Whig Congressional Caucus. Some of the opposition papers are growing lusty over the fact that a few Whigs—or half-Whigs—withdraw from the Congressional Caucus.

Democrat Platform. There are not only a good many pillars necessary to keep up the "Democratic Platform," composed as it is of all the various materials of wood, iron, and stone...

New Publications. GRAMMAR for May is a sterling number, containing valuable contributions by H. W. Herbert, G. P. E. James, Horace Greeley, Mrs. E. Oakes Smith, and other distinguished writers.

Gov. Bigler's Votes. Gov. Bigler's votes have been exceedingly popular with men of all parties to the State, but none has met with more universal approbation than the one relating to the issue of bank bills.

Testimonial of Respect. At a meeting of the Montrose Lyceum held at the office of B. T. Case, Esq., D. G. DIMOCK was called to the Chair, and F. A. Case appointed Secretary.

The Electoral Votes of the States. The Judiciary Committee of the Senate of the United States, with a view of putting to rest all doubts on the subject, have made a report in that body, that no new legislation is required in regard to the new apportionment.

The New Township. The communication of Veritas, concerning the new township of Arrarat and the meeting in Thomson, we cannot insert in full, for want of room.

Cure for GARGLE IN COWS.—A Correspondent of the Geneva Farmer recommends a piece of pork rind the size of a walnut, to be given in three or four equal doses, occasionally, as a cure for gurgles.

Whig from our Exchanges. By the late news from Europe, an account is given of a singular catastrophe which had engulfed a chapel on a mountain in Sicily.

Synopsis of decisions of the Supt. of Common Schools. While the law does not, in terms, authorize it, the Superintendent does not see that there can be a reasonable objection to directors making such arrangements as is provided for in section XI of the School Law.

The Ad Valorem and Protection. The present tariff regulates the scale of duties to be paid on imports, by their value at the time and place where they were shipped.

What They Have Done. Our Editorial brethren throughout the State, very unjustly charge the present Legislature with having "done nothing."

Guns and Thunder. The Whig members of Congress assembled on a designated evening, not to nominate a candidate for President, nor yet to determine on what grounds one should be nominated.

Canal Commissioner. The nomination of Mr. HOFFMAN as Canal Commissioner, we believe gives entire satisfaction to the Whig party.
