The Plowing match took place on the morning after the fair, and although the weather was unfavorable, yet a very large body of men assembled to witness it. Four plows with horse teams entered, and the work to be performed was one-fifth of an acre. The ploughing was spirited and well performed, considering the nature of the ground, and highly creditable to the plowmen.

Exciting News from California. From the New-York Tribune we gather the following particulars:

The news which the Senator brings from Sacramento is exciting in the extreme. Riot and death rule the hour! The long expected collision between the landholders and squatters has at last taken place.

Capt. Van Pelt of the Senator, has furnished us with the following information: An armed body of the squatters proceeded through the streets about 1 1/2 o'clock, yesterday, and were interrupted by the authorities and opposed by portions of the citizens.

Our correspondent informs us that Dr. Robinson the leader of the squatters, was shot through the head. His horse was first shot under him. Several of the squatters were killed and wounded.

The war continued to rage as the Senator left. The discharge of fire arms was heard in every part of the city. Marshal law had been proclaimed, and the excitement is intense throughout Sacramento.

Very Express.—Just as the steamer Carolina was getting under way, (about 4 P.M.) a dispatch was received on board from the Pacific News office, stating that an express had just arrived, bringing the intelligence that Sacramento City had been reduced to ashes, and the squatters were receiving reinforcements of men from the mines.

At the time the Carolina left fifty U. S. soldiers had left Benicia for the scene of battle, and two volunteer companies in San Francisco had also offered their services to maintain order.

For the Register. PRINCIPLES. The late operations of the leaders of the Democratic party have beautifully illustrated the hold that principles have upon them.

He expects his friends can be led by the nose as he has been, and that they care no more about principle than he does and will be bought and sold with him.

He expects his friends can be led by the nose as he has been, and that they care no more about principle than he does and will be bought and sold with him.

I am not enough conversant with their party to say it will not be so, but I affirm that there is one man a Democrat and Free Soiler who cannot be sold by David Wilnot for I have heard him say so.

There is no doubt about the bargain having been made here and consummated in Wellsboro.

These are strange times. Truly the age of discovery. There is no limit to progression. Contingencies bring out men for the times, and Wellsboro has astonished this Congressional District by producing the long sought for "Philosopher's Stone."

To-day we learn to our astonishment that Hunker and Free Soiler, seasoned with the Buffalo Platform and the Wilnot Proviso, were put into the crucible at Wellsboro by the regular and irregular conferees of this District, melted down and thoroughly refined.

Such is the sober second thought of the Leaders. Consequently the people will face the music, and get it blind, provided always, they do not take the second thought themselves and refuse to take the Bogus Proviso, for the genuine, which we think cannot be.

Will they be deceived by his specious pretences? Where are the principles about which he has been so loud? Where the great cause of which he has been so eloquent? All—al! sacrificed, for the promises of the Hunkers.
