Four days later from Europe—Arrival of the Pacific.

The steamship Pacific arrived on Sunday afternoon after an unusually quick passage for the season,—her intelligence is to the 9th March, four days later than previous advices.

The re-elections of the new ministers have hitherto proceeded without opposition, and it is expected that the elections in prospect will be attended with the same results.

A great review is to take place in the Champ de Mars on the 20th, which is looked forward to with more than ordinary interests, as it is expected to produce a demonstration in favor of the establishment of the Empire even stronger than at the famous reviews at Satory. The heir of the Emperor has fixed upon that day to review the troops, and to present the different regiments with the eagles which he has recently restored. It is thought possible—some say it is hoped—that the troops, in gratitude for the gift of the eagles, will confer on the nephew of the Emperor the imperial crown, which he claims as his undoubted right.

The decrees of confiscation of the Orleans property are meeting with opposition which could hardly be expected.—It appears that they have given great offence to some members of the Bonaparte family, who have some real or imaginary claims upon that property. Among others the family of Joaquim Murat, King of Naples, claims the palaces of the Elysee and Neuilly, which they say their father purchased from his own private resources. The Countess Popoli, a daughter of the ex-King of Naples, and sister of the present Prince Lucien Murat, has just arrived in Paris, for the purpose of enforcing her claims.

The Presse mentions that several Swiss officers of the staff who were in Paris have received orders from their government to return home immediately. The Independence, of Berne, announces that the difficulties between the French Government and the Swiss Confederation have been arranged for the present.

A telegraphic despatch, dated Verona, midnight, the 1st of March, announces the arrival of the Emperor in that city in perfect health.

It is asserted in Vienna that this Government will do all in its power to induce Louis Napoleon not to violate the Swiss territory, but I am strongly inclined to believe that Austria would be but too willing to lend him a helping haud in crushing the little Republic.

The Austrian papers amuse their readers with the most contradictory reports respecting the representative of the United States. According to one paper, Mr. McCurdy has received his passports," according to another, "the Charge d'Affaires from the United States has not been requested to leave Vienna." The truth is, that the gentleman in question is quietly awaiting the result of the Chevalier Hulseman's violent "flare up" at Washington.

Letters have just arrived from St. Petersburg at the Royal Geographical Society, to the President Sir Roderick Murchison, through the Foreign Office, conveying the information that the Emperor had sent orders to all the Russian authorities on the east coast of Siberia, and on the north-west coast of America, to afford Capt. Beatson and his expedition every assistance in their power.

A Turkish military column, consisting of about 10,000 men, with four guns, has occupied the Banjaluka (the Austrians were defeated by the Turks here in 1737) district and disarmed the Rayahs. Six battalions under the command of a Pasha are expected at Rihacs. A strong detachment of cavalry has occupied Novi. Every large town is garrisoned. It appears that a widely spread conspiracy, the object of which was to overthrow the Government, has been brought to light.

Deaths.

At Sugar Grove, Ill., Feb. 23, DORSA JANE, only daughter of George L. and Jane D. Catlin, aged 3 years 5 months and 19 days.

In Franklin, March 13th, after a short illness, ELLA PHEBE S. daughter of Charles and Susan Gunn, aged 14 years, 6 months, and 10 days.

By the dispensation of God's Providence, we are called upon to mourn the loss of one who, by her gentle disposition and winning manners, had won herself a large circle of friends. Her loss is deeply lamented, not only by her bereaved parents, but by all her numerous associates.

None knew her but to love her,
None named her but to praise.

As soon as she became conscious that exhausted nature could hold out but a short time longer, she called her parents to her bedside, and bidding them farewell, wished them to prepare to meet her in Heaven, where parting would be known no more.

When disease obstructs the laboring breath,
The heart sickens and each pulse is death;
Then youth and all its beauty fades,
And both in the silent grave are laid. [COM.

In Brooklyn, on the 9th March, 1852, STEPHEN BREED, aged 66 years.

Mr. Breed was a native of Stonington, Conn. from which place he removed to Brooklyn in 1812. He then selected for his home the farm on which he has since always resided; and where prosperity rewarded the privations and toils incident to the settlement of this region. As a member of the community, he was much respected. In 1818 he united, on profession of his Faith, with the Presbyterian Church, and was soon after constituted an Elder. The value of his profession was attested by a life of uniform consistency in the performance of its duties.

Mr. B. was extensively known as the keeper of a Public House. Early in the Temperance Reformation he adopted its principles; and to the time of his decease kept a Temperance House, where travellers found a home at which good order greeted and comfort awaited them.—[COM.

PROSPECTUS OF THE AMERICAN WHIG REVIEW.

IN the original Prospectus of the American Review, issued at Washington by Mr. Colton, its former Proprietor and Editor, a number of the leading Whig Members of the Twenty-seventh Congress (1845–6) subscribed their names to the following resolution:—

"Earnestly approving the plan of such a National organ, long needed and of manifest importance, the undersigned agree to contribute for its pages, from time to time, such communications as may be necessary to set forth and defend the doctrines held by the United Whig Party of the Union. Signed by Geo. P. Marsh, Daniel D. Barnard, J. McPherson Berrien, J. R. Ingersoll, R. Joy Morris, T. L. Clingman, Daniel Webster, R. C. Winthrop, Thomas Butler King, Hamilton Fish, J. P. Kennedy, J. Collamer, Wm. S. Archer, Rufus Choate, Alexander H. Stephens."

An engraved portrait of some distinguished person will be found in every number of the Review. These will usually be portraits of living American Statesmen, and whenever that is possible, will be accompanied with an authentic Memoir of the person represented.

The first objects of the Review are of course political; it is designed to set forth and defend the principles, the measures, and the men of the UNITED WHIG PARTY of the Union. It has been a matter of just reproach to that Party, that though it embraces in the proportion of the intelligence and learning of the country, it has had no Quarterly or Monthly Organ devoted to the expression and defence of its opinions and measures. The conductors of the American Review have done what in them lies to remove this reproach, by securing contributions from sources of ability and truth.

The literary department of the Review will agree inspirit with the political.

TERMS.—$5 a year, in advance.

The Great British Quarterlies and Blackwood's Magazine.

Important reduction in the rates of postage.

Leonard Scott & Co.

NO. 54 GOLD ST. NEW YORK.

CONTINUE to publish the following British Periodicals, viz:

The London Quarterly Review (Conservative.)
The Edinburg Review (Whig.)
The North British Review (Free Church.)
The Westminster Review (Liberal,) and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (tory)

These reprints have now been in successful operation in this country, for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class, and from numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons," and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer,) "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of those fascinating tales.

TERMS PER ANNUM.

For any one of the four Reviews,	$3 00
For any two of the four Reviews,	5 00
For any three of the four Reviews,	7 00
For all four of the Reviews,	8 00
For Blackwood's Magazine,	3 00
For Blackwood and three Reviews,	9 00
For Blackwood and the four Reviews,	10 00

Payments to be made in all cases in advance. Money current in the State where issued will be received at par.

CLUBBING.

A discount of 25 per cent. from the above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering four or more copies of any one or more of the above works. Thus: Four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to one address for $9; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30; and so on.

REDUCED POSTAGE.

The postage on these periodicals has, by the late law, been reduced, on the average, about forty per cent. The following are the present rates, viz:

FOR BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

	Miles.	Per Quar.
Any distance not exceeding	500	9 cents.
Over 500 and not exceeding	1500	18 "
Over 1500 and not exceeding	2500	24 "

FOR A REVIEW.

	Miles.	Per Quar.
Any distance not exceeding	500	4 cents.
Over 500 and not exceeding	1500	8 "
Over 1500 and not exceeding	2500	16 "

At these rates no objection should be made, as heretofore to receiving the works mail, and thus ensuring their speedy, safe, and regular delivery.

☞ Remittances and communications should be always addressed, post paid, to the publishers,
