

Earthquake at Cleveland.

A very sensible shock of an earthquake was felt at this place this morning (Oct 1st) at about 20 minutes past five o'clock. The morning was very clear, with the exception of a few distant clouds resting upon the horizon in the North and Northwest. The night had also been quite clear, with a beautiful display of Aurora Borealis, which was most brilliant about four o'clock. The first indication of the phenomenon was a low rumbling sound, somewhat like distant thunder, apparently in a northwesterly direction. The sound increased in intensity for about three or four seconds, the deepest intonations being like very heavy distant thunder, the earth at the same instant exhibited a trembling motion which lasted nearly two seconds when it gradually died away with the sound in an easterly or southeasterly direction. The concussion was so violent that it produced a jarring and rattling of the windows furniture and crockery, and a very sensible trembling could be felt by one standing on the ground. In Euclid about eight miles east of this city, the shock was sufficiently violent to throw crockery from the shelf.—Christian Herald.

Arthur's Home Gazette.

The subscribers have commenced the publication of a New Weekly Paper for Families, with the above title, to be under the entire editorial control of T. S. ARTHUR, who will concentrate upon it all, or nearly all, of his literary labors. The design of this paper is clearly expressed in the title—"Home Gazette." It will be published on a paper for the home circle—a household companion—a pleasant friend, and coming, with a cheerful countenance, and seeking, while it imparts instruction, to entertain and interest all classes of readers. A leading feature of the "Home Gazette" will be a series of original nonvellettes by the editor. He will furnish some four or five of these pictures of domestic life, written in his best style for every volume. The "Home Gazette" will be the organ of no party or sect; nor will it be the exponent of any of the isms of the day. But it will faithfully advocate the right, and seek by every means to widen the circle of human happiness. Humbly will the editor teach the truth, as he has ever done in his writings, for the sake of good to his fellow men. But, in doing this, he will avoid unnecessary harshness and causeless offence, and keep his journal free from stain of wounding personal animosity. He will oppose what is false and evil, and on his social duties, but while doing so, will use no slatrap language, such as his rebuke and correction may require. "The Home Gazette" will be elegantly printed, on fine white paper, with large clear faced type, so that it may be read by young and old without injury to the eyes.

Terms of the Paper.—In all cases in Advance. One copy, per annum, $2 00

"Nature has formed strange beings in her time."
TO BE SEEN ALIVE! (the BUSHNEGRESS or WILD WOMAN of the Woods) From the Isle of Sumatra!

THIS only living specimen brought to this country by a civilized man, will be exhibited at Montrose under a Pavilion on Friday and Saturday Oct. 11th, 12th. Hours of Admission:—from 10 to 12 A. M., 2 to 5 and 9 to 9 o'clock, P. M.

This creature is a newly discovered link between the Brute and Human species, and it is difficult to determine to which it belongs. This singular being was taken after a hunt of several days, and brought to this country, and is the only one ever taken alive.

In presenting this wonderful creature to the public the proprietor wishes it distinctly understood that he challenges either Continent to produce a greater Natural Curiosity. It has been exhibited for nearly five months, and thousands have visited it, including Naturalists, Medical Men, and all who take an interest in nature and her wonderful works, pronounce her the most surprising specimen of Nature's mystery ever seen. It throws in a flood of light on Natural History, and fills up the darkest spots, (the connection between the Brute and Human), and thus combines instruction with amusement.

Its gait is erect, having the Negro features with protruding mouth, bald head, with hair five inches long on its arms. The species grow to the height of five and a half to six feet. The present specimen is perfectly docile and can be approached by the hand. At this is probably the only visit to this place, we would invite the Ladies in particular to improve the present opportunity to visit the WILD LADY of Sumatra, who has been drawing crowded houses for the last five months. This extraordinary Exhibition will be attended by choice Music on the Dulcimer, Rock Harmonium, and Violin. Admission, 25 cts. Children 12 1/2 cts.
