MARRIED WITHOUT KNOWING IT!—A gentleman of Indiana is claimed by a lady in this city as her husband! Hearing of the claim of late, the gentleman made his way to this city in considerable haste to see the person who claimed him! He searched the records, and it was ascertained that the regular papers and the documents had been made out, and the marriage had taken place and that a clergyman of good standing had officiated, and the whole matter was, to all appearances a legal transaction. The lady herself states that the gentleman is the identical person she was married to! But our Hoosier neighbor denies all knowledge of the lady, and, in a card which we find in yesterday's Gazette, intimates that some person bearing strong resemblance to him, and, of course, knowing his residence, officated as his representative, got married, and in a short time after left for parts unknown!—This is the latest imposition, if imposition it be, and we doubt not that it is, that has come to light. The object of the false man is plain viz: to impose upon the lady and escape the law.—Cin. Com.

The Washington correspondent of the New-York Tribune discountenances the idea that the late charges against Daniel Webster concerning money raised for his benefit by interested parties in New York and Boston have any truth in them. He says:

There is something very spicy in the idea of Mr. Webster's setting out on a real money making speculation of any sort, a thing he never did in his life, and wouldn't know how to do. He wouldn't know how to make a dollar to save his soul except as a fee for professional services. And then he would scold his client for paying him too much.—He would have no difficulty however expending the revenues of the wealthiest monarch in christendom if he had them.

DEATH OF MRS. MYERS' HUSBAND.—Mr. William Myers, who, it will be recollected, shot a man named Hoyt, at Richmond, Va., a few years since on account of the conduct of Hoyt towards his wife, died at Richmond one day last week. Hoyt while on his death bed, protested that Mrs. Myers and himself were not guilty of any criminal intercourse. Be that as it may the public justified Myers in the shooting of Hoyt; but they condemned the manner in which it was done. Hoyt if we recollect, was fired upon while in his bed in his office. Myers afterwards obtained a divorce from his wife who was subsequently married to a young gentleman of Pennsylvania, where they now reside. Myers we are told has led somewhat of an irregular life and now he fills a grave like that to which he prematurely sent Hoyt. Let their faults die with them.—Richmond Enq.

MARRYING FOR FUN.—The New York Correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

There is a good deal of excitement in Harlem in consequence of two gentlemen and two ladies being married without their knowing it. The ceremony was performed in sport, and when informed the next day that the marriage was legal according to law, there was a great consternation. The brides I learn are willing to abide by the marriage but the bridegrooms are not, and refuse to recognize the ceremony at all. One of them is heir to a great deal of property. The subject will be brought before our courts or before the Legislature.

March 10, 185e.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I WISH to call your attention to the arrangement I have made, which is intended for your benefit as well as my own. On account of the increase in watch repairing I am unable to do it all myself, and as I intend to spend more of my time in trade. I have engaged a workman of the first in New York to spend his time with me, after about the first of April. In speaking of his capabilities I cannot say that he has worked in LIVERPOOL until his dancing days are over and is obliged to go into the country and do jobs at half price in order to get a living, but I can say that he comes recommended by the first workmen in our own country, and for his good operating I alone am responsible, so let us hear from you whenever there is occasion and you shall be satisfied to a T, if your wants are as numerous as the sands on the shore."

N. B. I shall soon be on hand with a fresh lot of goods, a description of which you shall have in due time. WM. W. TRUE.
