On the Death of William.

BY RALPH.

The sweetest lay that mortal sung
To woo thee from a world of toil;
Not love, for wisdom could restrain
Thy spirit in its mortal coil:
"Come, William," pealed the choir sublime,
"Come from the dreary haunts of time."

And he among you brighter spheres,
Thy gentlest spirit wanders now;
The flowers of mortal years
Are withered on thy radiant brow;
And hoftier visions beck thee high
The soul-dazzling chambers of the sky.

Penna. Locofocos and Pennsylvania's Honor.

Wm. F. Packer has introduced a bill into the Senate for the repeal of the 4th and 6th sections of the Anti-kidnapping Law of 1847. The 6th Section is that which prohibits the use of the jails of the Commonwealth for the detention of fugitive Slaves, and the 4th Section is as follows:

"That if any person or persons claiming any negro or mulatto, as a fugitive from servitude or labor, shall, under pretence of authority whatsoever, violently and tumultuously seize upon and carry away to any place, or attempt to seize and carry away in a riotous, violent, tumultuous and unreasonable manner, and so as to disturb or endanger the public peace, any negro or mulatto within this Commonwealth, either with or without the intention of taking such negro or mulatto before any district or circuit Judge, the person or persons so offending against the peace of this Commonwealth shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on Conviction thereof before any Court of Quarter Sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be sentenced by such Court to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars with costs of prosecution; and, further, to be confined in the county jail for any period, at the discretion of the Court, not exceeding three months."

The object of this provision is evident. It was to provide for the punishment of the Kidnapper who disturbed the public peace, whilst in the pursuit of his nefarious projects. The repeal of this provision will of course go far towards legalizing kidnapping by removing the fine and imprisonment, which are the proper reward of the man-stealer.

We are prepared to hear of the repeal of this section. James Buchanan has the locofoco party of this State under his control. To secure his nomination to the Presidency, he knows that Southern support is necessary. To secure that Southern support he recommends that Pennsylvania shall surrender her independence as a State, make herself the scorn of her sisters in the confederacy, and make her broad fields the scene of continued, unauthorized and illegal forays, to the annoyance and danger of her citizens. To this end, the kidnapper, Alberti, has been pardoned, and released from the Penitentiary. McCreary the kidnapper, has not been demanded of Maryland for trial. No steps have been taken to arrest the poisoners of Joseph C. Miller.—And now all those laws are to be repealed which served to protect free citizens of Pennsylvania from the force and violence of reckless violators of the most sacred of all rights—that of personal liberty! Let locofocoism go on. Its career was commenced in shamelessnes. It will end in dark disgrace.—Ind., Whig.

Honorable Ruffianism.

Another blot was added to the escutcheon of Congress on the 12th inst., by the disgraceful blackguardism and fight between two Mississippi members of the House. Of the course either House should pursue in relation to such offenders against legislative dignity, personal decency and national honour, we have but one opinion, and that is, that they should be expelled instanter. No session of Congress was ever so disgraced as the present has been, yet no reproof, of any kind, has been administered. The programme began with Senator Borland breaking Mr. Kennedy's nose, and has been continued by the Billingsgate fight between Senators Rhett and Clemens, the assault of Stockton on Seward, and Stanley and Giddings, closes, thus far, with the brutal set-to in the House yesterday. The Senate, it will be seen, has taken the lead in rowdyism, having had three fights and brawls to two in the House.

If Congress only, were concerned, we should care little if every belligerent in both houses had his head knocked off, but Congress, in some respects unfortunately, represents the country, and the disgrace of its blackguardism and brutality falls upon the whole people. The American name goes abroad in the light of these disgraceful scenes, to the world, stained with the reputation of unmitigated ruffianism. The purlieus of the Five Points, and the bullies' ring, can scarcely match the exhibitions in our National Capitol. It is a foul shame, and no cowardly, cringing apology, after the disgrace is done, should be received as atonement. Let the fixed rule be expulsion for every such offence, and Congress would soon be purged of rowdyism.

It is not enough that members are kept from fighting duels. The country would suffer far less if half the members were to go out quietly and shoot one another, and have done with it. There might be a few mourners somewhere, but the people at large would not be disgraced. Pious Senators who sheath their swords in the Bible and ward off bullets with religious scruples, should have, or be made to have, the moral decency to put the lock of civility on their tongues. It is the tongues and fists of Honorables, that disgrace the country most—not pistol shots and sword thrusts. We trust the House will not let this last fight go by without setting some striking example of rebuke, and the expulsion of both parties to it, would be the true and righteous example.—Evening Mirror.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—The votes according to the returns at this office stand as follows: For Governor, Martin, 26,329. Sawyer, Whig, 18,534. Atwood, Free Soil, and Scattering, 3,495. The above towns last year gave for Dinsmore, 24,305. Sawyer, 1,705. Atwood, and scattering 11,033.

Martin's majority is 289. The majority against Dinsmore last year was 22,732, showing a Democratic net gain of 4,021.

The towns to hear from, which cast about 5,000 votes, gave Dinsmore a majority of 471,—if they are the same now, gains in these towns, as he has in the rest of the State, his majority will be about 1200.

We have heard of the election of 250 Representatives,—120 democrats, and 121 opposition. The towns to be heard from stood last year, 25 democrats, 16 opposition, and 2 no choice. If these come in as before, the Democratic majority in the House will be 17.

Whig Candidate for Canal Commissioner.

Upon the Whig State Convention which will assemble at Harrisburg on the 25th of March, will devolve the duty of nominating a candidate for Canal Commissioner. In making a selection, two considerations ought to actuate the convention—fitness and availability.—Prominent amongst the candidates named for the nomination is JACOB HOFFMAN, Esq., of Berks county, in whom, we think these two essential requisites are eminently combined. He possesses the ability and qualifications necessary for the post, is a man of untiring energy, and very popular in his own county. A few years ago he ran in Berks county for the Legislature, and came within about four hundred votes of being elected; and last fall a year ago he ran against Mr. Muhlenberg for Senator and reduced his majority about fifteen hundred votes. And this in the citadel of Democracy! We have no doubt he would keep the majority in Berks down to a smaller figure than any other Whig candidate we could nominate.

The nomination of Mr. Hoffman is urged by the Reading Journal, warmly seconded by the Lebanon Courier, Harrisburg Telegraph and other Whig Journals, and the Bedford Inquiror says:—"We feel no hesitation in expressing our decided preference for Jacob Hoffman, Esq., of Reading. The Lebanon Courier says "he is a whole-souled Whig, active and energetic, a fine public speaker, and known throughout the State as one who would fathom and expose the corruptions of the Canal Board, we think his election would be almost certain.—Harrisburg Am.
