The Greatest Discovery of the Age.

There has just been brought to light the application of a power which is to supersede entirely the present steam power of the world! This announcement may stagger some, but the discovery, when it shall be divulged, will stagger them a thousand times more. It has been made by an Eastern man, who has completed his models—one of which will be deposited at Washington, as soon as patent rights shall be secured in the different European countries. The muchinery is entirely perfected—the power is a motive one, and steam has no part in creating it. So simple and economical are the principles and application, that two tons of coal will be sufficient to drive the largest ship-of-the-line around the world!

We are not at liberty now to divulge more of this wonderful discovery; but we predict with the greatest confidence, that a short time only will elapse before a total revolution will take place throughout the world, in our motive power system. Indeed, we assert with the utmost confidence, that the year 1850 terminated the sovreignty of steam!

This is no chimera. We mean what we say; and time, brief in point of duration, will evolve this wonder, at present hid as with a gauze only from the public eye, to the aston-ishment of Christendom—an astonishment far greater than that produced by the discov-

Government—Curious Disclosures.

The Washington Union, among its other afflictions, one of which is being called a Free Soil press, and another is fighting the correspondents of the newspapers who do not agree in opinion with the venerable editor, has a very petty quarrel with Mr. Rives of the Globe, which is very amusing and instructive as it shows how Government organs are created, how supported, and what influences control them besides the independent opinions and conduct of the publishers and edi-

Mr. Rives Charges that the $50,000 paid by Major Heiss and Mr. Ritchie for the Globe newspaper were the funds of Government, removed from the Sub-Treasury at Philadelphia, and deposited in the Middletown (Pa.) Bank, of which the Hon. Simon Cameron was President, for the purpose of establishing a Tyler organ. That President Polk consented to its being afterwards used for purchasing the Globe, and pledging himself that the bank should not be called on to refund it for some years, and then in small instalments. Mr. Ritchie says he never knew anything of the $50,000 deposited in the Middletown Bank, and never knew Mr. Cameron to advance one cent towards the purchase of the Globe. Major Heiss never informed him even to this day where the money came from.

Mr. Rives further asserts that Mr Tyler withdrew as an independent candidate for reelection to the Presidency, on an agreement with Mr. Polk that he would turn his back on the Globe, if elected, and get up a newspaper in its stead. Mr. Ritchie states his disbelief in any such collusion, and calls on Ex-President Tyler and Mr. Cameron to clear | be paid. up the mystery which Mr. Rives has created,

THE WORLD'S FAIR.—Hotchkiss & Sage, of Windsor, Broome County, N. Y., send to the World's Fair at London Stirrup Noddle Iron for Saw Mills, and the Tram Block and Counter Bridge for Grist Mills, the invention of G. Hotchkiss of Windsor.

These inventions have been approved by the N. York State Committee and placed among the selections to go from this State. This is a deserved compliment to the ingeton Iris.

Collector Greely, of Boston, has seized the British steamer Niagara, for violation of the revenue laws. On Monday night a boat was seen going from the steamer which was boarded by an officer and found to contain silk and lace. Other light goods were found upon all to the amount of from $5,000 to $10,000.

ATA proposition is before the Legislature of Kentucky, to appropriate $5000 each year, for five years, to be employed under the direction of the Kentucky Colonization Sectety, in removing the free blacks from that State, and colonizing them in Africa.

SALE OF LONG THE FUCITIVE .- Henry Long, the fugitive slave, was sold at auction yesterday for the sum of $750; he was bought by a Georgia trader, and will be taken farther South. A large concourse of persons were present, including members of the Legislature and Convention. There was great applause at the conclusion of the sale.

The New York Homestead Exemption Law went into operation on the 1st instant. It exempts from sale on execution for debts hereafter contracted, the lot and buildings thereon, occupied as a residence owned by the debtor, being a householder and having a family, to the value of $1,000

PAINE'S LIGHT.—The Worcester Spy says that Mr. Paines received, by the last steamer from England, his letters patent which secure to him and his associates the benefit to be derived for his grand discovery by the people of Great Britain.

Hon Jesse D. Bight was re-elected to the U. S. Senate by the Legislature of Indiana on the 11th inst. He was hotly oppressed by some of his brother Locofocos, but, being nomineted in caucus, he received the full support of his party in the Legislature.

The St. Louis Daily times says, "five of the millers of that city have volunteered to present to Mr. Clay all the flour that he will need for the balance of his life at Ashland. They have made the first shipment-five barrels each.

DIED,

At Canton, Bradford co., Pa., on the evening of Nov. 18th, 1850, Charles R. Bliss, M. D., aged 27 years, of hemorrhage, occurring in the course o typhus fever. The deceased had just completed his studies and had entered with flattering prospects of use-fulness upon his professional duties. By his gen-tlemanly and christian deportment, and his affabil-ity of manners, as well as by his assiduous attentions to the sick, he was gradually gaining the con-fidence of all. Becoming associated with a physician of established reputation in this place, he bid fair to become a skillful and successful practitioner.

But how soon were his prospects blighted. On the day of his death, his symptoms were considered favorable, when the occurrence of profuse hemor-rhage terminated his life in less than two hours. He leaves a wife and child, and a large circle of relatives to mourn their loss. But what is their loss we hope is his unspendable gdin.

"MEDICAL CARD." DOCT PATRICK finds, on examining into the state of financial affairs, a necessity as he believes, for calling on those who are indebted, for a settlement; and although he disclaims any intersettlement, and although he disclaims any inter-tion of being hasty or inconsiderate, he would beg leave to suggest in the most delicate manner pos-sible to those whose accounts have been standing from three to ten years, the propriety of making some payment, before their available funds have been otherwise appropriated, or exhausted upon the various humburgs of the day.
