Foreign News. the steamship Canada we have received English dates to the 18th of January. The news is one week later than previous accounts, but is not of striking importance. The markets generally were dull, cotton having declined 1-8th to 1-4d: breadstuffs were declining somewhat and the money market was steady. ENGLAND.-A slight sensation has been created by the recent appointment, without upon with sham marriage notices,) yet as it was any previous notice of a new catholic Bishop point will be made the basis of a satisfactory ried pair be as substantial, genuine, and withal as arrangement between the Roman and English Government. The London Standard states with great confidence, that Lord John Russell firmly adheres to the principles laid down in his letter to the Bishop of Durham. The same authority also states that the Queen's speech will contain a strong expression against the late proceedings of the Pope. and that the speech will be followed by stringent legislative measures.

The screw steamer Nautilus, between Cork and London was lost on Wednesday night in a severe gale. Nine lives were lost. London is said to be rapidly filling up with every conceivable species of adventurers for the forthcoming season.

The Baltimore ship Franconia was wreeked off Holyhead on the 11th ult. The eargo of Tobacco, captain, chief mate, and 11 hands were lost.

FRANCE -- Louis Napoleon appears to have gained for the time being, a complete mastery over Gen Changarnier and the National Assembly. The committee of public safety have reported a resolution in regard to the late measures of the government and exciting debate relative thereto was going on in the Assembly at the latest dates,

The French coast has been visited with a fearful gale. Sixty merchant vessels put into the port of Cherbourg for safety.

Accounts from Rome and the Papal states represent a growing aprehension and uneasiness among all classes.

In Germany it is confidently affirmed that a central power, with a large army at its delay, at Lanesboro'.

JONATHAN TAYLOR, Adm'r.

The Rutland Herald a Vermont paner speaks thus of the election of Robert Rantoul to the U. S. Senate by the coalition of the Locos and Abolitionists in the Massachusetts Legislature:-

Robert Rantoul in the U.S. Senate! We believe he is in Minesota, where the news of his election can hardly reach him in a week. He will just have time to go to Washington and back, and receive his mileage, without performing a particle of public service. But he is used to this kind of thing. He once drew an entire year's salary as collector of this port for less than three month's service therein. According to our ideas of mortalitv, such things are no better than theft .-What are we to think of "egalition" in old Massachusetts which not merely tolerates but compels such kenvery? If the Bay State does not right herself at the next election, and shake off this incubus of deceit, treachery and scoundrelism, we are greatly mistaken in her character. The very men who ricet Mr. R. know that Le will not represent one third of the people of Massachusetts in the U. S. Senate .- Boston Mail.

THE ATLANTIC .- It was confidently expeeted that the arrival of the steamer Canada from Liverpool, would clear up the mystery relative to the fate of the steamer Atlantic. But she brings not a word to relieve the anxiety which so extensively prevails.-Nevertheless, the confidence of the owners of the missing vessel, that she is still safe, is said to be quite as strong as before, and the belief now appears to be that she had, after making about half her passage, been disabled through her machinery, and put back to a British port, or some of the Western Islands, in either of which cases, sufficient time has not clapsed for the fact to be made known here, and it cannot be ascertained till the arrival of the Africa, which will be due during the latter part of this week.

In the mcentime, we learn from the Boston Post, that a gentleman in that city, who has relatives on board the Atlantic, has offered to contribute one thousand dollars towards the immediate fitting but of a steam vessel to proceed to the Azores. Some of our revenue cutters, it is suggested, might be emplored in looking for her without detriment to the public service. - Sucsex Reg.

Face Banarag. - A writer in the Pennngivarian takes bold and solid ground in favor of a Free Banking Law, and declares it to be eminently democratic in its principles. He avers that the lack of enterprise so long complained of in Philadelphia, is to be ascribed to a want of Banking capital. He shows that while the city of New York has $27,309,090, and Boston $21,716,000, Philadelphia has only $10,518,000; and that while the whole State of New York has a banking capital of $48,250,000, and Massachusetts $38,150,000, Pennsylvania has but €18.528.000.

Whether this be democratic principle or Whig principle, it is the true principle, which will be adopted sooner or later in Pennsylvania. It is undeniably the safer system for the people, inasmuch as no bank will be permitted to issue a note until ample security is pledged to the State for redemption. The mest radical reformers could not ask for more, and the most rigid conservative could not yield less .- Wyoming Whig.

DIED

In Springville, on the 4th inst., Mr. Joseph Cooper

aged 87 years. The subject of this brief memoir was born in North Haven, New Haven county, Conn., in March 1761. Nearly 40 years of the latter part of his extence was spent in the town of Springville where e died. His habitual cheerfulness, and daily exercise of the virtues which endear, and elevate prirate life, in connection with the child-like simplicity of his manners, were worthy of imitation, and made him beloved by all who killyw him. Ho has left a widow, and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss .- Coin.
