

State Agricultural School.

In the report of A. L. Russell Esq. superintendent of Common Schools, presented to the Legislature, he devotes a considerable part of it to the recommendation of a plan for a State Agricultural High School...

It is generally estimated, the project embraces the union of a large model farm and a collegiate institution; the farm to consist of one thousand acres of land, the college to be adapted to the wants of five hundred students...

It is estimated that the first cost of the school would be, for land, buildings, and all the necessary equipments of all kinds, $250,000, and the gross annual expenditures, for salaries, maintenance, &c. $74,500.

DARING ROBBERY.—A valise belonging to a young Methodist preacher named John H. C. Dosh who was on his way to attend Conference containing clothing apparel, valuable manuscripts, &c., was stolen from the stage office at this place, on Thursday morning last...

NEW YORK SENATOR.—The infamy of Mr. Beckman (the recent Whig member of the State Senate from the city of New York) has been carried out. On Monday he opposed the bill fixing a day for the election of United States Senator.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.—Some of the Whig papers have proposed that it be tendered to the opposition in the counties where they have majorities, each party to nominate a candidate for Associate Judge to be elected on a joint ticket...

TWO UNKNOWN VAGRANTS.—Some of the Whig papers have proposed that it be tendered to the opposition in the counties where they have majorities, each party to nominate a candidate for Associate Judge to be elected on a joint ticket...

A FAIR HIT.—The chairman of the judiciary Committee in the New York Legislature recently introduced a resolution giving to the committee five copies of the Revised Statutes, whereupon the Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture introduced a resolution asking for that committee five plows.

SOME LITTLE EXCITEMENT was produced in Mt. Holly a few days since, by the conversion of a young Irish girl from Catholicism to Protestantism. She joined the Methodist Church, and was threatened with coercive measures by some of her Catholic friends for the act.

LOOK OUT FOR COUNTERFEITS!—On Monday night last, two Counterfeit Five Dollar Bills, on the Commercial Bank of White Hall, were passed off in this village by a stranger—one at the Store of Hyde & Kingman, and the other at the Store of E. D. & S. S. Truman.

A despatch from Honesdale on Friday last, says: The coolest piece of impudence which we have heard lately, happened last night. Three prisoners broke jail by digging a hole through the stone wall of the prison, and left a letter which stated that they were dissatisfied with their board, and had concluded to go where they could find better.
