American Repertory of Inventions.

To Mechanics, Inventors, and Manufacturers—Seventh Volume of the Scientific American.

MESSRS. MUNN & CO. American and Foreign Patent Agents, and publishers of the Scientific American, respectfully announce to the publicthat the first number of Volume VII. of this widely circulated and valuable journal will issue on the 30th of September. The new volume will commence with new type, printed upon paper of heavier texture than that used in the preceding volumes. It is the intention of the publishers to illustrate it more fully, by introducing representations of prominent events connected with the advancement of science; besides furnishing the usual amount of engravings of new inventions. It is published weekly in form for binding, and affords at the end of the year a splendid volume of over four hundred pages, with a copious index, and from five to six hundred engravings, together with a vast amount of practical information concerning the progress of invention and discovery throughout the world. There is no subject of importance to the mechanic, inventor, manufacturer and general reader which is not treated in the most able manner; the editors, contributers and correspondents being men of the highest attainments. It is in fact the leading scientific journal of the country.

The inventor will find in it a weekly list of American Patent Claims, reported from the Patent Office, an original feature not found in any other weekly publication.

ÆTNA INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF UTICA, N. Y.

E. H. HOTCHKISS, Agent for the above Company, now offers to insure both real and personal property for the citizens of Susquehanna County against loss or damage by Fire, on as favorable terms, and with as entire safety to the assured as can be effected by them in any other responsible Company whatever. I have obtained a License and am prepared to insure Farmers and others having unexposed risks, at such rates as render it morally certain that I will monopolize the business of the county if those having property to insure will stop to "count the cost." We insure all kinds of property, charging for each a fair proportionate rate for the risk run, and when losses happen, pay promptly. It is useless to insure in mutual companies that charge little or nothing for their policies. When you meet with a loss the pay is of the "same sort," and all the insured gets for his pains is a good bleeding in the form of assessments to pay the "losses and expenses" of the company in contesting his claim.

N. B.—We hold ourselves responsible for losses and damages by lightning, which is not done by most companies.

Lever, Watch, and minute Automatic Mechanism.

J. A. SINGLETON (Pupil of Litherland the Patentee, and late with R. Roskell, Liverpool,) Chronometer, and Patent Lever Watch Manufacturer.

In compliance with numerous influential and earnest solicitations to remain in Montrose, I have consented on condition that I meet with that encouragement and approval which it shall be my constant study and interest to merit.

In addition to the Manufacturing Department, J. A. S. undertakes effectually to repair every description of Geneva Musical Tableux, Repeating and other Watches, together with Automata Mechanism, however complex. The disagreeable jarring so prevalent in spiral music and so justly complained of, thoroughly eradicated, more particularly so in Musical Boxes.

It must be admitted that, in connection with, and in addition to theoretical knowledge, or a speculative acquaintance, it is indispensibly requisite the artizan should be practically familiar with the complex nature of that delicately minute description of machinery referred to. This qualification, and this only, renders the artist competent to accomplish with mathematical accuracy.

If upwards of forty years' assiduous and practical perseverance in the construction of various approved escapements for the more accurate means of measuring Time, in conjunction with unique specimens of Automata now in his possession, together with the high patronage enjoyed, preponderates in the scale of scientific approbation, then J. A. S. unostentatiously presumes he has some pretensions to the confidence of those honoring him with the recommends.

The British Periodicals, and the Farmer's Guide.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO., No. 54 Gold street New York, Continue to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have nearly completed the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the "Farmer's Guide to Scientific and Practical Agriculture," By HENRY STEPHENS, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c., assisted by JOHN P. NORTON, M. A. New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 300 engravings on wood, in the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, etc., etc., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The work is being published in semi-monthly Numbers of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published, are as follows, viz:

The London Quarterly Review (Conservative),
The Edinburgh Review (Whig),
The North British Review (Free Church),
The Westminsters Review (Liberal),
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is at this time unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel" (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS—Three Dollars a year, or 6¼ cents a No.

CONTENTS—Choice miscellaneous selections from the current leterature of this country and of Europe—comprising historical and other tales and romances, of high literary character; biographies, essays, anecdotes, reviews, poetry, criticisms, etc.

The best articles will be selected from all the publications, which sustain the highest character for literature, humor and wit among the periodicals of Europe.

Our object in issuing weekly is, that our readers may receive the choicest selections from current literature at short intervals, in a form elegant and better adapted to preservation than that of a newspaper. A. PALMER & CO., Publishers, Appleton's Mechanic's Magazine, & Engineer's Journal.

THE design of the Publishers in issuing this work, is to spread before the friends of science, and the Mechanics, Engineers and artisan's of the United States, all the treasures of mechanical science that can be found in this, or any foreign country. The services of eminent scientific and practical men have been engaged as contributors to it, and efforts will not be spared to enlist all who are interested in the extension of scientific principles.

The works of the most distinguished writers in this department of knowledge, which have hitherto been as sealed to our engineers and mechanics, will be placed at the service of the Editor; and especially all the Scientific Journals of any value, which are published in Europe. Many of these works and ournals are rich in matters of the highest interest to all who are engaged in the various branches of mechanics. At the same time these are often voluminous and expensive, and contain much that is merely of passing interest, and thus are, very generally, placed beyond the reach of the great mass of those who should be familiar with their contents. The results of foreign workshops, likewise, are too little known, and less appreciated by us, whilst it is often in these places that most important facts are developed. It is our object to remedy these evils, and to place this valuable information within the reach of every one who has a desire to obtain it.

The editorial responsibility of the Magazine is confided to Julius W. Adams Esq., C. E., a gentleman of extensive scientific attainments and practical discrimination, and who has been professionally engaged for the last twenty years in the mechanical, and in their kindred, pursuits.

Terms.

Three Dollars a Year, or Twenty-Five Cents a Number. The Magazine can be obtained of Booksellers and Periodical Agents, and of the Publishers; and liberal arrangements will be made with the Trade and with Agents for circulating the work, and specimen numbers will be supplied to canvassers without charge.

A Chemical Compound similar to the Natural Oil of the Hair,

The Spanish Hair Gloss.

A CLEAN, WHITE, AND BEAUTIFUL PREPARATION for promoting the growth, luxuriance and beauty of the Hair—removing dandruff, scales and scurf, and curing the cutaneous diseases of the scalp—unequalled for keeping the hair moist, imparting to it a rich, silky softness and highly beautiful lustre. Its soothing and agreeable properties will be found remarkable, applied either to the head or irritations of the skin. It is unlike any of the alcoholic and oil preparations so commonly used for the hair. Its superiority over all Hair preparations consists in its properties being moistening and cooling, instead of drying and heating as the alcoholic preparations are; and being free of the greasy qualities of marrow, oils, &c. Its power to remove the glutinous coating which obstructs the pores of the skin when unhealthy, and which prevent the follicles from exuding an oily substance necessary to the natural moisture, beauty and growth of the hair, is unequalled.

One free application of the Hair Gloss will impart a more lasting beauty and moisture to the hair than a whole bottle of the alcoholic preparations usually sold; besides, it will not soil the finest linen. Persons whose hair is slightly gray, will find this article to make their hair darker, and render the gray hairs scarcely perceptible. Mothers will find this preparation the best they can use to dress children's hair, keeping it in place, giving it a most beautiful lustre, and causing it to grow luxuriantly. If any preparation of art can cause the hair to grow, the Spanish Hair Gloss will do it.

Very liberal discounts made to Druggists and those who buy by wholesale. Address C. P. Fay, Owego, N. Y. Price 25 cents per bottle.
