RESOLUTION
Relative to an Amendment of the Constitution.
Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met: That the Constitution of this Commonwealth be amended in the second article of the fifth article, so that it shall read as follows: The Judges of the Supreme Court, of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth, in the manner following, to wit: The Judges of the Supreme Court, by the qualified electors of the Commonwealth at large; the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges required to be learned in the law, by the qualified electors of the respective districts over which they are to preside or act as Judges; and the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas by the qualified electors of the counties respectively. The Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices for the term of fifteen years, if they shall so long behave themselves well, (subject to the allotment hereinafter provided for, subsequent to the first election) the President Judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas, and of such other Courts of Record as are or shall be established by law, and all other Judges shall hold their offices for the term of ten years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; the Associate Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas shall hold their offices for the term of five years, if they shall so long behave themselves well; all of whom shall be commissioned by the Governor, but for any reasonable cause, which shall not be sufficient grounds of impeachment, the Governor shall remove any of them on the address of two-thirds of each branch of the Legislature. The first election shall take place at the general election of this Commonwealth, next after the adoption of this amendment, and the commissions of all the Judges who may be then in office shall expire on the first Monday of December following, when the terms of the new Judges shall commence. The persons who shall then be elected Judges of the Supreme Court shall hold their offices as follows: One of them for three years, one for six years, one for nine years, one for twelve years, and one for fifteen years, the term of each to be decided by lot by the said Judges, as soon after the election as convenient, and the result certified by them to the Governor, and the result commissions may be issued in accordance thereto. The Judge whose commission will first expire shall be Chief Justice during his term, and thereafter each Judge whose commission shall first expire shall in turn be the Chief Justice, and if two or more commissions shall expire on the same day, the Judges holding them shall decide by lot which shall be the Chief Justice: Any vacancies, happening by death, resignation or otherwise, in any of the said courts, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, to continue till the next general election of the several Courts of Common Pleas shall, at stated times, receive for their services an adequate compensation, to be fixed by law, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office; but they shall receive no fee, perquisite or office fee, or hold any other office of profit under this Commonwealth, or under the government of the United States, or any other state of this Union. The Judges of the Supreme Court, during their continuance in office, shall reside within this Commonwealth; and the other Judges during their continuance in office, shall reside within the district or county for which they were respectively elected.

Valuable Property for Sale.
THE following Real and Personal Estate, hereinafter described, situate in New Milford, Susquehanna County, Pennsylvania, will be sold at a great bargain to any one who may choose to purchase. The real estate consists of seven hundred acres, five hundred of which are under improvement, and on which are four Chertons, four seven bars. The farm is well stocked with fine Dairy, and is capable of feeding one hundred cows during summer and winter, and every part of it watered with springs and streams. The buildings and land are in good condition, and on the premises are about five miles of good Stone Wall, and the other fences are also good, and on the wood land are large quantities of Chestnut Timber, which will supply the farm for many years, and which will also be valuable for building the Railroad, which is soon to be built up Martin's Creek. Said farm has a very pleasant and desirable location about seven miles from Great Bend, through which the New York & Erie Railroad passes, at about one mile from the probable Depot on Martin's Creek Railroad, which will lead from Lackawanna Coal and Iron Mines to intersect the New York & Erie Railroad at the Great Bend. Can be very advantageously divided into five farms on four of which would be the necessary Dwelling and Out-houses, Fruit Trees, &c.
With the above will be sold a very large lot of Cattle, Horses, &c., including Durham Cow working Oxen and young Cattle, and also all necessary implements of husbandry for carrying said farm or farms.
The Terms of Sale will be as follows:—One-fourth of the purchase money for the Real estate will be required at the time of purchase, and the residue to be paid in equal annual instalments, to interest annually on the whole sum unpaid, to be computed from the full delivery of possession, the first instalment payable four months from the date of delivery of possession, and the whole amount to be paid within ten years, from the sale, to be secured by Bond and Mortgage. Full possession to be given on the first day of April 1851, with the privilege of putting in crops next Fall, if desired, good and indisputable title given.
The above described property belongs to the estate of S. MERRITT, late of said county, deceased, and a more desirable property has not at any time in this section of country, been offered for sale, or no greater inducements offered to purchasers. Persons wishing to invest money in Real Estate in good Stock, cannot do better than to call and inquire for themselves. Other tracts of lots lying in said county, are also offered for sale. Applications can be made to M. Myerlet at New York, or to R. S. Bentley at Montrose, in satisfaction, and any further particulars that may be required will be given.
MICHAEL MEYER, Executor of the estate of S. MERRITT, late of said county, deceased.
