

The Election frauds in Philadelphia County.

The legal investigation now pending and which has been progressing for several days past, before the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia county in the matter of the contested election for the district attorney, has disclosed a series of the most unblushing and disgraceful frauds ever perpetrated in connection with the ballot box in this or any other country where the ballot box is known. In this case as is well known Wm. B. Reed, Esq., the Whig candidate, contests the election of Horn R. Kneass, his Opposition competitor. It will be recalled that Mr. Kneass' plurality over Mr. Reed, as announced by the return Judges, was very small—only thirty five, we believe out of a vote of many thousands. At first it was conceded that Mr. Reed was chosen; but in one or two wards the returns were kept back for some days until it was ascertained how many votes were required to defeat Reed and elect Kneass; when the officers of the districts referred to, made their report and turned the balance in favor of the Lecofoco candidate. The investigation as far as it has transpired, discloses an utter disregard of their oaths by the officers of the election. It seems that in the 2d Ward, Moyamensing, none of the polluted districts the returns as given in, were—

|-----------------------------|-------------|
| For Horn R. Kneass, (Loco)  | 1037        |
| " William B. Reed, (Whig)   | 94          |
| " W. R. Dickerson, (Native) | 31          |
| " Peter A. Browne,          | 3           |
| Total                | 1229 |

It appeared from the tally list, as well as by the above vote, that 1223 votes were cast in the ward. The hour of closing the polls was ten o'clock, and a Mr. Wm. Landon, who testified that he voted about 20 minutes to 10 is marked 878 on the list! He stopped a few minutes, saw no body around the polls, and thought the polls had closed, before he went away. From his testimony it would appear that nearly every vote over and above 878 must have been fraudulently expressed manufactured to elect Mr. Kneass, after the result in the other wards was known.

A large number of witnesses were then called who were set down on the tally list as having voted in the ward, who testified that they were not residents of the ward and had not voted in it. In most of the cases the name and occupation was given, so that there could be no doubt that their names were fraudulently put on the list.

The result of the investigation, at the end of the first two days, may be summed up as follows, to wit:—The returns in Second Ward, Moyamensing, give Wm. B. Reed 94 votes. On the first days examination 53 persons swore positively that they voted for Wm. B. Reed. On the second day, 82 persons swore to the same effect—making in all 135 votes. Seven persons swore that they voted for him to the best of their knowledge and belief, and thirty three names were found on the tally list as having voted who did not reside in the Ward at the last election.

In the Eastern precinct of Penn District, the returns give Wm. B. Reed 26 votes. In the examination, 47 persons swore that they voted for Wm. B. Reed for District Attorney, an excess over the return of 21.

These facts account for the extraordinary delay in counting the poll and making the return at the late election, in the contested districts. The officers of the election, contrary to the spirit if not to the letter of the law being all of the Opposition party, required time to perpetrate the fraud they had evidently resolved upon in the beginning—Dead men were to be resuscitated, absent men brought home, and others who had quitted the district for years before, hunted up and compelled to resume their citizenship, and afterwards assessed and voted. This it will be admitted was a task that was not to be accomplished in a few hours. It required the agency of too many infernal spirits, and too much practice of the vile arts of legendry, to make much haste. It was a slow and groveling and tedious business; but the despicable creatures who had taken it in charge were pledged to consummate it, and they did. Three hundred votes were thus added in the second ward, Moyamensing, giving Mr. Kneass an apparent majority of 33 in the city and county.

The prosecution, we presume, has now closed its testimony. The defendant has been given till to-morrow to prepare his case; and we are really curious to see what course will be taken to meet the overwhelming evidence adduced by the contestant in support of his allegations.

A YOUNG MAN CHARGED WITH THEFT BY A CLAIRVOYANT.—A singular circumstance has recently occurred in the First Ward of this city, which has caused some considerable excitement. The facts, as near as we have been able to ascertain, are as follows:—

On Sunday night last, the store of James Campbell, in the First Ward, was entered through a hole cut in the floor over the store, and about $12 in silver taken from the drawer. The room over the store, through which the robber had entered, was occupied by a man named Joshua Warrick as a carriage shop. Mr. W. is a young man who has always sustained an unblemished reputation, and although some suspicions were entertained that he was guilty, they were not deemed of sufficient importance to warrant his arrest.

A short time afterwards a clairvoyant, named Taylor, was consulted in relation to the robbery, in the presence of a large company. The clairvoyant stated that the money was taken by a person who was then among the company assembled in the room. He refused to give the name, but described the dress and personal appearance of Mr. Warrick, and upon several of the company presenting themselves before him, he selected Mr. W. from the rest, and insisted that he was the guilty man.

The clairvoyant also stated that Mr. W.

had some of the money upon his person, and the remainder, or a portion of it, was hid in an outbuilding, describing very minutely the place where it might be found.

A search was made, and the money found in the place pointed out. Some money was also found upon the person of Mr. Warrick, being the common coin in circulation, we believe, could not be identified.

Justice Judson issued a warrant for his arrest; but there was not sufficient testimony, aside from that of the clairvoyant, to justify his committal for trial, and he was discharged.—Syracuse Standard.

Kossuth has communicated to this Government an entreaty for its interference with the Turkish Government in favor of his release. He also expresses his desire to come to the United States. Mr. Webster will reply favorably. The dispatches from Kossuth were transmitted by Dr. Frank Taylor of Pennsylvania, who has just returned from Turkey, and from a visit of three weeks to the noble Hungarian. Kossuth's residence is fixed in a miserable and sickly locality, apparently with the object on the part of the Austrian and Russian Governments, who designated it, of getting rid of him by the slow process of disease. He is 46 years of age, and much broken down in constitution, though represented as being even now a man of the noblest aspect physically and intellectually.

DIED.
In Sterling, Whiteside co. Ill, Jan. 27th, of consumption of the lungs, (preceding Typhus fever) ARTHUR LE ROY, aged nine years; youngest son of Horace R. and Mary M. Mack, formerly of Brooklyn, Pa.

Oh, early wert thou called to leave
Life's changing scenes below;
Its hopes, its fears, its smiles and tears
Thou'lt never, never know.
But hearts that loved thee long will weep
The absence of thy smile
And lift to heart that voice whose tones
Could many an hour beguile.

Thou'lt come no more—the seal of death
Lies on thy pale young brow;
Thy parents' hope and joy in thee
Lies buried with thee now.
A change hath come—the first great change
Upon that household band;
For thou with smiling face, no more
Within that circle stand.

Oh, long around that home will cling
Fond memories of thee;
As thou wert ere the hand of death
Had set his seal on thee.
Yet, mid their grief, thy brighter home
By faith they "dimly" see,
And they, amid their tears rejoice
That they can go to thee. S. L. M. F.
