

VILLAINY.—The Cairo Sun says that a few days since, two men in a wagon, when within a couple of miles of Jonesboro, Union county, Illinois, asked a farmer who was the heaviest merchant in that town. The farmer mentioned some merchants, and among the number spoke of a Mr. Dishon. They drove their wagon over to Dishon's store and requested him to permit them to place a box (which they had in their wagon) in his store for the night. After urging some objection, Mr. D. finally consented to take the box in his store room. The men then put up their horses for the night, and early on the following day had their wagon at D.'s store door to get their box and start on their journey. Mr. D. missed a box of fine broadcloth from his counter. His suspicion being roused, he examined his desk, and discovered that five hundred dollars had been stolen during the night. He told the men that the box must not be taken away from the store until it was examined. They swore that they would take their box, and as they rushed to take hold of it, Mr. D. stepped out of the door, and locked them in. Having obtained assistance, the door was opened and the men taken. The lid was knocked off, when a stout, daring looking man sprang forth, and the missing cloth, money, some silks, and a dark lantern, were found in the bottom. The fellow pretended to turn "State's evidence," and declared he had long sought an opportunity to leave the other men; that he had left them voluntarily, would have brought their deadly vengeance upon him; that he had never been detected before; that he remained with them only because he was compelled to do so to preserve his life; that there were now six hundred men in the United States engaged in the same business; and that the last time he was at the general money deposit station the company had over fifteen bushels of silver and gold. He would not be put in the same room with two accomplices, fearing they would kill him. The two men swore to the officers that it was folly to put them in jail, for they had money and friends; it would take at least one hundred well armed men to guard them, and notified them that they could not possibly be detained three weeks. —New Albany Ledger.

SLAVES EFFORT TO ESCAPE.—We clip the following from the Georgetown, S. C. Republican of the 23d:—A negro named Toney, belonging to Mr. John R. Jayne on Black River, attempted on Monday last to take a French leech in his own hand, with a view to join his brethren in abolition Boston. This negro secreted himself on board the schooner Irine, Captain Ross, bound to Boston with a cargo of lumber; but on account of the prevalence of adverse winds, could not proceed to sea without first passing a night or so at near the bar. The first night Toney having supplied himself with a small bucket full for the voyage, fell unconsciously into a deep sleep, and the loud snoring consequent thereupon, aroused a suspicion that all was not right on board. The captain immediately instituted a search which resulted in his discovery.

A Great National Picture! WASHINGTON! From Stuart's Celebrated Painting! THIS large and magnificent FLEXIBLE LITHO PICTURE of WASHINGTON, from the bust of an American artist, is considered by all who have seen it to be one of the most beautiful specimens of art ever published, and a correct likeness of Washington. The size of the plate is eighteen by twenty inches, which will make a hand-size picture for the parlor, and should be in the house of every American citizen. It is a correct copy from Stuart's celebrated original Painting, now at the State House, Hartford, Connecticut. It is finely engraved and printed on superior plate paper. That it may be within the means of all, the publisher has reduced the price to ONE DOLLAR. All persons remitting the amount may rely upon receiving a perfect copy by return of mail on any part of the United States, (carefully put up on rollers made for the purpose,) free of postage. Address orders (post paid) to the publisher, JOHN S. TAYLOR, Bookseller and publisher, 143 Nassau st., New York.

CASH PAID for Slaughter Hides, delivered at Foster's Tannery. LYONS & CHANDLER. Montrose, December 24, 1850.

Ladies and Gentlemen: I WISH to call your attention to the arrangement I have made, which is intended for your benefit as well as my own. On account of the incense in watch repairing I am unable to do it all myself, and as I intend to spend more of my time in trade, I have engaged a workman of the first in New York to spend his time with me; after about the first of April. In speaking of his capabilities I cannot say that he has worked in Liverpool until his dancing days are over and is obliged to go into the country and do jobs at half price in order to get a living, but I can say that he comes recommended by the first workmen in our own country, and for his good operating I alone am responsible, so let us hear from you whenever there is occasion and you shall be satisfied to a T, if your wants are as numerous as the sands on the shore. N. B. I shall soon be on hand with a fresh lot of goods, a description of which you shall have in due time. Wm. W. TRUE. Montrose, March 10, 1851. 111-w
