respondence between Mr. Webster and the Austrian Charge. WASHINGTON, December 31, 1850. The President yesterday sent to the Senate copies of the correspondence between the If paid within the year, Austrian Charge and Mr. Webster. On a If not at the end of the year, motion to print 10,000 extra copies a very animated debate arose. All the Senators who took part bore testimony to the masterability of Mr. Webster.

yr. Mangum said Mr. Webster's letter nisined National doctrines-American doc nes-openly, and manfully avowed in the es of all the world. The correspondence is published to-day. The Austrian Charge writes an important etter in which he characterizes the missions Dudley Mann to the Hungarians as a vioation of the principle of non-intervention an-nounced by Gen. Taylor—protests in the name of his government againts the proceedngs of our government-and treats Mann as
