HEAR YE! HEAR YE! HEAR YE!
HERE WE ARE.

THE undersigned having fully recovered his health, the loss of which has disabled him to do business for the last four months, is again on hand with a new stock of goods bought at unusually low prices, which he offers to sell in the same way. I cannot enumerate my goods except that I think I have everything suitable to keep in a fancy store. I have the largest lot of Fluid Lamps ever brought to market, short of the city, also Perfumes, high and low, good and poor, for the handkerchiefs, hands, face, etc., cloths of different kinds, Jewels and Watches in endless variety. Fine Tackling, all kinds of Brushes, Vase Works, Violins, Toys, &c. Also, a very large assortment of A. Hagley's celebrated Gold Pens and Holders, the best in use.
Watch Repairing in all its "minute automata mechanism," performed as cheap as the cheapest and as good as the best.
Montrose, June 4. WM. W. TRUVE.
Occupies part of the Confectionery Store, Temple.

BABBITT'S SALESTATUS, a pure article, in Babbitt's Compound, for raising bread and cakes without yeast. Also,
Soap Powder, by the use of which much of the labor of washing is saved, and no injury done to the clothes.—Inseparable by ABEL TURRELL.

Administrators Notice.
NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested in the estate of JOSEPH REED, late of Bridgewater, dec'd, that immediate payment must be made to the subscribers, and all persons having claims against said estate to present them, duly attested, for settlement.

CABINET SHOP.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.
William A. Smith & Co.

WE have now completed their arrangements for manufacturing and keeping constantly on hand all kinds of Household Furniture, manufactured out of the best quality of Mahogany, Black Walnut, Maple, Cherry, and other lumber, and in the best and most durable manner. Among the articles which they intend to keep on hand, or make to order, are Mahogany, Black Walnut, Cherry and Maple Bureaus, Side Boards, Secretaries, Book Cases, Centre, Card, Pier, and other Tables; Stands of every variety; Sofas, and Settees, Divans, Ottomans, &c.; Bedsteads of all kinds and varieties; Beds of Mahogany, Black Walnut, Cherry and Maple. Also, Mahogany, Black Walnut, Cherry and Maple CHAIRS of every variety and description, which they have now on hand, and intend to keep a constant supply. Any article desired will be supplied on a few days' notice.

As the subscribers have often been afflicted to enlarge their business and to open an establishment of the kind in Montrose, which could supply every variety of Household Furniture, and save the trouble of sending to the Cities for such articles, they hope to meet with liberal patronage and encouragement.

WILLIAM SMITH, ALEXANDER SMITH,
E. R. SMITH, R. A. SMITH,
Montrose, June 5, 1851.

NOTICE.
IS hereby given to the Stock holders in the Montrose and Hartford Plank Road Company that an additional instalment of Five Dollars on each share of Stock subscribed will be required on the 15th day of June next.

MEDICAL NOTICE.
DOCTOR THAYER takes this method of informing his numerous friends that he has succeeded in obtaining the services of Dr. T. J. Wheaton, a well read Eclectic Physician, to assist him in his profession, and consequently he will no longer be under the painful necessity of sending so many of his customers away to seek poison for their maladies.
He hopes that those owing him on old accounts will see the necessity of helping him while now he is unable to practice.

Public Vendee of Real Estate.
THE subscriber having caught the western fever, he will sell his House and Lot at Public Sale on Saturday the 6th day of September next, between his residence, pleasantly situated at Dinko & Co's, Susquehanna county Pa., containing two acres, together with a framed House, framed Barn and Blacksmith shop thereon, fifteen-acre new. There is also an excellent well of water within a few feet of the door. There is also on the premises a good lot of fruit trees, such as Apples, Peaches, Pears, Plums, Cherries and Mulberries, &c. The said lot lies within six miles of Montrose in the county seat of Susquehanna Co., and in a rich and populous section of country, surrounded with conveniences for every kind. A good chance for a first rate wagon or Harness maker as there is facilities in the place. For any one wanting a good location to carry on either of the above branches of business this would be a desirable place. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock P. M.
Terms.—One fourth of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale and the rest in four equal annual payments. WILLIAM H. BEDELL,
Dumock, Sus. Co., Pa. May 3, 1851.

A CARD.
THE subscriber would inform the public that he is now putting up in the old brick of S. S. Mifflin such of his stock as he has been enabled to save from the destructive fire, where he will be happy to wait on his friends and customers. His stock of Clothing was principally saved without material damage—a portion of his Hats and Caps—a tolerable assortment of Boots and Shoes, as also Tools and Stationery, &c. He intends making his assortment complete in the various branches of his business as soon as circumstances will permit; and he takes this occasion to tender his acknowledgments to those through whose kind aid so much was saved which otherwise must have been lost.
Those indebted to the subscriber will now see the necessity of paying as he is under making immediate collection, and he pledges the hope that they will step forward promptly to discharge such indebtedness. GEO. FULLER,
Montrose, May 7, 1851.
