The Ohio Legislature fully ballotting for a United States Senator to succeed Mr. Ewing, whose term expires in March next. It is said that the chances of an election at the present session are hope less.

A PAIR OF STAMESE TWINS,-The Pittsburg Post of Friday, states that a woman living in Sharpsburg, gave birth, on Wednesday previous, to twin children, which were united together after the manner of the Siameso twins. They were at the latest accounts in a thriving condition. Re A lawyer to avenge himself on an opponent, wrote ' Rascal' in his hat. The owner of the hat took it up, looked quietly into it, and turning around to the judge exclaimed : "I claim the protection of the honorable court, for the opposing counsel has written his name in my hat, and I have strong suspicious that he intends to make off with it.

SINGULAR -A man was found in the woods on the 8th inst., near Annapolis, in a starving condition. He subsequently died, giving the sherriff the following note before his decease : Wm, Walker, State of New York, who refers death to dishonor. He dies a lingerng death, and such a one as starvation produces-being taken sick-out of money-will not disgrade the American i. e. to beg or WM. WALKER. steal.

EDITORIAL.-A noted chap once stepped into the sanctum of a venerable and highly respected editor, and indulged in a tirade against a citizen, with whom he was on bad terms .- "I wish," said he, addressing the man of the pen, "that you would write a very severe article against B_____, and put it into your paper," "Very well," was the re-ply, and after some more conversation, the visitor went away. The next morning he came rushing into the office, in a violent state of excitement-" What did you put in your paper ? I have had my nose pulled and been kicked twice." "I wrote a severe article, as you desired," calmly returned the editor. "and signed your name to it."

THE MOST ROMANTIC YET .--- A romantic. scene was enacted near Alton, Illinois, a few days ago, Miss Minerva Steely, of Macoupin connty, played a conspicuous part. It appears that the aforesaid couple having ascertained that they loved each other almost to distraction, and there being probably some objections made to the Union by parties interested at home concluded to elope and have the silken knot tied at Alton. Upon arriving there, however, after a hard drive of forty-five miles, they learned that the marriage ceremony could not be performed without first procuring a license from the county clerk at Edwardsville; to obviate which. the party consisting of the intended couple, and the Rey Wm. Mitchell of Alton, jnmped in a skiff, and were rowed over to a small bar in the river directly opposite to the city, where shortly after sunrise, surrounded by water, entirely isolated from the world and the entirely isolated from the world and the "rest of mankind," but in sight of the whole city, they solemnly plighted their troth.— They returned in a few minutes to the shore where they were welcomed with cheers by the assembled people. A Lost Max.—William Walker left the reseduce of his father in West Nantmeal reseduce of his father in West Nantmeal township, Chester County, Pa., on the 25th day of October last, and all inquiries for him have thus far proved unavailing. His intellect suffered a permanent injury from an ac-cident which cocurred in his childhood, and his supposed inability to take care of himself among strangers, gives rise to alarm on his account. He is able to make known his wants, and to answer questions, but his mental infirmity is easily noticed. He is about Baity, of the Parish of Terrebony, was caught | thirty years of age, of medium size, very round shouldered, and usually walks with his face up to the head-her body and limbs going downward. He wore away a short black sack, striped vest, blue pants and a blue cloth cap. His afflicted father, (now confined by such as combs of every kind, car spoons and tweparalysis,) would gratefully receive intelligence which any reader of this notice may have of such a person.
