

The Susquehanna Register.

JOHN C. MILLER, EDITOR. MONTROSE, PENN'A.

Thursday Morning, Nov. 6, 1851.

New York Election.

Table showing election results for New York, listing candidates and their respective vote counts for various districts.

The Whigs have elected 8 members of Assembly—Democrats 7, so far as heard from.

The Result and its causes—Judge Campbell's connection with it.

We last week stated our firm belief that Bigler would not have been elected without the aid which Campbell's nomination upon the State ticket brought to him.

Dr. HUTCHINGS and his Dyspepsia Ditters.—It is very seldom, and only after being thoroughly convinced of the propriety of so doing, that we call particular attention to an advertised medicine.

ITEMS.

We learn that a coal train was thrown from the track of the L. & W. Railroad on Saturday last, near New Milford, in consequence of running over a tree which had been felled across the track.

Mr. Buchanan declared from the stump everywhere, and so did his satellites, that Judge Campbell was persecuted because he was a Roman Catholic.

Under the head of "Things to be avoided," the Register, American asks for a substitute for open and ink.

most solidly polled for Col. Bigler, who was the head and front of the Campbell ticket.

The Free North.

The following are the gains of Gov. Johnston over his vote of 1848, in the four line counties, where there were no extraneous influences at work:

Table showing gains of Gov. Johnston in four line counties: Bradford 469, Susquehanna 138, Tioga 285, Potter 429.

Pennsylvania Judiciary.

We append a list of the judicial districts of this State, with the names of the President Judges elected in them at the recent election.

- 1st. District, Philadelphia—Oswald Thompson, Whig. 2nd. Lancaster—Henry G. Long, W. 3rd. Northampton and Lehigh—Washington McCarty, Dem.

North Branch Canal.

The work of completing this Canal, which has been prosecuted under Gov. Johnston's administration, has been stopped by the Canal Commissioners.

Letter from Gen. Scott.

The New York Times state that some few months since, a gentleman of Pennsylvania, at the request of eight members of the State Senate wrote a letter to Gen. Winfield Scott, addressing him as the next President.

obsolete. It may be, and at times is, Tariff in Pennsylvania, Free Trade in Virginia, River and Harbor Improvements in the West, and a strict construction and opposition to all all improvements in the South.
