Marriages.

Married Dec. 22, 1852, by Rev. H. A. Riley, Mr. NORMAN RUFUS ROSE, of Lathrop, and Miss ELECTA BUCK, of Bridgewater.

Married by W. T. Case Esq., on Christmas evening, the 25th ult., Mr. ALBERT CAPERING, to Miss EMELINE TICKNER, all of Gibson.

Married at the Mansion House in Great Bend, on Tuesday Dec. 28th 1852, by the Rev. J. B. McCreary, Mr. WALTER R. PAGE, of Vermont, to Miss MARY JANE OAKLEY, of Brooklyn Susq., Co., Pa.

Deaths.

In Rush on the 25, ult., MARY S. ROBERTSON, wife of David Patterson, in the 35th year of her age.

Mrs. P. made profession of religion in early life, and united with the Presbyterian church, of which she remained a consistent member, until the time of her death. Ever ready to sacrifice her ease for the comfort of others, and by her amiable and obliging deportment, she endeared herself to a large circle of friends who deeply deplore her untimely departure. Two interesting children, one about three years, and the other nine days old, are bereft of a fond and affectionate mother, by this afflicting dispensation of Divine Providence; but their loss we trust is her unspeakable gain.

TO DELINQUENTS.

I have waited now a year and a half since I closed my labors in the Register printing establishment, for many of those in arrears from 50 cents to five or ten dollars, to settle up, so that I can pay my debts. According to the terms I am entitled to $2 50 per year for all subscriptions so long due; and having given several very polite hints that I wanted my pay heretofore, without much effect, I must now respectfully inform those who do not pay me by or during the ensuing Court weeks, that for the benefit of those I owe, a more prompt collector, but not half so polite as I am, will have to call on them—greeting. J. W. CHAPMAN.

Montrose, Jan. 3, 1853.

Friends and Patrons.

YOU who have so kindly cared for my interests during the past year, as well as in previous years—please accept the hearty greetings and kind good wishes of the Artist at the commencement of this, the

"HAPPY NEW YEAR,"

Happy, happy may you be
In Eighteen hundred fifty three.

May the sunlight of prosperity shine o'er your future, and the likeness of every virture be daguerreotyped on the tablet of your hearts; May the lights and shades of your existence be blended in delightful harmony, and peace and plenty dwell throughout your borders. May your lives be polished with noble acts, and gilded with high attainments. Thus, will your position in society be elevated, and your case become an envied one. Thus, when your course is finished will you leave behind you an impression for good, bold, and unfading.

This year, like those of the past, will be one of business and pleasure; and I trust that amid the tumults and anxieties of the one, and the attractive influences of the other the claims of my beautiful Art will be remembered.

I grateful for the many expressions and tokens of approbation which I have received from those for whom it has been my pleasure to labor.

My Rooms are still at "Odd Fellows' Hall," where I hope during the coming year to see, not only my old friends, but a great many new ones; and,

If I don't serve you with taste and skill,
It will not be for want of the will.

I profess to "beat" no one—but, ever staying to please my customers with good pictures, I have the confidence to believe that my efforts will not be altogether in vain.

Truly yours, in the Daguerreotype Art,

W. B. DEANS.

Philosophy of saving the Teeth.

IT is simply this: We first carefully and thoroughly remove all the decayed matter from the cavity, then after shaping it properly and wiping it dry, we press into it gold or silver foil which are very soft and malleable, and continue to compress them until we have rendered them as hard as the solid metal. We thus completely exclude both air and moisture, the universal agents of decay, and the consequence is that the tooth decays no more in that part, and rarely does it ever commence in any other part, but, should it, the cure must be repeated, and I have seldom seen an instance where it had to be repeated a third time, or even a second. If your teeth are decaying your only hope is in the Dentist. They may be affected and you not know it. A tooth usually decays a long time before it aches and persons are very apt to suppose them "all right" so long as they keep quiet. The fact that they have not "troubled you" is the very reason why you should have them attended to before they do. One fact more: when a tooth has become painful, you are "behind time" in going to get it filled, "the cars are off," you must groan and lose it.

Thus, courteous reader, I have given you both fact and Philosophy, if not with the profoundness of a Newton, yet truthfully, you may depend, with the hope of inducing you to call on me at "Odd Fellows' Hall" and submit your teeth to examination and repair, if needed. By so doing you may promote both your own interest and mine.

Yours emphatically and Professionally,

C. D. VIRGIL, Dental Surgeon.
