

He discards, in the main, the unpatriotic. Hence his speech of Indiana Webster and Haynes, his speech of Indiana...

Whig Nominations. For President, GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT, OF NEW JERSEY.

For Canal Commissioner, JACOB HOFFMAN, of Berks County.

For Presidential Electors, A. E. BROWN, JAMES POLLOCK, REPRESENTATIVE.

- List of names for Presidential Electors: 1. WILLIAM P. HENNING, 14. JAMES H. CAMPBELL, 2. JAMES W. STOKES, 15. JAMES D. PATTON, 3. JOHN W. STOKES, 16. JAMES K. DAVISON, 4. JOHN P. YERGEN, 17. DR. JNO. McVIGLION, 5. STENGER McVIGLION, 18. RICH. DEANE, 6. JAMES W. FULTON, 19. JOHN LINTON, 7. JAMES PENROSE, 20. ARCHD. ROBERTSON, 8. JOHN SHAEFFER, 21. THOMAS J. HOGLAN, 9. JAMES MARSHALL, 22. LEWIS L. LORER, 10. CHARLES P. WALLER, 23. CHARLES M. MYERS, 11. DAVID ALTON, 24. DORRAN PHELPS, 12. M. C. MERRICK, 25. SAM'L A. PURVANCE, 13. N. H. MIDDLEBURY.

To the Patrons of the Register.

With this number our connection with the Register as Editor and Publisher ceases. Inducements connected with different pursuits and in another section have influenced us to dispose of our interest in the Register.

To the Public.

It will be perceived by the above that the "Register" passes into new hands with the present number. In this assuming the control of a public print at the commencement of one of those political struggles that periodically convulse our country...

ITEMS.

An American schooner is reported as having turned Brazilian pirate. Great complaint is heard through the whole country of the scarcity and high price of provisions.

The Georgia Union Convention met at Milledgeville, on Thursday last, and reaffirmed the principles of the Union party.

There is said to be at the present time over twenty thousand tons of merchandise at Dunkirk, the Lake terminus of the New York and Erie Railroad, awaiting the disappearance of the ice, to be transported to the west and southwest.

The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says the telegraphic account of the Whig caucus grossly exaggerated, and that there are probably not half a dozen Whigs in Congress who would not support Gen. Scott if nominated.

The Committee on Elections in the House, April 22, in the case of Col. Hendrick B. Wright, contesting the seat of Henry M. Fuller, as Representative in Congress from the Luzerne District, Pa., reported a resolution declaring Mr. Fuller's seat vacant, on the ground that the election was illegal, and asking a new election.

The father of President Fillmore, it is said, is a Methodist preacher, and is at this time residing in a conference district in New York.

The Harrisburg Union mounts a "rooster" upon a rum barrel, by way of crowing over the election returns of Connecticut. The emblem is most appropriate.

The man who was kicked by a saw-horse last week, was obliged to submit to an amputation. His trousers' legs were taken off just above his boots. His case is a sad one.

In Cincinnati the best table butter is selling at eleven cents; in Albany it is selling at three shillings—the highest price known in that city. People who work for six shillings a day must spread their.

Rhode Island has elected a Whig Legislature and a Democratic Governor. This will enable the Whigs to elect a U. S. Senator.

The Pottsville Mining Register, alluding to the cheapness of land in that vicinity, says the price of an acre of coal land is now $18,000.

ITEMS.

Latter news from Europe, which means that things remain in statu quo in England, and on the continent. It appears to be a fixed fact that Louis Napoleon will seize the imperial crown before the lapse of many weeks.

The Cincinnati Inquirer says that the inhabitants of Carson's Valley have applied, or are about to apply to Congress for a new territorial government over that region which lies between Utah and California. They propose the name of "Piotra" for the new territory.

The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says the telegraphic account of the Whig caucus grossly exaggerated, and that there are probably not half a dozen Whigs in Congress who would not support Gen. Scott if nominated.

There is said to be at the present time over twenty thousand tons of merchandise at Dunkirk, the Lake terminus of the New York and Erie Railroad, awaiting the disappearance of the ice, to be transported to the west and southwest.

The Committee on Elections in the House, April 22, in the case of Col. Hendrick B. Wright, contesting the seat of Henry M. Fuller, as Representative in Congress from the Luzerne District, Pa., reported a resolution declaring Mr. Fuller's seat vacant, on the ground that the election was illegal, and asking a new election.

The father of President Fillmore, it is said, is a Methodist preacher, and is at this time residing in a conference district in New York.

The Harrisburg Union mounts a "rooster" upon a rum barrel, by way of crowing over the election returns of Connecticut. The emblem is most appropriate.

The man who was kicked by a saw-horse last week, was obliged to submit to an amputation. His trousers' legs were taken off just above his boots. His case is a sad one.

In Cincinnati the best table butter is selling at eleven cents; in Albany it is selling at three shillings—the highest price known in that city. People who work for six shillings a day must spread their.

Rhode Island has elected a Whig Legislature and a Democratic Governor. This will enable the Whigs to elect a U. S. Senator.

The Pottsville Mining Register, alluding to the cheapness of land in that vicinity, says the price of an acre of coal land is now $18,000.

ITEMS.

Latter news from Europe, which means that things remain in statu quo in England, and on the continent. It appears to be a fixed fact that Louis Napoleon will seize the imperial crown before the lapse of many weeks.

The Cincinnati Inquirer says that the inhabitants of Carson's Valley have applied, or are about to apply to Congress for a new territorial government over that region which lies between Utah and California. They propose the name of "Piotra" for the new territory.

The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says the telegraphic account of the Whig caucus grossly exaggerated, and that there are probably not half a dozen Whigs in Congress who would not support Gen. Scott if nominated.

There is said to be at the present time over twenty thousand tons of merchandise at Dunkirk, the Lake terminus of the New York and Erie Railroad, awaiting the disappearance of the ice, to be transported to the west and southwest.

The Committee on Elections in the House, April 22, in the case of Col. Hendrick B. Wright, contesting the seat of Henry M. Fuller, as Representative in Congress from the Luzerne District, Pa., reported a resolution declaring Mr. Fuller's seat vacant, on the ground that the election was illegal, and asking a new election.

The father of President Fillmore, it is said, is a Methodist preacher, and is at this time residing in a conference district in New York.

The Harrisburg Union mounts a "rooster" upon a rum barrel, by way of crowing over the election returns of Connecticut. The emblem is most appropriate.

The man who was kicked by a saw-horse last week, was obliged to submit to an amputation. His trousers' legs were taken off just above his boots. His case is a sad one.

In Cincinnati the best table butter is selling at eleven cents; in Albany it is selling at three shillings—the highest price known in that city. People who work for six shillings a day must spread their.

Rhode Island has elected a Whig Legislature and a Democratic Governor. This will enable the Whigs to elect a U. S. Senator.

The Pottsville Mining Register, alluding to the cheapness of land in that vicinity, says the price of an acre of coal land is now $18,000.

ITEMS.

Latter news from Europe, which means that things remain in statu quo in England, and on the continent. It appears to be a fixed fact that Louis Napoleon will seize the imperial crown before the lapse of many weeks.

The Cincinnati Inquirer says that the inhabitants of Carson's Valley have applied, or are about to apply to Congress for a new territorial government over that region which lies between Utah and California. They propose the name of "Piotra" for the new territory.

The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says the telegraphic account of the Whig caucus grossly exaggerated, and that there are probably not half a dozen Whigs in Congress who would not support Gen. Scott if nominated.

There is said to be at the present time over twenty thousand tons of merchandise at Dunkirk, the Lake terminus of the New York and Erie Railroad, awaiting the disappearance of the ice, to be transported to the west and southwest.

The Committee on Elections in the House, April 22, in the case of Col. Hendrick B. Wright, contesting the seat of Henry M. Fuller, as Representative in Congress from the Luzerne District, Pa., reported a resolution declaring Mr. Fuller's seat vacant, on the ground that the election was illegal, and asking a new election.

The father of President Fillmore, it is said, is a Methodist preacher, and is at this time residing in a conference district in New York.

The Harrisburg Union mounts a "rooster" upon a rum barrel, by way of crowing over the election returns of Connecticut. The emblem is most appropriate.

The man who was kicked by a saw-horse last week, was obliged to submit to an amputation. His trousers' legs were taken off just above his boots. His case is a sad one.

In Cincinnati the best table butter is selling at eleven cents; in Albany it is selling at three shillings—the highest price known in that city. People who work for six shillings a day must spread their.

Rhode Island has elected a Whig Legislature and a Democratic Governor. This will enable the Whigs to elect a U. S. Senator.

The Pottsville Mining Register, alluding to the cheapness of land in that vicinity, says the price of an acre of coal land is now $18,000.

ITEMS.

Latter news from Europe, which means that things remain in statu quo in England, and on the continent. It appears to be a fixed fact that Louis Napoleon will seize the imperial crown before the lapse of many weeks.

The Cincinnati Inquirer says that the inhabitants of Carson's Valley have applied, or are about to apply to Congress for a new territorial government over that region which lies between Utah and California. They propose the name of "Piotra" for the new territory.

The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says the telegraphic account of the Whig caucus grossly exaggerated, and that there are probably not half a dozen Whigs in Congress who would not support Gen. Scott if nominated.

There is said to be at the present time over twenty thousand tons of merchandise at Dunkirk, the Lake terminus of the New York and Erie Railroad, awaiting the disappearance of the ice, to be transported to the west and southwest.

The Committee on Elections in the House, April 22, in the case of Col. Hendrick B. Wright, contesting the seat of Henry M. Fuller, as Representative in Congress from the Luzerne District, Pa., reported a resolution declaring Mr. Fuller's seat vacant, on the ground that the election was illegal, and asking a new election.

The father of President Fillmore, it is said, is a Methodist preacher, and is at this time residing in a conference district in New York.

The Harrisburg Union mounts a "rooster" upon a rum barrel, by way of crowing over the election returns of Connecticut. The emblem is most appropriate.

The man who was kicked by a saw-horse last week, was obliged to submit to an amputation. His trousers' legs were taken off just above his boots. His case is a sad one.

In Cincinnati the best table butter is selling at eleven cents; in Albany it is selling at three shillings—the highest price known in that city. People who work for six shillings a day must spread their.

Rhode Island has elected a Whig Legislature and a Democratic Governor. This will enable the Whigs to elect a U. S. Senator.

The Pottsville Mining Register, alluding to the cheapness of land in that vicinity, says the price of an acre of coal land is now $18,000.

ITEMS.

Latter news from Europe, which means that things remain in statu quo in England, and on the continent. It appears to be a fixed fact that Louis Napoleon will seize the imperial crown before the lapse of many weeks.

The Cincinnati Inquirer says that the inhabitants of Carson's Valley have applied, or are about to apply to Congress for a new territorial government over that region which lies between Utah and California. They propose the name of "Piotra" for the new territory.

The Washington correspondent of the Tribune says the telegraphic account of the Whig caucus grossly exaggerated, and that there are probably not half a dozen Whigs in Congress who would not support Gen. Scott if nominated.

There is said to be at the present time over twenty thousand tons of merchandise at Dunkirk, the Lake terminus of the New York and Erie Railroad, awaiting the disappearance of the ice, to be transported to the west and southwest.

The Committee on Elections in the House, April 22, in the case of Col. Hendrick B. Wright, contesting the seat of Henry M. Fuller, as Representative in Congress from the Luzerne District, Pa., reported a resolution declaring Mr. Fuller's seat vacant, on the ground that the election was illegal, and asking a new election.

The father of President Fillmore, it is said, is a Methodist preacher, and is at this time residing in a conference district in New York.

The Harrisburg Union mounts a "rooster" upon a rum barrel, by way of crowing over the election returns of Connecticut. The emblem is most appropriate.

The man who was kicked by a saw-horse last week, was obliged to submit to an amputation. His trousers' legs were taken off just above his boots. His case is a sad one.

In Cincinnati the best table butter is selling at eleven cents; in Albany it is selling at three shillings—the highest price known in that city. People who work for six shillings a day must spread their.

Rhode Island has elected a Whig Legislature and a Democratic Governor. This will enable the Whigs to elect a U. S. Senator.

The Pottsville Mining Register, alluding to the cheapness of land in that vicinity, says the price of an acre of coal land is now $18,000.