although the poetical license taken in the above effusion might with propriety be questioned, we should judge from the sentiments advanced they had "all times" at the "Firemen's Supper"; and the fire imported to the verse turned with no ordinary fervor.

Small Bills. The law prohibiting the passing or circulating of bank notes of a less denomination than five dollars, is now in force.

The effect of which we support, as it will be one of the business interests of the people of this portion of the Commonwealth, as well as the difficulty and perplexity to which it would subject the poor or laboring classes generally.
