The subscribers have commenced the publication of a New Weekly Paper for Eamilies, with the above title, to be under the entire editornal control of T. S. ARTHUR, who will concentrate upon it all, or nearly all, of his literary labors. The design of this paper is clearly expressed in the title—
"Home Gazette." It will be, emphatically, a paper for the home circle—a household companion pleasaut fireside friend, coming to all with a cheerful countenance, and seeking, while it imparts in-struction, to entertain and interest all classes of readers. A leading feature of the "Home Gazette" will be a series of original nouvellettes by the editor! Who will furnish some four or five of these pictures of domestic life, written in his best style for every volume. The "Home Gazette" will be the organ of no party nor sect; nor will it be the exponent of any of the isms of the day. But it will farthfully advocate the right, and seek, by every means, to widen the circle of human happiness,-Honestly will the editor teach the truth, as he has ever done in his writings, for the sake of good to his fellow afen. But, in doing this, he will avoid unnecessary harshness and causeless offence, and keep his journal tree from stain of wounding per-He will oppose what is false and evil, as one of his social duties; but, while doing so, will use no sharper language than its rebuke and correction may require. 'The Home Gazette' will be elegantly printed, on fine white paper, with large clear faced type, that may be read by young and old without injury to the eyes.
