Mr. Z. S. Terr, merchapt, Byron, Genesee County, N. I. wrote, Aug. 24. B46: Brar  Medicine is doing wooden here—it has cured a man or consumption, that all the pincions had said short die. When he commenced that Brant's Medicine he could no rouse has hand to his head bled at the lungs, and every symptom seemed to indeed that he must die, but, astonishing to all, he is now able to labor and widestall over the county. labor and rides all over the county. He used only fire lot thes. I will also labor with rides all over the county. He used only fire lot thes. I will also labor you, when I visit the city of New York in the spring, what great things Brant has done for me if has also cured a young laby of Consumpton in Orlean county, which her father says no doctor could cure.

RAISED FROM THE GRAVE. Messrs, Pratt & Foster, merchants of West Cornyal Conn., called on is at New York, April 21st, 1847, and sail Brant's Believe hith effected cures of such hopeless caused Consumption in their town, that now no other couph med cine could be said there; that it had raised some and few the grave—como that: physicians and all the friends as must die. One gentleman, in particular, was so far you that his physician told him it was useless to take any condicine. He them, when hope was left, began to the Brant's Balsom when and is now as well as he survey.

Doctors could give no Help. Mr. Wm. D. Jennings, a merchant at Pierpest Critical Ashtabula co. Ohlo, wrote for us, October 2d, 1848, and us ed a cure of Consumption, which the use of Basir's is plan Pulmonanty Balsan had effected in 18r. With Crocket of an additing town. Mr. Crocket had souther lief from the beest physicians and numerous medicines at found none, for the fatal hand of that unrelening meases Consumption, bidditaken fats hold on his vitals, and we se destroying and debilitating his body that he was a new steleton. He was given up by his physician, and all friend as one who would soom bakebit a graws. But even it is last, extrapility, strange and marvellous as it may seem yet it is true, that the use of only five bottles of Brant's last An Pollmonant Balsam has unclinched the hand of the destroyer, and restored Mr. Crocket to health, and he a now a Healthy Health, Reduced Mr. The Ellings.

BLEEDING AT THE LUNGS. Mr. W. Chapman, merchant, Middlebnry, state of vermont, stated to us that his son was afflicted, with bleshy if the lungs, and taker all other remedies failed, and his pricians said he would die; for made up of Brant's Island wonary Balsara, which soon restone him to health.

SHE COULD NOT SLEEP IN BED Mr. James Ivins, a giverchant and miller of Kirkland lab Co., Ohio, wrote, Septialth, 1848, that Brant's Portoval Balasia, was effecting some astonishing cures in that vity; one case in particular, was the wife of his head my She had been diseased for forsteen years, and her hade had spent alimint all his carmings in paying; doctors as Trying all hinds joil medicines; but to no purpose.
